"A LOVE BEYOND BORDERS: BIHARI GROOM AND VIETNAMESE BRIDE"

SHAMPY MANSHA WEDS TRAN LE THANH PHUONG

In a celebration that transcended borders and cultures, Shampy Mansha, hailing from Munger District, Bihar, India, exchanged vows today with Tran Le Thanh Phuong, a bride from Vietnam. The wedding, a harmonious blend of Indian and Vietnamese traditions, took place amidst a jubilant atmosphere in Patna, orchestrated flawlessly by their Event Planner - "Soulful Saga Event & Organisers".

The union of Shampy Mansha, son of Shri. Sunil Sinha and Shrimati Lily Sinha, and Tran Le Thanh Phuong, daughter of Mr. Tran Minh Duc and Mrs. Le Thi Thanh, marks not only a personal milestone but also a cultural bridge between India and Vietnam. The ceremony was a testament to love's ability to transcend geographical and cultural boundaries.

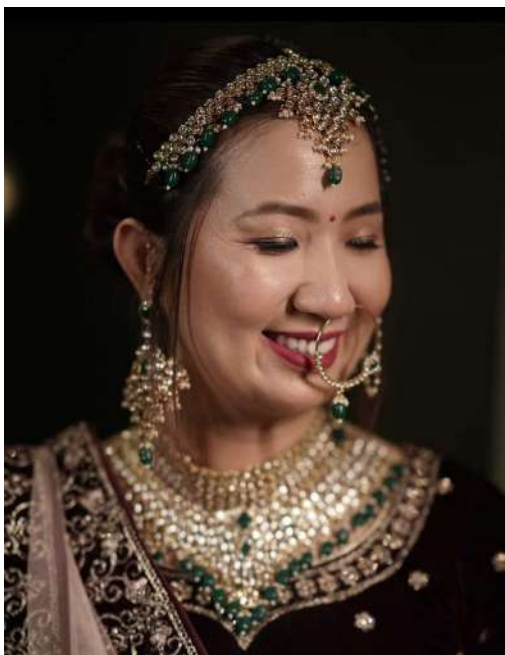

The festivities commenced with traditional rituals from both cultures, showcasing the rich tapestry of customs that each family holds dear.

The groom's side brought alive the vibrant traditions of Bihar, with colorful attire and traditional music resonating through the venue.

Meanwhile, the bride's Vietnamese heritage was honored with delicate ao dai dresses and subtle nuances of Vietnamese customs woven into the proceedings.

TESTIMONIALS

Tran Le Thanh Phuong

Thank you Soulful Saga for your warm and sincere words. I was truly overwhelmed by the solemn and beautiful decorations on my wedding day. I could not have asked for more when receiving so much sincere affection from both families, relatives and friends. Without the support from the Soulful Saga team, it would be difficult to have a perfect wedding between two cultures.

It was a beautiful dream, at the ceremony that day I wished that night would last forever. I will remember my wedding for the rest of my life. Once again, thank you very much everyone. ❤️❤️❤️❤️
