IN THE SPOTLIGHT: COMMUNITY INTEGRATION

PerCo, Inc. is involved in partnering with the Community to integrate our people.

They love to go to the Dog Shelter to help with the dogs and they exercise at New Dimensions. They help out at the Food Pantries with unloading the trucks and sorting things. They also go to the Clothes Closet and help out there as well. Everyone loves to go on lunch outings at the local restaurants. Several of them go to Fairview Assisted Living, where they play Bingo, visit and eat with the residents, who love to see them. We go to the Library and some of them are learning to braid hair at Hair Expressions. When the weather is nice, they get to go on picnics at the parks and Burr Oak.

They've toured some of the local businesses where they get shown around and learn about how things are done there. Some go with us to help with shopping at Sam's Club, Kroger and other local businesses as well. You just never know where they'll show up next! If you have a place that you think they'd enjoy going to, please call us and we'll be pleased to consider it and make arrangements with you.

Cathy Fulk, Cody Webb and others browse through the books at the Twice Used Book Store on Main in New Lex.

Dayanna Ardrey is holding a puppy at the Perry County Dog Shelter as others walk dogs and help where they can.

Shawn Barnes is helping pick up the groceries for the PerCo Café.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Jane McConaha has only been at PerCo for a short time but has brought people to work here, so she was a familiar face. Jane is very much an asset for us. She works hard and is always reliable. Rick Cain is in the background.

FEBRUARY BIRTHDAYS

2/2 - Shawn Daulton
2/15 - Donnie Stalling
2/19 - Amy Fisher

A HIGHLIGHT OF 2019

I didn't get the Newsletter out for December but wanted to post some Pictures from the Christmas float. Beau Saxton and Morgan Guisinger Were instrumental in planning and Building of the float. They had some Help from others as well. I think they Did a great job and we're very proud of our "Best in Show".

PerCo Volunteers

Emma Harvey has been a Volunteer at PerCo for a while now and the guys love to have her come. She brings books that she thinks they'll like and reads to them. She's very personable and they enjoy talking and visiting with her.

Martha Addington has been volunteering for about 3 months now and is a big help around here. She helps get lunches ready for the guys who need help and will do anything she can while she's here. She is also very personable and the guys love to see her.
