

THE ISECS COMPLIANCE EDUCATION CENTER (ISECS-CEC)

The International Sanctions and Export Control Society (“ISECS”) is the only membership organization in the world dedicated to providing public benefit through assisting industry in compliance with export controls, sanctions, and in protecting international security.

WHAT IS THE ISECS-CEC?

The ISECS-CEC is the new learning management system dedicated to providing learners with certification and training programs developed by subject matter experts located throughout the world.

Only the International Sanctions and Export Control Society provides learners with a platinum level standard of education through a collaboration of global industry, attorneys and former government officials.

WHY ARE ISECS CERTIFICATIONS AND TRAINING PROGRAMS DIFFERENT?

ISECS certification and training programs are the only educational programs in export controls and sanctions developed in collaboration with:

- former government (regulatory, enforcement, intelligence and diplomatic) officials with experience working with more than 100 countries,
- attorneys from top tiered law firms, and
- senior industry professionals.

WHO SHOULD COMPLETE ISECS TRAINING AND CERTIFICATIONS?

- In-house global trade compliance professionals.
- Entry-level professionals in law firms, industry and government agencies.
- Students in universities, law schools, or other training centers.
- Anyone with a desire to learn about facilitating secure international trade.

Members automatically receive a 20% discount on all courses offered through the ISECS-CEC learning management system
