Thinkin' back when, wish I knew then that I know how to brush the dirt off my knees from you and them pushing me down.

Cause baby my life is good, don't need to change a single thing to fit your rules. You better keep your eyes wide open cause baby you might miss out.

You should know, I'm doin' well.

You hide behind a screen although I can tell those words are how you feel about yourself.

If I could go back in time, I'd run up to you. I would tell you everything that back then I never knew. Like how your sticks and stones never had the power to break my bones.

And don't bother me with your opinions blowing up my phone.

You should know, You don't act the same your personality's different. You've really changed. What happened to the friend I thought I knew?

I am worth it, you don't have anything on me. No one's perfect, I have a sense of clarity. And I'll never change who I am for you. You'll never break me down. I caught the stones you threw.

I am worth it and I know you don't believe it but baby so are you.

I'll always remember the way you made me feel. I built up my army, then I left my sword on the battlefield.

I am worth it.

You don't have anything on me.

Perfectly imperfect, even though I can guarantee a few times before I have let you win.

But now I'm standing tall. I'm stronger than I've ever been.

I am worth it and I know you don't believe it, but you really should believe it...cause I can truly see that baby so are you.
