WILLIAMSON COUNTY FAIR

9 DAYS OF FUN' SET FOR AUGUST 6TH THROUGH 14TH AT WILLIAMSON COUNTY AG EXPO PARK

JEFF BRYANT

The annual celebration of Williamson County's agricultural resources will be held Friday, August 6th through Saturday, August 14th at the Williamson County AgExpo Park.

Rogers Anderson, Williamson County Fair Board Chairman, said, "The Board's vote to host the Fair in person this year signifies a desire to continue to provide education regarding Williamson County's agricultural heritage in a family-friendly environment."

"The Williamson County Fair has been a cornerstone of the community since 2005, and it has been our pleasure to host hundreds of thousands of our neighbors annually in August,"

Anderson said. "Our Board is committed to finding ways to innovate our favorite Fair exhibits and activities to ensure a safe and comfortable experience for all."

After voting to cancel the in-person event for 2020, the Williamson County Fair Board offered '9 Days of Virtual Fun' last August with a bevy of online games, contests, and educational videos for people to enjoy from their homes.

The 2021 Fair will feature daily entertainment, with the return of favorites like the Piccolo Zoppe Circus, Jurassic Kingdom, Robocars, and the XPogo Stunt Team. The popular Children's Barnyard is also set to return.

Back again in 2021, Roark Phillips is a self-taught chainsaw artist from Fayetteville, TN. Since the spring of 2006, he has been carving, with his first sculpture coming to life in 6 weeks. Now, Roark carves in many competitions and events, working under specific time restraints to complete these sculptures, sometimes in a mere 60 minutes or less. He brings them to life with such detail and precision you have to see it to believe just how unique these works of art genuinely are.

Carved pieces will be available for sale during the duration of the fair.

Back by popular demand, the Jurassic Kingdom is returning to the Williamson County Fair. This year they are bringing a new friend along. Be sure to come out and meet Blue, the Velociraptor, and make sure your cameras are ready! This Velociraptor is definitely on the wild side, and the audience is needed to help tame her and keep her calm throughout the show. However, blue can be a diva, so make sure you bring your A-game!

The Jurassic Kingdom Dinosaur Show is just one of the many unique and entertaining attractions this year. A definite "don't miss" show!!

ORDER OUT OF CHAOS

ORGANIZATION BY DESIGN

PAM WINDSOR

Mark and Sandra Sokol have helped a lot of people throughout Middle Tennessee get organized. As owners of “Closets by Design” in Franklin for nearly two decades, they are experts in creating order out of chaos whether it is in a closet, pantry, mudroom, laundry room, home office, playroom, or garage.

“When someone calls us, what we’re looking at is basically what someone’s needs are and what their space will allow us to do,” says Sandra Sokol. “We want to be as creative as possible, but we also want to be cost-effective when we’re beginning our design process.”

They start by sending a design consultant to the home for a free consultation. Depending on the customers’ needs, the designer might look at one small space, several different areas, or the entire home.

“The design consultants look at those spaces,” says Sokol, “sits down and talks to the client about their needs and wants, then measures, designs, and prices everything right there. Clients select colors and materials, and in just a couple of hours we have a contract signed and can give them an installation date.”

“Closets by Design” has its own manufacturing plant allowing it to create everything on site. That helps shorten the time between the design and installation date, as well as alleviate any potential delays in the event of a last-minute change or adjustment. There is no need to order a shelf from somewhere else and wait for it to arrive when it can be made locally.

The Sokols, and their staff, take great pride in helping people clear their clutter and improve the quality of their lives. In the years they have been in business, they’ve often created organizational units for a family in one home, then been called back to do it again when the family moves to a second home, and perhaps even a third. The longevity of their business has worked in their favor.

In the wake of COVID-19 they saw business drop at first, then pick up when people found themselves forced to stay home. As the lockdown continued, there was a growing need to revamp and reorganize.

