CHRISTIAN GROWTH

(Sunday School)
flcgb.ss@gmail.com

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ at Faith Lutheran Church,

April showers bring May flowers. That is the wives' tale wisdom we cling to this time of year. As we see the signs of spring, the promises of what is to come, we need to be reminded that the trek to spring does not happen in a day, but comes, slowly, with the rise and fall of the temperatures, the wetting and drying of mud puddles, and even late season snow fall. The glimpses of spring might be around us, but we know it takes time for spring to finally arrive.

We are roughly half-way through the season of Lent, and we are looking all the more intently at the celebration of Easter. The readings we hear are fervently pointing us to the contemplation of the Lord's Passion. This newsletter is full of information about the Easter celebrations at church. You may even be longing for the breaking of your Lenten fast. As we get ever closer, more and more glimpses of Easter appear around us, but we know it will still take time for Easter to finally arrive.

We practice this waiting for the resurrection every year because it helps us remember who we are as God's children and what it is for which we are waiting. The great Easter, promised to us all, will occur with Christ's return, the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Each celebration of Easter (and every Sunday we gather is meant to be a "little Easter" celebrating Christ's triumph over death), serves as a glimpse of what is to come. Yes, there is an ebb and flow to life, "good" days and "bad" days, high points and low points, but that is because our God is patient and his timeline is not our time line. There may be days when it seems that his return is a long way off, but Easter reminds us that the time is coming, but God is giving time for the fullness of his people to be called his own.

As we wait for that great and final Easter, our task is to look and notice the glimpses of the Easter that is to come. To remind ourselves and one another of what God has already done because it is on his past work that our hope for what he has yet to do is founded. Just as we know spring will finally come, because our experience tells us it always has, we can be certain that Christ is return because he has always kept his promises to his holy people.

Psalms 136 boldly declares this message with the returning refrain, "for his steadfast love endures forever." Twenty-six times, the psalmist states an action of God and then rejoices that the reason God has done this work is because "his steadfast love endures forever." Like the glimpses of spring, and the yearly celebration of Easter, the psalmist is helping us to see the kind of God we have; a God who we can count on, a God who does not change, a God who does not go back on his word, but a God whose "steadfast love endures forever."

Pastor Errer

LENT IS A SEASON IN THE CHURCH YEAR THAT IS CHARACTERIZED BY AN INTENSIFIED FOCUS ON REPENTANCE.
 TRUE REPENTANCE BEGINS AND ENDS WITH THE WORK OF GOD'S WORD ON THE HEART, AS HE CRUSHES SINNERS
 WITH THE LAW SO THAT HE CAN RESTORE THEM WITH THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST JESUS. HOWEVER, REPENTANCE ALSO MANIFESTS ITSELF IN OUTWARD PRACTICES.
 THIS LENT, WE WILL TAKE A LOOK AT SUCH PRACTICES
 AS THEY APPEAR IN THE BIBLE, EXAMINING WHAT THEY TEACH ABOUT OUR SIN AS WELL AS OUR NEED FOR A SAVIOR.

LWML Notes

May 3 – All women at Faith are invited to the Spring LWML Rally to be held at Redeemer Lutheran Church on Saturday morning, May 3. More detailed information about this event will be available soon.

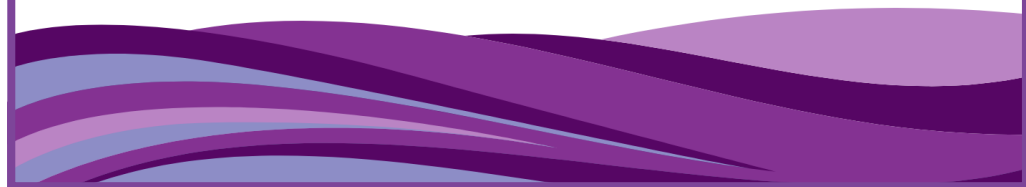

Lutheran Woman's Quarterly – Copies of the Spring 2025 issue of this magazine are available in the information rack in the Welcome Center as well as on the LWML counter across from the church mailboxes.

