

The Third Institute Newsletter Vol 6

October Announcements

November 29th at 4pm we will be back at College Hill Library for the next installment of Roots! Professor Ernie and Assistant Mom will be teaching about Poet Maya Angelou and Ambassador Ralph Bunche!!

Success Stories

New Name?!?!? Cincinnati is putting their "touch" on Roots. Shout out to the kiddos at this month's class!!!!!!

Board Member Spotlight! Chinyere Amaefule!!

Who is your favorite Hero/Shero? My favorite hero is Booker T. Washington. Booker T. Washington developed and founded the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute known as Tuskegee University, in 1881

Booker T. Washington's education legacy is still here today after 140 years of founding Tuskegee University

Why did you join TTI? - I joined TTI because of TTI's commitment to inspire youth through educational programs and activities through black history. In joining TTI, I have witnessed the program and activities inspiring youth, individuals, families, TTI partners and volunteers, and the members of the organizations like myself. The youth have been able to learn history, develop public-speaking and leadership skills, gain confidence, and even become friends.

What is your hope for the future? It is my hope we are able to continue expand accessible youth programming as a society in effort to make a lasting impact on children beyond their childhood years.

What is your favorite children's The Giving Tree by Shel Silverstein. While the book's illustration may appear to be simplistic, the illustration depicts the impact of the tree as a "life line" given to

Shero/Hero Spotlight

Thurgood Marshall's parents would use viewing court cases as "punishment" for misbehavior. He became very good at forming arguments and chose "delivering justice" as a profession. Justice Thurgood took on the most difficult cases such as segregation in schools and won! He was appointed to the Supreme Court by President Lyndon Johnson.