ADDENDUM: In the fall of 1994, my cousin Cecil F. Hornbaker wrote me and told me he was the tenth child of Frank and Addie. I checked the earlier "genealogy" and I chided Cecil for not being able to count. He then advised me that his father and mother had a son "Layton" who was born on May 8, 1903 and died on September 8, 1903. Some how, he was not included in earlier publications. So, we put him in this "history" and we have corrected ourself - Cecil is number ten.

Right (Not how you look at it, but as they are sitting or standing) Left
 The family of Omer and Emma Huffman Hornbaker - December 25, 1950.

I cannot identify all, but I will do what I can:

1. Emma Huffman Hornbaker is in wheelchair; 2. To her left - Omer Hornbaker; 3. Behind Emma is Lucille Hornbaker Krehbiel; 4. At the left end of the picture second from end is Allison Hornbaker and his wife Arlabel Stewart Hornbaker and their two children, Ann Louise and Thomas; 5. To the rear and right of Allison is Vernon Krehbiel, the husband of Lucille; 6. I do not know the lady next to Vernon, but I assume it is the wife of Cecil Hornbaker the next person (to the rear of and right of Omer); 7. Next we have Royal and his wife Norma Frinfrack Hornbaker and I suspect the young lady in the front of them and between them is their daughter Carol; 8. To the right of Carol, I believe we have Myron Hornbaker and to his right and slightly in front of him is his wife, Frances Smith Hornbaker; 9. The young lady to the right of and behind Emma Hornbaker is Joan Krehbiel Pease, who furnished me this picture; 10. To the right of Emma, the little boy with the Teddy Bear is, I believe, Lynn Krehbiel, the son of Vernon and Lucille Krehbiel; 11. The larger boy in front of Myron and Frances is their son, Bruce. In the rear row - right side - are two boys - I do not recognize them, I would assume one is Dean Hornbaker, son of Royal and Norma. The other young man may be a son of Cecil. At the left end of the second row there is a man and two women, I do not recognize them-they may be from Emma Hoffman Hornbaker side of the family.

CHAPTER IX

JOHN W. HORNBAKER II AND MARGARET I. MATHERS AND THE MIGRATION TO KANSAS

John W. Hornbaker II is my great grandfather. He was born in August 1817 shortly after the death of John W. Hornbaker I, his father, who drowned in the Licking River in Bourbon County, Kentucky.

John W. Hornbaker I was a son of Harmonious Hornbaker. Harmonious owned a farm in Bourbon County, Kentucky consisting of 56 acres which he sold on October 14, 1814 to James Houston for $627.00. The recorded deed is signed by Harmones Hornbaker, but his wife, Leah, signed by her (x). The deed is recorded in Book _____, at pages 411 and 412. Harmones had purchased the land on August 22, 1808 for 80 pounds (then current Kentucky money). The deed (Pages 135, 136, 137, 138 and 139) states the land is on "Brush Creek" and near "Harrods Creek" (note the county seat of Bourbon County, Kentucky is "Paris"). After he sold the Kentucky farm Harmonious moved to Preble County, Ohio, about 50 to 75 miles north and west of Cincinnati. Apparently his son John W. and John's wife Charlotte remained in Kentucky. In his Will, he signed his name as Harmones (June 5, 1832). In the Will he is referred to as "Harmonious". In his Will he mentions his grandson, Benjamin, but no reference is made to the second grandson, John W. Hornbaker II. In the probate proceedings on John W. Hornbaker I, there is no reference to John W. Hornbaker II (Probate Case #61) filed May 10, 1817, Preble County, Ohio.

Charlotte (Carlotta) Bishop, the wife of John W. Hornbaker I, is not mentioned in Harmonious' Will. John and Carlotta (Lotta) (Sally) were married on January 9, 1812. We have a copy of the "marriage bond" which was issued on December 31, 1811 and she is referred to as Carlotta Bishop. The marriage records in Bourbon County, Ohio show that John Hornbach married Sally Bishop on January 9, 1812. We know that Benjamin, the first son of John W. Hornbaker I, was born on October 21, 1812 (a copy of the marriage documents are shown on pages 25 and 26).

