525.02 CRUELTY TO CHILDREN.

No person shall cruelly ill-treat, abuse or inflict unnecessary cruel punishment upon, any infant or minor child, and no person, having the care, custody or control of any minor child, shall willfully abandon or neglect the minor child. In addition to any penalty provided under this section and any restitution which may be ordered by the court, the court may order any person convicted under the provisions of this section to pay all or any portion of the cost of medical, psychological or psychiatric treatment of the victim, the need for which results from the act or acts for which the person is convicted, whether or not the victim is considered to have sustained bodily injury.

525.03 PARENTAL LIABILITY FOR ACTS OF CHILDREN.

The custodial parent or parents of any minor shall be personally liable in an amount not to exceed that specified in West Virginia Code 55-7A-2 for damages which are the proximate result of any one or a combination of the following acts of such minor:

- (a) The malicious and willful injury to the person of another; or
- (b) The malicious and willful injury or damage to the property of another, whether such property be real, personal, or mixed; or
- (c) The malicious and willful setting fire to a forest or wooded area belonging to another; or
- (d) The willful taking, stealing and carrying away of the property of another, with the intent to permanently deprive the owner of possession. For purposes of this section, "custodial parent or parents" means the parent or parents with whom the minor is living, or a divorced or separated parent who does not have legal custody but who is exercising supervisory control over the minor at the time of the minor's act. Persons entitled to recover damages under this section shall include, but are not limited to, the State, any municipal corporation, county commission and board of education, or other political subdivision of this State or any person or organization of any kind or character. The action may be brought in magistrate or other court of competent jurisdiction. Recovery hereunder shall be limited to the actual damages, based upon direct out-of-pocket loss, taxable court costs, and interest from date of judgment. The right of action and remedy granted herein shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any rights of action and remedies therefore against a parent or parents for the tortious acts of his or their children heretofore existing under the provisions of any law, statutory or otherwise, or now so existing independently of the provisions of this section.
