

Quelle

Quelle, or Q, was an ordinary citizen in Amerika, where he got a job at the Underground Library, the basement portion of the University of Academia Library. It is said that this is where the real library work takes place. The Underground was formed after Act 333 passed, which criminalized certain books, specifically anti-Christian materials. These were ruled to be blasphemous and a threat to the national Logos, in which the separation of Church and State was no longer separated but together under the simple philosophy of "God and Country as One." Q did his duty to his country, and he burned books, and burned books until there were no more books to be burned. And simpletons then ruled as the anti-Christian materials were burned, reason and logic were supplanted, democracy was ousted, Theocracy reigned, and "our" nation vanished into the woodwork of history, a figment of what it was: It was a Great Nation no more.
