Genealogy

Begin the New Year by Researching Your Ancestors

Why Research Your Family History? Learning about your ancestors' lives of struggle and triumphs can provide an understanding of your own identity. Family history can reveal traditions, values, and practices that have been passed down through generations thus helping you appreciate your heritage.

The Boone County Library Genealogy Department was established by the Daughters of the American Revolution in 1974. The genealogy collection began with forty-seven books and seventeen rolls of microfilm. Today, the genealogy collection has over 2,030 books and 92 rolls of local newspapers on microfilm.

Our Genealogy Collection Includes:

Genealogy Books from Various States.

Books Regarding Immigration.

Revolutionary and American Civil War Books.

Historic Photo Archives.

The Ozark Mountains.

Marriage, Cemetery, and History Books for Several Arkansas Counties.

Newspaper Collection on Microfilm.

Due to the value of the genealogy resources, materials are not available for check-out. Researchers can access our newspaper microfilm collection.

Boone County Headlight 1923-2002

This was a weekly newspaper the microfilm is from the beginning to the close of the newspaper.

Miscellaneous newspapers:

The Green Forest Tribune (Green Forest, AR)

Mountain Echo (Yellville, AR)

Mountain Wave (Marshall, AR)

Newton County Informer (Jasper, AR)

The above miscellaneous newspapers are of intermittent dates. Call to inquire.

Note: Please schedule an appointment to reserve the microfilm reader.

Genealogist Office hours are Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Patrons may have access to the Genealogy Department during normal library hours. Inquire at the front desk when the Genealogist is out of her office.