Stamps for Missions – Did you know that by saving the cancelled stamps from your incoming mail you can help mission projects? The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (North Wisconsin District) invites you to save used postage stamps. Please save stamps that have their perforations intact, are not too heavily cancelled, and are not torn, cut, or stained. When cutting it from an envelope, leave a minimum ¼ inch of paper on each side of the stamp.

Mites for Missions – Mite box offerings can be dropped off any time in the large box on the LWML counter, and new offering boxes are always available for your use.

Help share the love of Jesus as you serve the Lord with gladness!

Due to the generous gifts given to the Faith Lutheran Church Legacy Endowment Fund in the last couple of years, our congregation is blessed to have a healthy and active endowment. According to our constitution, and the intent of the endowment, the funds it provides are designated for non-budgeted expenditures in our congregation. This means its current intent is to supplement the mission and ministry of our congregation by providing resources to support the day-to-day work of Faith Lutheran Church. Each year, the Church Council and the Voters' Body authorize a 5% withdrawal from the total value of the endowment on January 1 of that year. This year, that amount was $100,825.04- what an incredible gift to our congregation. A portion of these funds, through the Jerry Delahaut is designated for scholarships to students attending NEW Lutheran High School and is divided among the students who are not eligible for the Wisconsin Parent Choice program. A different portion of the funds has been designated to be used for music and for scholarships to families attending one of the schools in the Lutheran School Association. The remaining amount is undesignated and the Endowment Committee receives proposals about how to use those funds each year.

So far this year, the committee has approved scholarships for children from 1st through 12th grade attending Camp Luther. Families are asked to pay a $100 deposit, and the Faith Lutheran Legacy Endowment Fund will pay the remaining amount. On April 5, Faith will be hosting Rev. Joel Shaltanis of Lord of Life Lutheran Church in Plano, Texas, to present on the topic "Drafted to be Lutheran." This educational event will include lunch for participants. This, too, is an opportunity made available by the endowment.

As the year continues, the committee will continue to receive proposals for the remaining funds. It is also working with sub-committees to define areas of long-term planning and needs to make sure that it continues to be a good steward of what has been entrusted to our congregation's care. The Faith Lutheran Church Legacy Endowment Fund is a great blessing and we give thanks to the generosity of those who continue to support its growth. If you would like to participate in the continued growth of the fund, you can give through the regular offering by designating the gift to the endowment or a specific fund within the endowment. You can also list the endowment in your estate plan or your Required Minimum Distributions. If you would like more information, please speak to either Pastor or Rod Goldhahn.

To understand who you are, you should have some idea of where you come from. Are Lutherans just watered-down Catholics? Did Martin Luther break away from the Catholic Church? Did he start a cult? Where do we fit into the bigger picture of Christians throughout the world? During this session we will look at who we are as Lutherans in light of the history of the Christian Church and what that means for us today!

Happy April! As the world around us bursts with new life and color, we are reminded of the incredible gift of springtime and the promise of renewal that God provides. This month, we're focusing on the joy of Easter and how God's love blossoms in our lives, just like the flowers in our gardens.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." (John 3:16)

Themes for April:

- Easter Celebrations: We will celebrate Easter with stories, songs, and activities that focus on the resurrection of Jesus. The children learned about the empty tomb and the amazing news that Jesus is alive!
- Springtime Wonders: We will explore the wonders of God's creation in springtime like budding trees, planted seeds, and discuss how God makes all things new.
- Kindness and Sharing: We will emphasize the importance of kindness and sharing, reflecting Jesus' teachings to love our neighbors as ourselves. We will encourage the children to show love and compassion to their friends and family.

We are grateful for the opportunity to share God's love with our students and thank you for partnering with us in nurturing their faith.

God's blessings!
