PRESIDENT'S UPDATE

Happy New Year!

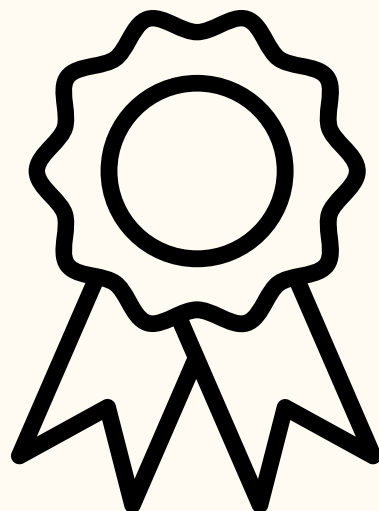

Happy New Year! As incoming President, I am so excited for a great 2025 season with great members, horses, and events. I love what the UHJA does for our members, riders, horses, and spectators for the sport in the state of Utah and beyond. I look forward to engaging with our members throughout 2025 and continuing to build out the vision of the UHJA, starting with our Banquet later this month!

Anne Godfrey, 2025 UHJA Board President

- HUNTER HACK 2': Hunter Hack is open to JUNIOR/ AMATEUR riders ONLY. Hunter Hack is NOT open to riders who ride in higher divisions than 2'. This is no longer a Medal class and will have year end award based upon cumulative placings.
- WALK TROT POLES: Riders may not cross enter into any other division.
- Only shows with USEF "R" or "r" judges can count towards UHJA year-end awards.
- Once a rider/horse combination champions in a division, they may not ride in a lower division the next year. (*application of this rule to a particular horse/rider combination can be appealed to the Board with a letter describing the situation and be accompanied by any supporting documentation such as a veterinary or doctor's note)
- Add .60m jumper division to all jumper shows and offer a year-end award for the .60m jumpers.
