

THERE IS NO DIFFICULTY IN MIRACLES

Dear Entrepreneurs, this is a lesson I learned the hard way and I pass it on to you to do immediately.

At the beginning of anything you always want to be sure you have no baggage. At least be willing to acknowledge you have baggage that you need to drop, because all those old stories hold you back. The old negative stories, he did that, they did this, etc. weigh us down, and we look for evidence to prove we are right.

What a colossal waste of your time!

It's not worth it. The price is too high. It's a waste of your time. You have work, wonderful, exciting work, brilliance to share, and money to make. So, to drag out those old scenarios take up brain time and waste your creativity. I know you think they are justified but it doesn't matter to the Universe who says yes to whatever you are thinking. ACIM says "we don't do what is in our own best interest" and this is one of those things.

When you let these old "dogs" off the hook, let them out of jail. Give them a break-a-way. Release ALL the hostages you hold. Let them go. It's EASY and can make you so successful.