We do not at this time know what became of Carlotta after the death of John W. Hornbaker I. We do know that Benjamin lived with his grandfather, Harmonious, and John W. Hornbaker II must have been with his mother. We do know that on August 22, 1822, John William Hornbaccar "infant orphant of John William Hornbaccar" was indentured to Samuel Mathers by the "Justices" of Nicholas County, Kentucky (a copy of the "indenture" is shown on pages 27 and 28). Nicholas County is adjacent to and to the north of Bourbon County, Kentucky. We know nothing further regarding the "indentured child" except the references and anecdote set forth by Edgar Hornbaker (Uncle Ed) on page 5 of his 1934 genealogy.

From the "indenture" document, we glean that Charlotte has died, for John W. is referred to as an "orphant". The "Master" (Samuel Mathers) was to teach John W. a trade and Samuel is referred to as a "taylor". The apprenticeship is until John W. attains 21 years (which would be August 1838). Samuel Mathers was born on October 2, 1782 and died on August 13, 1833 at Carlisle, Kentucky. Thus, John W. Hornbaker II was 16 years of age when his "master" died.

According to the genealogy of the Mathers family as furnished to me by The Reverend Tomkins, we find that Samuel Mathers was born in 1759 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania and died December 19, 1830. Samuel had a brother William (born 1760, died November 30, 1844). William Mathers served in the Pennsylvania Militia on at least two tours of military service during the American Revolution. William married Esther Thorn (born 1762, died 1828). Seven children were born to this union and the last child born was Benjamin Franklin Mathers I, born September 15, 1797 in Nicholas County, Kentucky, died April 26, 1866, Clear Creek, Indiana.

Benjamin Franklin Mathers on October 21, 1822 married Grace Letton (born January 14, 1801, died March 11, 1877). The second child born to this union was Margaret Isabelle Mathers who married John W. Hornbaker II on September 28, 1848.

Margaret Mathers was the daughter of Benjamin Franklin Mathers, who was the son of William Mathers, who served as a soldier of the colonies in the American Revolution.

From the Mathers genealogy lists, we find that in the 1830's, many of the Mathers family left Nicholas County, Kentucky and moved to Monroe County, Indiana, near Clear Creek. Samuel, the person to whom John William Hornbaker II was indentured, died in 1833 (John W. was then 16) and it appears that he stayed with the Mathers family and came with them to Monroe County, Indiana.

At no place do I find any reference to John William meeting or seeing his grandfather, "Harmones Hornbaker" who was living in Preble County, Ohio. Nor do I have any evidence that Benjamin Hornbaker knew his brother, John W. Hornbaker, and versa visa?? If any one can supply information on this point, it will be helpful and appreciated.

I have in my possession a history of the first 100 years of the "Clear Creek Christian Church" (1838-1938). Listed as charter members of the Church and as "elders" in the Church are:

James Mathers	1838
John Mathers	1838
Benjamin Mathers	1838 (Deacon)
William Mathers	1838 (Clerk)

One hundred years later (May 22, 1938), T. Lee Mathers is listed as Clerk of the Church.

Captain Newton Mathers who was an officer in the Volunteer Regiment wherein James Madison Hornbaker and Finley D. Hornbaker served during the Civil War, was a cousin of Margaret I. Mathers Hornbaker.

The apparent mix-up on the correct name of Margaret Mathers is not unusual. You must remember that the documents we are looking at have been copied and recopied by many individuals and in many instances the writing is almost impossible to decipher. In the obituary for Margaret Mathers Hornbaker, her name is spelled "Mrs. Egaret J. Hornbaker" (obviously a printer's error) and her maiden name given as "Margaret J. Mathers". In an affidavit made by her son, her name is shown as Margaret I. Hornbaker. By a deed in Deed Book T, Page 315, Monroe County, Indiana, the deed was signed by John W. and Margaret E. Hornbaker. On her marriage license her name is given as "Isabela Margaret Mathers" (Book B, Page 157, September 28, 1848).

When the Mathers families (and John W. Hornbaker II) came to Monroe County, Indiana about 1835, John was 18 years of age and his "master" was dead. We must assume he was living with other members of the Mathers family. He shows up on a "poll tax" list in 1841 for Coalington Township, Monroe County, Indiana.

