

Hawaii

Points of Interest:

- Oahu
- Diamond Head
- Pearl Harbor
- Lanai
- Maui

Hawaii beckons as America's own tropical paradise, offering an exotic escape without the need for a passport. This stunning archipelago presents a diverse tapestry of experiences, from vibrant beach parties to serene countryside retreats, ensuring every traveler finds their perfect slice of paradise.

For those seeking ultimate luxury and tranquility, Lanai stands as a hidden gem. Known affectionately as the Pineapple Island, this intimate destination boasts some of Hawaii's most exclusive accommodations. Here, time slows down in the best possible way – the island is so peaceful that you won't find a single traffic light. Savor the sweetest, freshest pineapple you'll ever taste, picked straight from the source.

Maui, the Valley Isle, showcases Hawaii's dramatic natural diversity. As the second-largest island, it features truly remarkable terrain, including peaks that occasionally see snow during winter months – a surprising contrast to the tropical beaches below. Protected bays offer perfect conditions for paddleboarding, while more exposed shores deliver world-class surfing opportunities, making Maui a water sports enthusiast's dream.

The heart of Hawaii beats strongest on Oahu, the gathering place where most visitors begin their Hawaiian journey. Here, iconic Diamond Head beckons surfers to catch the perfect wave, while the sobering memorial at Pearl Harbor stands as a testament to history. As home to the Pacific's largest naval base, Oahu perfectly blends military heritage with vacation bliss, creating an atmosphere unlike anywhere else in the world.

Choose your island, or better yet, experience them all. Hawaii's legendary aloha spirit awaits, promising memories that will last a lifetime.

- Airport – Honolulu (HNL)/Lanai (LNY)/Kahului (OGG)
- Currency – US Dollars
- Visa required – Domestic travel, no passport required