IT'S FALL, Y'ALL

Welcome to the fall season in Williamson County. As the air turns crisp and the vibrant leaves transform into a tapestry of reds, oranges, and yellows, excitement fills the atmosphere. This is the time when thrilling football games light up the weekends, and the cooler temperatures invite cozy gatherings with friends and family.

Every year, a remarkable army of passionate volunteers dedicates their time and energy to craft unforgettable events and festivals, ensuring that there's something delightful for everyone to enjoy.

From lively music festivals that get your toes tapping to mouth-watering food fairs that tantalize your taste buds, to engaging activities and adventures for children, Williamson County offers a rich array of experiences this fall. Prepare to be captivated by the many exciting events on the horizon! Here's a sampling of what's to come:

ADD TO YOUR COLLECTION

CELEBRATING COMMUNITY. HISTORY AND FUN

Franklin Parks' Family Day offers many opportunities for families to have a great time on this historical farm. This free festival features miniature train rides, hayrides, pony rides, and a petting zoo. Festival attendees can also enjoy cane pole fishing in the pond. Don't miss the Touch-a-Tractor area, which will consist of small excavators the kids can operate and large tractors the kids can sit on. This event will feature returning special guest,

The LT. Dan Band will be performing on stage, along with their opening act, Five For Fighting.

HONORING LOST SOULS

Each year on November 30, The Battle of Franklin Trust hosts the Annual Illumination. Ten thousand luminaries are laid out to represent the 10,000 casualties from the Battle of Franklin in 1864. The Illumination begins at 4:00 pm and will be held at The Carter Hill Battlefield Park. Names of the Battle's casualties will be read aloud throughout the ceremony, and visitors are invited to walk throughout the luminaries. Carnton Plantation and The Carter House will be open to the public for free walk-through tours from 5–7 pm.

This year's luminaries will be placed on both sides of Columbia Pike along the Federal line, which the Confederates briefly broke through, and where so many of the battle's casualties occurred. This event is free to the public.

Cooler weather means drier air—and your skin feels it first.

Seasonal changes can lead to flakiness, redness, and dullness if your skincare routine isn't adjusted.

This fall, give your skin the moisture it craves with our Intensive Recovery Cream, formulated for deep, long-lasting hydration, and our Ultra Hydrating Booster, designed to instantly replenish and restore your skin's dewy glow.

Our Board-Certified Dermatologists at Harpeth Valley Dermatology can help you create a customized fall skincare plan so your skin stays soft, smooth, and radiant all season long.

Schedule your fall skin check or skin care consultation today—and step into autumn with confidence!