John W. Hornbaker was apparently a "farmer". A "property owners map" of Clear Creek Township, Monroe County, Indiana for 1856 shows that he owned considerable land:

1. West Half of Northeast Quarter of Section 9 - 80 acres
2. West Half of Southwest Quarter of Section 8 - 80 acres
3. East Half of Southeast Quarter of Section 8 - 80 acres.

In 1842, John W. Hornbaker II married Mary "Polly" Finley. Three children were born to the union:

America Jane, born August 12, 1843, died January 11, 1873, four children were born to this union:

- a. John W. Strain, born 1862
- b. Samuel M. Strain, born 1864
- c. James Strain, died in infancy
- d. George Sherman Strain

2. James Madison Hornbaker (Uncle Jim), born September 5, 1845

3. Finley D. Hornbaker, my grandfather, born January 8, 1848.

Mary Polly Finley died on January 16, 1848, just eight days after the birth of Finley D. So John W. Hornbaker II was left alone with two children and an infant one week of age.

John W. subsequently married Margaret E. Mathers on September 9, 1848. Seven children were born to this marriage of John W. Hornbaker II and Margaret Mathers Hornbaker:

1. Benjamin Curtis Hornbaker, born August 19, 1849, died November 24, 1880
2. Mary Louise Hornbaker, born October 5, 1852, died October 15, 1865 in Clear Creek, Indiana
3. Angeline Hornbaker (Aunt Angie), born September 10, 1855, died September 26, 1938
4. Laura Belle Hornbaker, born September 23, 1858, died April 4, 1904
5. William Scott Hornbaker, born June 1, 1861, died August 13, 1883 (Newton, Kansas)
6. Eunice "Grace" Hornbaker (Aunt Grace), born May 23, 1864, died July 12, 1949
7. John William Hornbaker III (Uncle Willie), born April 4, 1868, died January 1, 1948 (Newton, Kansas).

When America Jane, the first child of John W. II, died in 1873, John W. Hornbaker was appointed as "Administrator" of her estate. The records show that Sam Strain, the husband of America Jane, preceded her in death and America Jane married Timothy Collins on October 25, 1870 (Book 5, Page 246, Monroe County, Indiana). That marriage ended in a divorce (date uncertain, but before January 11, 1873, the date America Jane died).

The 1870's were apparently "hard" times for the farmer. It is interesting to read what happened in the family of John W. Hornbaker in those trying times and this gives us an insight as to why the family came to Kansas. I am confident that Edgar Hornbaker, and others, had full knowledge of these things, but didn't release the information. He did give clues, page 7 (1934 genealogy by Edgar Hornbaker):

"After the Civil War when values began to slump, many good men lost heavily. The panic of 1873 was a terrible disaster in the life of John William. Farmers and stockmen and feeders suffered great loss. Many who had amassed good, modest fortunes and those just beginning their business career took the advice of Horace Greeley, "went west" and grew up with the country."

When Uncle Ed wrote those words in 1938-39, children and grandchildren of John W. II and Mary Polly Finley Hornbaker and of John W. II and Margaret E. Mathers were alive. I knew them. They were rightfully proud people, proud of their heritage and their ancestors. I share that "pride", but it is my feeling that we should know the full story. I gathered this information in 1982, 1983, and 1984 by search of records in Indiana. The advisability of publishing the "facts" was a difficult decision and likely prolonged my work for several years. All whom I have asked have recommended that the facts be related.

All my information comes from court records in Monroe County, Indiana. We do not know the exact date of the death of Samuel Strain. We do know that on October 25, 1870, his surviving wife, America Jane Hornbaker Strain, married Timothy Collins (Marriage Record Book 5, Page 246). And, we know it was before October 23, 1869 on which date John W. Hornbaker signed a receipt as "Administrator of the Estate of Samuel Strain". We know the second marriage ended by divorce. America Jane Hornbaker Strain Collins died on January 11, 1873. She was survived by three sons: Samuel M. Strain, 11 in 1878, born 1867; John W. Strain who was 17 in January 1878 (born 1861); George Sherman Strain who was 13 in January 1878 (born 1865). And I have no information at this time as to the whereabouts of their descendants.

