

You Are Never Alone:
Trust in the Miracle of God's Presence and Power
A Study by Max Lucado

The disciple John interwove a tapestry of miracles in his Gospel so you can know that you are never truly on your own when Jesus is in your life.

Lesson #6: God is With You When You Need Grace

Read
Mark 9:17-27
Genesis 3:8-13
John 21:15-20

Key points:

- No matter what, God is always with us, even in our times of regret, shame and doubt
- God will always seek us out; just as he did with Adam and Eve and Peter
- Our God is our God of grace and forgiveness
- Nothing is impossible for our God
- Nothing we do or say... or don't do or don't say can ever separate us from God. He loves us that much.

Discussion questions:

1. Describe a time when you asked Jesus to help your unbelief.
2. What is our usual response when we have made a mistake and hurt or let someone down?
3. This study has been about a few of the miracles of Jesus. Do you believe in miracles in our present time?

This Week:

Remember, doubts and questions are not sinful or wrong. They are a necessary part of your faith journey, not a detour from it.
