In addition, Williamson Medical Center will provide free photos with Santa beginning at 5:45 pm, and Mars, Incorporated is offering a pet-friendly photo opportunity on the square!

CHRISTMAS WITH PATRICK THOMAS

MONDAY, DECEMBER 6, 7 PM
FRANKLIN THEATRE, DOWNTOWN FRANKLIN

While attending Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Patrick Thomas was selected to perform on the inaugural season of NBC's The Voice. Making it all the way to the live semi-finals, his Nashville career began to take off. He quickly signed a publishing and artist development deal with Grammy Award-winning songwriter Brett James, penning over 200 songs in his first year. He eventually began work on a debut album exploring a variety of styles from musical theater (he composed a musical entitled The Battle of Franklin that would break box office records for the premiering theatre) to pop, R&B, and country with another Grammy Award winner, producer Mark Bright. In 2017 his self-titled debut EP was released. Meanwhile, Thomas was busy touring the country with Broadway vocalist Rachel Potter, co-starring in Country Legends, a concert-style musical revue of country music through the ages designed specifically for symphony orchestras. The show toured for over five years, appearing with orchestras from Alaska to Hawaii and everywhere in between.

CHARLES DICKEN'S CHRISTMAS CAROL A SOLO PERFORMANCE BY MARK CABUS

PRESENTED BY STUDIO TENN
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11
FRANKLIN THEATRE, DOWNTOWN FRANKLIN

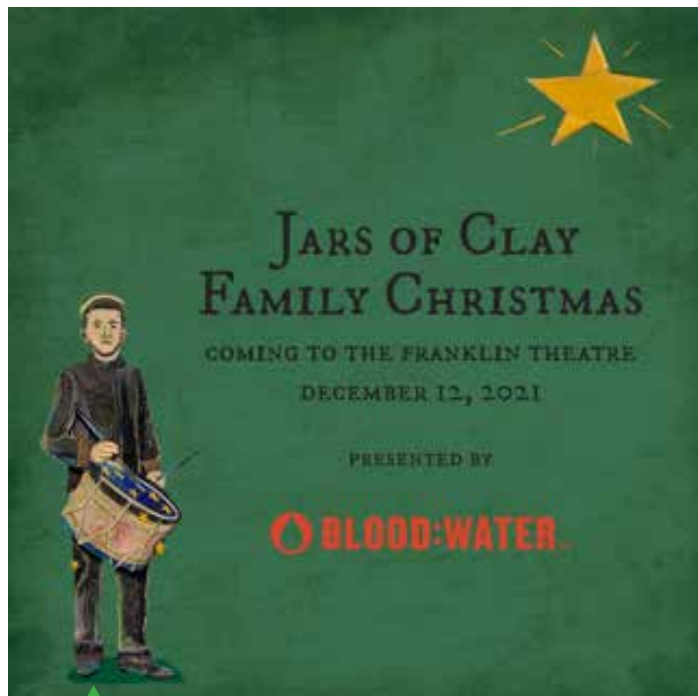

On December 18, 1843, one of history's most beloved writers introduced the world to, perhaps, its most popular ghost story. And Christmas would never be the same. You may think you know Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol by heart, but you've never seen anything quite like actor-writer-director Mark Cabus' acclaimed solo performance of the beloved holiday classic. In this ingenious adaptation, Cabus takes on more than 18 characters — from Scrooge to Marley's Ghost, Mr. Fezziwig, Bob Cratchit, and even Tiny Tim — engaging audiences with his quick wit and sharp skills, capturing the haunting tale of an angry, old man bound to save his shrunken heart. The Tennessean declared, "This Christmas Carol is one of the smallest yet most sensational shows of the year. Don't miss it."

LOTZ HOUSE CANDLELIGHT TOURS

EVERY FRIDAY & SATURDAY 6 PM TO 9 PM IN DECEMBER
1111 COLUMBIA AVENUE, FRANKLIN

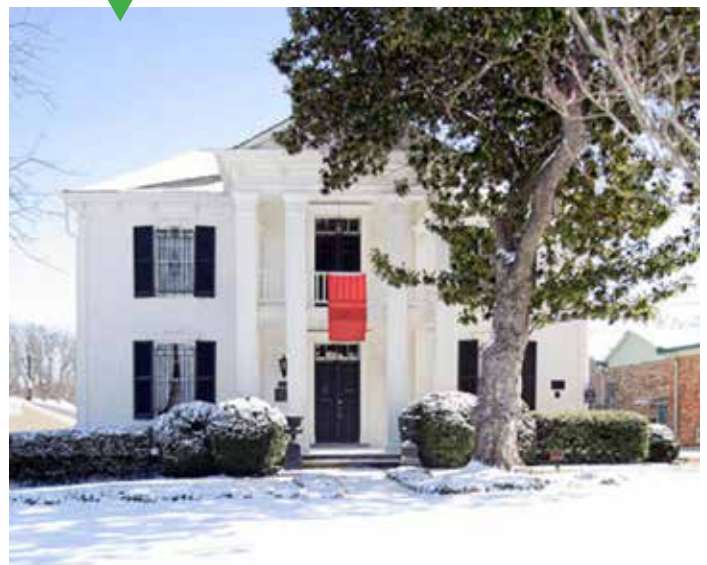

The Lotz House hosts a Christmas Candlelight Tour at the historic home every Friday and Saturday in December from 6 pm to 9 pm. The tour will showcase the decorations of the period of the 1864 Battle of Franklin, including fresh décor of pulled cotton, harvested nuts, fresh apples, magnolia branches, and cut holly.

“Christmas Candlelight Tours have been a Franklin tradition for many years, and we’re happy to continue that tradition throughout December,” said Lotz House Executive Director Thomas Cartwright. “We like to share what life was like in the 1800s during the holidays. Many guests find the natural decorations appealing today and want to emulate the look in their own homes for Christmas.”

Guests will be treated to hot cider and holiday cookies during the tour of the home while they learn about how families decorated and celebrated Christmas.

The tour includes all rooms of the house with a special emphasis on the dining room, complete with holiday decorations and even a country ham on display. The fragrances translate to Christmas and will get visitors in the holiday spirit.

The Lotz House is located at 1111 Columbia Avenue, ground zero of the Battle of Franklin. Candlelight Tour tickets are $12 per person every Friday and Saturday in December from 6 pm to 9 pm. For more information, visit www.lotzhouse.com or call 615-790-7190. Groups welcome.

Does the dry winter air have you itching?

CALL US TODAY FOR IMMEDIATE RELIEF!

- Dry skin is especially common in the winter months when humidity levels drop. The cold and dry winter air leads to a 25% reduction in your skin's ability to hold moisture making it feel tight and flaky.
- Although a long hot bath or shower may sound great during the cold winter months, it can strip your skin of its protective oils and exacerbate eczema.
- Dry, chapped hands are often caused by frequent hand washing and use of hand sanitizers, which contain harsh chemicals that irritate the skin.
