Direct Support Professional Keytta Dickerson took Steve R., & Mike M. to Kroger where customer service coordinator Lori showed them the ends and outs of grocery shopping. They had a grocery list they made up from their assignment last week. They came in and did their shopping. They proceeded to the front where they took turns checking out the other person's items. They were shown how to operate the register. How to ring up everything from eggs to fruit. They were taught how to bag their items. They were even shown how to do the self-service register. They headed to the back where Keytta's son Tommy works. He showed them where the delivery trucks came and where everything went in the back. Thank you, New Lexington Kroger, for the excellent on hands tour!
