Contact Info

This Miami native, self described as raised by Brooklyn; Ruby Croak attended SVA (School of Visual Arts) and MICA (Maryland Institute College of Art and Design) long enough to realize that she would never appreciate adult supervision. This rebel nature led her to slinging drinks at some of NYC's prominent downtown nightclubs, and now into slinging inks as a tattooist. Studying under Big Jaz Tattoo for several years before relocating to Los Angeles, Ruby is currently continuing to paint along side tattooing, specializing in watercolor and abstract her Art inspiration is primarily based off of Native American culture. After working for several years at Artistic Element along side some very renowned artists and traveling the world tattooing in major conventions, Ruby has managed to make a name for herself in the tattoo industry. Her passion for the arts and community has inspired her to open her own Tattoo studio/Art gallery in the West Adams district. "High Art Tattoo Gallery" is currently providing beautiful tattoos and art events with the purpose of engaging and uplifting the community.