The events following the death of Samuel Strain as gleaned from court records: (1) John W. Hornbaker was appointed as Administrator of the estate of Samuel Strain. (2) On November 7, 1873 (four years after the death), John Hornbaker filed a report relating to the sale and transfer of real estate. I copy the full "report" below:

"In the Matter of the Estate of Samuel Strain, Deceased (Probate Book 5, Page 162) - Now at this time (November 7, 1873) comes in person John W. Hornbaker, Administrator of the estate of said decedent and makes and files the following report of the assignment and transfer of the certificates of sale heretofore issued by him to America J. Collins, who is now deceased. Which report made in the words and figures, to-wit:

I John W. Hornbaker Administrator of the estate of said decedent report to the Court that I as _____ Administrator heretofore sold to America J. Strain, in her lifetime (but who is now deceased) by virtue of an order of sale made by the Monroe Common Pleas Court (while in existence) the undivided two-thirds of the South Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section (21) Twenty-One, Town (7) Seven North, Range (1) One West, containing eighty (80) acres more or less situate in this (Monroe County) - that said sale was reported to said Monroe Common Pleas Court, and duly confirmed by the same. That after the confirmation of the sale of said land to the said America J. she became the wife of one Timothy Collins, and was soon thereafter duly divorced from him. That after being divorced, as aforesaid, she departed this life intestate and unmarried and also without having received, or any deed having been made or executed to or for her, or for her use, or benefit by me as Administrator as aforesaid, by the order of the said Common Pleas Court, and said title to said land still being in the estate of my decedent. That at the time of selling said land to the said America Jane aforesaid I as Administrator aforesaid, issued and delivered to her a certificate of purchase for said land, which she held at the time of her death - that before her death, to wit October 23, 1869 she paid to me, as Administrator, on said certificate, the sum of $1,071.67, which left due thereon, on that day a balance of principal of $541.67, which with the interest thereon to this date makes the sum of $672.93. That after the death of the said America J. as aforesaid, one Joseph Alexander Strain became the Administrator of the said America J.'s estate, and who as such Administrator by Order of this Court sold and assigned the aforesaid certificate to one John C. Johnson, who on this day, to wit, November 7, 1873, paid me the sum of $672.93 the balance in full, due the estate of my decedent for the real estate mentioned and described in said certificate of sale, which certificate I file herewith (see above) and with the endorsements and assignment entered thereon and made hereof. (Read below certificate of sale - Certificate of Balance (Note-Certificate not copied on this copy) . . . Wherefore, I ask the Court to make an Order directing me to make a deed to the said John G. Johnson the legal and equitable owner of said certificate for the lands aforescribed. All of which is respectfully submitted.

John W. Hornbaker, Administrator

Subscribed and sworn, this 7th day of November, 1873.

E.D. Pearson - Judge."

The report and motion was examined by the Judge and the Administrator was ordered to execute and deliver the deeds (Pages 162, 163 and 164, Probate Book 5, Monroe County, Indiana).

From the above we learn that America is dead and Joseph Alexander Strain was appointed as Administrator of her estate.

From another pleading in the estate of America Jane Hornbaker Streaan (the name is sometimes spelled Strain and sometimes Streaan), filed on June 22, 1878, we learn that John W. Hornbaker has been removed as Administrator of the Estate of America Jane, or he resigned, and one Wilford Carter is now "Administrator De Bonis Non" of her estate. From the pleading we learn the "Administrator De Bonis Non" sued John W. Hornbaker and got a judgment against him for money due to the estate ($1,384.19). Judgment rendered on December 14, 1876. The pleading states:

"Said Administrator would further show to the Court that the said Hornbaker since the within mentioned judgment was taken against him has been adjudged a bankrupt and that his estate is now in process of settlement. That one of his bondsmen is entirely insolvent and the other dead, and the estate in process of settlement. He does not think (the Administrator DBN) that anything could be gained by keeping this matter on the docket and would ask to have the same continued for one year.

