Committee Reports:

- Chief of Police Report N/A
- Fire Chief: Tickets Sales still going on for 2020 Ultimate Giveaway
- Public Works Supervisor Report: N/A on a water break located on Ohio Ave.
- Code Enforcement Report: Keith is meeting with Mark Gricewich, owner of old RG Honda building later this week. Keith also stated he met with Shirley Sheets about the ongoing problem with the fountain grass from T&T Hair. Keith stated he can't issue a citation for the problem because its not a public nuisance.
- Other Committee Reports: N/A

Public Comment: Shirley Sheets asked what could be done about the debris being left in the roadway and coming into her yard. She presented council with pictures. Keith explained that there isn't an issue and there is nothing the town can do. Joan McGary said there needs to be something done about the sewer drain located near 419 Michigan Ave. There's a huge hole gaining size by the day due to the traffic on the road. Joan also stated the town-owned right-of-way needs cleaned up. It's overgrown with trees and debris. She stated it hasn't been cleaned up in years.

*Meeting adjourned by acclamation at 6:53 pm.
Respectfully submitted,*

Rezin Davis Hudkins IV, Recorder

Sam Maxson, Mayor
