FAST FACT 1

In today's Bible story, we hear that Jesus went with his friends to a place called a synagogue (sin-uh-gog). But what kind of place is that? A synagogue was the place in a Jewish town or village where people would gather together to pray, learn, and worship God.

FAST FACT 2

What is the difference between a synagogue and the temple?

The temple was one place in Jerusalem where people went for special times of worship and celebration. There were lots of synagogues throughout Israel, but only one temple in the city of Jerusalem.

FAST FACT 3

What is the difference between a synagogue and a church?

There isn't really much difference. When the first Christians gathered together, they were mostly Jewish people. Church and synagogue are both words that basically mean "assembly."

Peter's Mother-in-law Healed

Luke 4:38-44

Jesus walked from the city of Nazareth to a place called Capernaum.

While he was there, he taught the people all about God's love.

Peter was one of Jesus' disciples. Jesus went to Peter's house.

While they were at the house, they saw that Peter's mother-in-law was very sick.

She had a high fever. Jesus bent down and spoke to Peter's mother-in-law.

Immediately, the fever went away. Peter's mother-in-law felt much better!

Many people brought their friends to Jesus so they could be healed.

Jesus had compassion on the people and healed them.

After that, Jesus went to another place to teach people about God.