Respectfully Submitted,

Wilford Carter, June 22, 1878".

The Court entered the Order to continue the estate for one year.

We then find that on September 5, 1879, Wilford Carter filed a motion asking that he be allowed to buy the land of John W. Hornbaker at a Sheriff's sale. The petition refers to the prior judgment against John W. Hornbaker and describes the land to be sold:

The Northeast Quarter of the Southwest Quarter (40 acres) and

The West Half of the Southwest Quarter of Section 8 (80 acres) and

The North Half of the Southwest Quarter of the Northwest Quarter of Section 9 (20 acres) and 106 acres off the West side of Northeast Quarter of Section 9, all being in Township 7 North, Range One (1) West.

The Court entered an order allowing the Administrator DBN to buy the property - which means the property came back to the Estate of Samuel Strain.

The next step is a lawsuit filed by Margaret Hornbaker (Case #144 Circuit Court of Monroe County, Indiana) filed on January 16, 1880 (this is after the family has moved to Kansas) wherein Margaret sued the Administrator DBN of the Estate of Samuel Strain and several other named individuals (it appears that other lawsuits had been filed against John W. Hornbaker and the named individuals had judgments against John W.).

Margaret claimed her "spousal rights" to one-third of the land and asks the Court to appoint a commissioner to sell the land and to give her one-third of the proceeds and the remainder would go to judgment creditors of John W. Hornbaker.

I have no further pleadings in that case; but from a pleading filed January 11, 1882 by Wilford Carter as Administrator DBN of the Estate of Samuel Strain, we learn the Court granted the partition and appointed a Commissioner to make the sale. The land was sold on March 26, 1881 (we are not told the sale price). The buyer paid one-fourth down and agreed to pay one-fourth in 6 months; one-fourth in 12 months and one-fourth in 18 months. The Administrator DBN says "the estate is insolvent and ask the case be continued until the last payment is due". The Court entered the order of continuance.

From the above records, we learn what Edgar Hornbaker meant by his words in his 1939 booklet. We have further reason for the migration to Kansas in 1879. And we can feel sorrow and sympathy for the principals to the sad story. But, most of all, we can admire and respect them for their exemplary lives in their new abode.

One more vignette - by a pleading in Case #25, "Samuel Strain Heirs" filed on January 30, 1878, we learn that Alex Strain has been appointed as "Guardian of John W. Strain, George S. Strain and Samuel M. Strain, minor heirs of Samuel Strain, deceased". In the petition it is stated "John W. Strean aged 17 years resides with John W. Hornbaker; George S. Strean aged 13, resides with James Roberts in Lawrence County, Indiana; Samuel M. Strean (note the variance in the spelling, all in the one document) aged 11, resides with John W. Hornbaker. I have found no records to indicate any of the Strain children came to Kansas with John W. in 1879. But from the above affidavit, two of the Strain children were living with John W. and Margaret in 1878. The guardian alleges the minors are the "joint owners" of an undivided one-third of an undivided 1/9th of certain described real estate. They inherited this from their deceased great grandfather, "David Finley" (died 1877) (Remember the first wife of John W. was Mary Polly Finley). He asks for permission to sell the undivided interest in the land (1/27th) for $333.33 (I would assume it was sold but I do not have all the court records before me). The petition does state that the "guardian" has received the full distributive share of the estate of the deceased mother and father (Samuel Strain and America Hornbaker Strain) ($1,856.35). So, while John W. Hornbaker II and his wife Margaret suffered severe financial losses in the "depression" of the 1870's, they did pay to the children of America and Samuel their full share of the estates of their deceased parents.

And, they came to Harvey County, Kansas in 1879, John W. Hornbaker II and his wife Margaret, and with them were James Madison Hornbaker and Finley D. Hornbaker, the children of the first marriage both of whom were married and both of whom had their own families with them; and five of the six living children of the second marriage, Benjamin Curtis, Angeline, William Scott, Eunice Grace and John William III. Laura Belle, the daughter of John W. II and Margaret had married Dan Parham in 1878. I do not know if the Parham family came "west" at that time. I do know that a few years later Laura Belle and her husband and family were living in Oklahoma.
