(Sunday School)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Time sure does fly. It seems like just yesterday I arrived at Faith Lutheran, eagerly awaiting what the year would bring. Now, as I prepare to head back to the seminary, I can honestly say that it did not disappoint. Since last August I've preached sermons, taught Bible studies, written devotions, recorded podcasts, led chapels, instructed catechism class, helped with Sunday school, made visits, and so much more. Outside of my vicarage responsibilities, my personal life came with its own excitement, as I got engaged and married to my beautiful wife LaNea! To say that a lot happened this year would be an understatement.

I'm sure that once I get back to the seminary, I'll be asked, "What was your favorite thing to do over vicarage?" The answer I plan to give is too nuanced to be contained in this newsletter article. But when it comes down to it, there's nothing I loved doing more over vicarage than teaching and caring for the people of God.

Throughout the course of the year, I deeply enjoyed getting to know you. I'm grateful for your comments, compliments, and critiques. I appreciated your questions pertaining to Holy Scripture and the proper application of the Word. I loved teaching you about Christ Jesus through each my vicarage obligations. And yes, I am thankful that our differing sports allegiances did not create a dividing wall of hostility between us! In all seriousness, I will miss you after I leave.

As I write this, I am reminded of how St. Paul longed to see the saints of Colossae. It pained St. Paul that he was not able to see them. Yet, he directed the Colossian Christians to find encouragement in the abundant riches of Christ. Though absent in body, St. Paul assured these saints that he was still present with them in spirit on account of their common faith in Jesus the Lord.

Since it will soon be time for me to leave you, my prayer is that you would always cling to the promises of Christ which bring us together. By His blood, Jesus has not only redeemed us, but He has also made us members of His body. Jesus unites us with Him and one another in the one, holy, Christian and apostolic Church. Because that Church is founded on the rock of Jesus' Word, it can never be separated. Neither time, nor space, nor even death can separate us, since our unity is hidden with Christ. Though I will soon be absent in body, I will always be with you in spirit. May the Lord bless you and keep you in the one true faith unto life everlasting, ever trusting in His boundless grace. Enjoy meeting the next vicar!

In Christ,
Vicar William Ebel

Dear Faith Lutheran Church,

Hello, my name is David A. Scarborough and I come from Niceville, Florida. I was born to David M. and Eve Scarborough at Eglin Air Force Base. I am a lifelong LCMS Lutheran and through my mom's side of the family come from a line of pastors.

I graduated in 2022 from Concordia University Wisconsin-Mequon with a Bachelor's of Applied Theology. During my time at CTSFW I was blessed with the opportunity to go study at Westfield House in Cambridge, England. While in Cambridge I was able to use what I learned from my two years of seminary and also serve the Evangelical Lutheran Church of England in the form of liturgist and preacher. I was also able to go and help in their church plants in Oxford and Ipswich. I finished up with my studies last week and returned just in time for Vicarage placement.

I will be getting married to Allison F. Sterling on June 13th, 2025 at her home church in Jonesboro, Arkansas. We are looking forward to meeting you all in July and August.

God's Blessings to you all until then.
David Scarborough

Vicar William Ebel was able to be in Fort Wayne and could welcome David Scarborough and congratulate Chase Greenhagen on Faith's behalf.
