

Publications & Thought Leadership

Raymond Giles

Raymond Giles is an author, contributing author, and travel industry writer whose work focuses on luxury travel, leadership, military service, entrepreneurship, and creating meaningful experiences through travel. His publications reflect a commitment to educating travelers while sharing lessons learned through global travel, business, and service.

Books

The Truth About Luxury Travel

Author

A guide to understanding the value of working with a luxury travel concierge and how personalized planning transforms vacations into exceptional experiences.

Born to Risk: Veteran's Edition

Contributing Author

A collaborative collection of stories highlighting resilience, leadership, and the experiences of military veterans.

Born to Risk: Signature Edition

Contributing Author

A collection of personal stories celebrating leadership, perseverance, and the willingness to embrace opportunity.

Legacy in Ink

Contributing Author

A collaborative publication exploring leadership, personal growth, and creating a lasting legacy.

The Silent Service Remembers

Contributing Author

A tribute to the history, service, and legacy of the United States Navy Submarine Force through the voices of those who served.

Published Articles

Contributing Writer

LuxRally Travel Digital Magazine

Articles featuring luxury destinations, travel planning strategies, concierge travel, and industry insights designed to help travelers make informed decisions and discover extraordinary experiences.

Areas of Focus

Luxury Travel

Executive Travel

Destination Weddings

Luxury Hotels and Resorts

River and Ocean Cruises

Leadership

Veteran Entrepreneurship

Meaningful Travel Experiences