

Square the Circle

Attempting the impossible, or “squaring the circle” might seem like nonsense, and that’s because it is indeed nonsense! The square-circle is a product of mysticism, alchemical-symbolism, and just downright dumb and stupid juju! It seems as much a contradiction as the 3-in-1 God and Jesus and the Holy Spirit/Holy Ghost. If you are looking for confusion and chaos, welcome to my “spiritual confusion” quest for absolute truth, etc.
