

Before Amen;
The Power of a Simple Prayer
A Study by Max Lucado

Intercessory prayer acknowledges our inability and God's ability.

Lesson #3a: They Need Help (continued)

Prayer is like knocking on the door of heaven, knowing that God will answer

Read
Exodus 32:1-14
1John 5:14
Romans 8:26-27

Key points:

- Jesus loved when people came to him with requests and supplications
- Jesus was willing to stop what he was doing to help those who asked
- We each have people who pray for us, whether we know it or not
- God love people more than you do
- You are never more like Jesus than when you pray for others

Discussion questions:

1. Do you believe that through prayer we can influence God's actions?
2. What are the implications for our prayer life if we agree with this?
3. How would our church grow if we committed to audacious prayer for her?

This Week:

I will knock on the door of heaven with my prayers,
believing that God will answer me.

Pocket sized prayer:

Father, you are good.

I need help.

They need help.

Thank you.

In Jesus' name, Amen
