

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER ~ JUNE

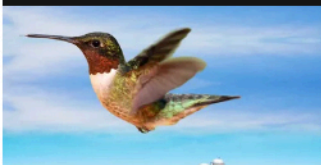

HUMMER-NEWS

LATEST NEWS ABOUT MIGRATION, FEEDERS, FUN FACTS & MORE. TIPS TO ATTRACT HUMMERS TO YOUR YARD.

THE LATEST NEWS!

Hummers have finally arrived in USA & Canada!

HUMMERS MIGRATE (2) TIMES A YEAR. SPRING & FALL

- They spend the Winter in Mexico & Central America.
- Returning in the Spring to their breeding grounds in North America.
- (USA & Canada)
- Flying thousands of miles!

MIGRATION FAQ

Track & Report Summer Hummer Activity

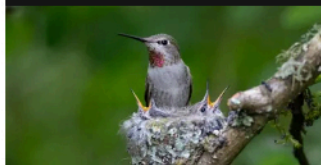

HUMMERS IN YOUR YARD? WHAT DO YOU SEE?

- Feeder Activity / Refills
- Favorite Flowers
- High Speed Chases
- Males & Females
- Nesting
- Baby Hummers!
- Photos

REPORT SIGHTINGS

It's Baby Hummer time! They can fly in 3 weeks

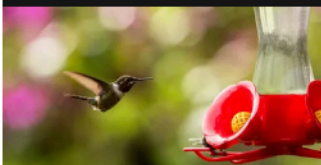

YOU SHOULD START SEEING BABY HUMMERS IN JUNE & JULY

- The Nest is made from twigs & leaves. Bound together w/ spider's silk.
- The female Hummers lays 2 Eggs. They are the size of a Pea.
- Eggs hatch in 14-21 days.

FASCINATING FACTS

Feeders are a great way to Attract Hummers!

HUMMERS LOVE RED! GET A RED FEEDER WITH FLOWERS ON IT

- Make sure it has perches to sit on
- Bee Resistant + Ant Moat
- Easy to Fill & Clean
- Refill every 2-3 days
- Hang more Feeders to Attract more Hummers

TIPS

Best Nectar Recipe for Feeders

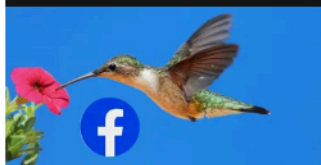

1 PART WHITE SUGAR & 4 PARTS WATER. MIX UNTIL DISSOLVED

- Don't use Nectar mixes with red dye.
- Only use refined white Sugar (table sugar).
- Anything else is toxic.
- Change Nectar every 2-3 days. Ratio: 1-4

RECIPE

Hummingbird-News Facebook page

LATEST NEWS ABOUT MIGRATION, FEEDERS, FUN FACTS & MORE!

- View Spring & Fall Migration Tracking Maps
- Know when to expect them in your area
- Tips to Attract Hummers to your yard

VIEW FACEBOOK PAGE