“When consumers started having to stay home and work remotely, they realized their houses weren’t set up for that type of scenario,” says Sokol. “So, we started getting calls from people saying, ‘I need to have my house reworked, I’ve got to have a home office, or I’ve got to find a place to put the kids toys because the mess is driving me crazy!’”

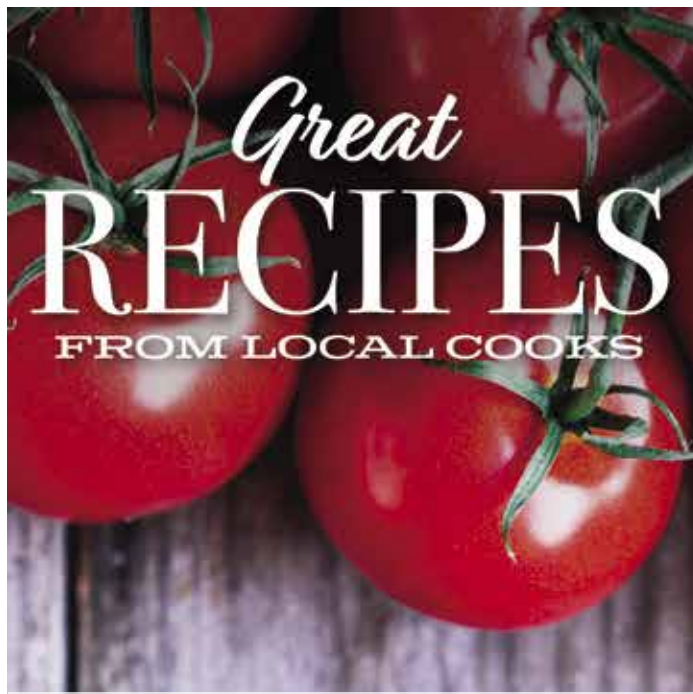

Though located in Franklin, their territory stretches north to the Kentucky border, south to the Alabama border, east to Tullahoma, then just past Dickson to the west.

Sokol says every day brings new challenges and new rewards.

“We’re in our 17th year of business and my husband and I were just talking about how we’d do it all over again tomorrow. We love what we do! We love our customers, we love our work family, and we feel very, very fortunate.”

NATIONAL DOLLAR DAY

National Dollar Day on August 8, honoring the day Congress established the U.S. monetary system in 1786. In 1862, the United States printed its first one-dollar bill. However, the first bill did not feature George Washington. Instead, the first dollar bill featured Salmon P. Chase, President Lincoln's Secretary of Treasury.

NATIONAL VINYL RECORD DAY

August 12 is National Vinyl Record Day. Most will agree, vintage vinyl is as classic as the bands themselves. The day encourages listening to all kinds of music on vinyl records. Visit a local music shop and start your vinyl collection. Many music enthusiasts prefer vinyl to other forms of recordings.

DOG DAYS OF SUMMER END

By definition, the Dog Days Summer is the hottest and steamiest part of summer. If you feel the effects of hot, muggy, and sultry, you can be confident that you are in the Dog Days. Typically, it is also a period of drought and occasional strong thunderstorms. This is when Sirius, the Dog Star, rises at the same time as the Sun, from July 3 - August 11.

Summer sun means it's time for warm-weather fun for kids of all ages, and all that activity and playing calls for snacks and hydration to recharge.

For an option that quenches hunger (and thirst) without sacrificing nutrition, try an assortment of ways to enjoy watermelon. As a refreshing ingredient or standalone treat.

Make watermelon part of a balanced snack plate with this Kids Charcuterie Snack Board, including assorted watermelon, peanut butter, and jelly sandwiches, sliced veggies, sliced fruits, crackers, pretzels, and more. In addition to the nutritional benefits, the simplicity of this snack means children can help assemble it while showing off their creativity.

Visit watermelon.org to find more kid-friendly recipe ideas.
