Employee of the Month!

On March 4th we recognized Heather Anderson as our employee of the month. Heather is a Direct Support Professional whom is always looking for something to do. When she arrives to work, she starts right in with doing job duties like emptying all the trash cans, starts the washer and doing what laundry that needs done. She goes through the building and is always finding something to do. She also does Homemaker Personal Care, she is a caring person always goes above and beyond to help anyone out.

Heather enjoys spending time with family, reading and playing games on her phone, in her spare time.

Thank you, Heather for all you do!!
