Benny Jett will speak at the Williamson County Library in Franklin on May 20 to discuss his book honoring Vets.
Photography by Robbie Mathis

TEEN AUTHOR TO SPEAK AT LIBRARY

Fifteen-year-old Benny Jett gathered over 920 names of past and present Spring Hill Veterans to be presented in his first book, Spring Hill, Tennessee Veterans. Since the age of twelve, he has been deeply involved with the Spring Hill Public Library's history projects, including writing and compiling two other Spring Hill history books. He is the first recipient of the Heart for History award (now the Naomi B. Derryberry Heart for History award) from the Spring Hill Historic Commission. Currently, he writes blogs about people of Spring Hill's history under the name of The Ancestor Detector.

Jett will speak at the Williamson County Library in Franklin on Tuesday, May 20, from 2 pm to 3 pm. A short Q&A will follow the event. Registration required.

Spring Hill, Tennessee Veterans is 132 pages full of photos and information about Spring Hill veterans. The first printing is limited to 250 books. Each copy is numbered and signed by Benny Jett. The books are $35 each and can be purchased by contacting Jett through his website, theancestordetector.com, or The Ancestor Detector Facebook page.

ALSO AT THE LIBRARY

Also happening this month at the Library, the 2025 Garden Talk series continues. On May 12, from 1pm to 3 pm, the Williamson County Master Gardener's will present The Truth about Tomatoes.

Most gardening sources list the most popular home-grown vegetable as the tomato. But is the tomato considered to be a vegetable or a fruit? Learn the truth about growing America's most popular plant, including growing tomatoes from seed, selecting the perfect plant, transplanting tomato plants, and cultivating and harvesting your best tomatoes ever. Register online for this event as well.

The Williamson County Library is located at 1314 Columbia Avenue in Franklin. Visit wcpltn.org for more details about these and other events.

Bill Schnee has worked with many legendary artists in his career. Photography by Michael Tedesco

CHAIRMAN AT THE BOARD

PAM WINDSOR

Those outside the music industry might not immediately recognize his name, but Bill Schnee has worked with so many legendary artists over the past five decades, we've all been touched by his influence on American music.

The multiple GRAMMY and EMMY winner has produced, engineered, or mixed albums for Barbra Streisand, Ringo Starr, Elton John, Neil Diamond, Carly Simon, the Pointer Sisters, Huey Lewis and the News...the list goes on and on.

His credits include 125 gold and platinum albums and over 100 top 20 singles across the different genres of pop, rock, R&B, country and gospel. He wrote a book encapsulating his extraordinary career that's aptly titled "Chairman at the Board: Recording the Soundtrack of a Generation."

The book touches on his journey as a young musician fascinated with "sound" and how that interest guided him toward a career he never imagined. It shares his deep and unique insight into the music industry. It also includes countless behind-the-scenes stories involving many of the artists we've loved and admired through the years.

"Many of the people I've met and worked with are so great," he says. "You'd never know it, but some of these artists are terrific people in addition to being extremely talented."

Schnee recorded with Barbra Streisand, who has a longstand-

MAY IS MELANOMA AWARENESS MONTH

PROTECT YOUR SKIN

PROTECT YOUR HEALTH

Skin cancer is the most common cancer in the U.S., and melanoma is one of the deadliest forms. The good news? It's largely preventable with proper sun protection and early detection.

KNOW THE FACTS

- One in five Americans will develop skin cancer by age 70.
- Just one blistering sunburn in childhood doubles the risk of melanoma later in life.
- Daily sunscreen use reduces the risk of developing melanoma by 50%.

PROTECT YOUR SKIN THIS MAY

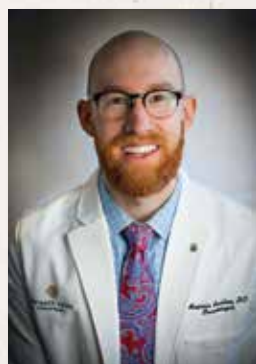

- Apply SPF 50+ Daily – Even on cloudy days, UV rays can cause damage.
- Reapply Every Two Hours – Especially after sweating or swimming.
- Wear Protective Clothing – Hats, sunglasses, and UV-blocking fabrics help shield your skin.
- Schedule a Skin Check with your Board Certified Dermatologist – Early detection saves lives.

OUR TOP SPF PICK

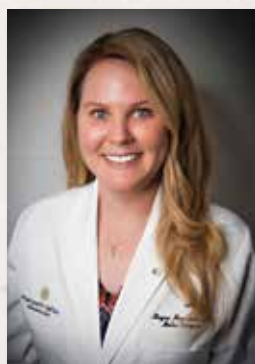

- HydroBoost Sunscreen SPF 50 – A dermatologist recommended, lightweight, and hydrating sunscreen that offers broad-spectrum protection without a greasy feel.
- Don't wait—take action to protect your skin and spread awareness about melanoma prevention.

ing reputation of being difficult to work with, but he says the two hit it off from the very beginning.

"Maybe it was dumb luck because, yes, she is demanding. She knows what she wants, and she has a memory like a steel trap. But I think part of my success in those kinds of situations is I've never been afraid to say no. If an artist is going to do something that's on a high branch and it's going to saw it off and we're both going to come tumbling down, I'll say, 'I don't think you should do this and here's why.' Someone like Barbra doesn't want to be told no, but if you explain why you're saying no, she'll listen."

He had the rare opportunity of riding the tour bus with the Jacksons (formerly known as the Jackson 5) and witnessing the frenzied fans' reaction to Michael Jackson after the soon-to-be King of Pop launched his solo career. And Schnee was front and center for a piece of true music history when he came close to a near Beatles reunion (with three out of the four) when Ringo Starr, George Harrison, and John Lennon all came together in one studio for the Ringo album.

"It was the only time that happened after they broke up," Schnee says. "I was 24 years old at the time, and all of a sudden, it was like, what just happened? Did I peak? But when you're in the middle of working with artists you don't think about the fact that they're famous."

In addition to sharing his observations of Ringo, George, and John in the studio, he takes readers along as he recounts his visit to George Harrison's "castle" in England.

Schnee spent most of his career in California, where he designed and ran his own highly innovative, cutting-edge studio for 35 years. Then, seven years ago, he moved to Tennessee. He's still helping artists shine in the studio and enjoys Nashville's different, more intimate approach to recording.

"Ninety percent of popular music today is made in a computer where they start with a metronome click and then add everything in and send it around," he says. "Here, we're still doing lots of live sessions where all of the musicians get into a room together. And the Nashville music community is just so much more supportive."

At 77, Schnee says he's grateful to continue doing what he loves.

"I'm really blessed, and very aware of how incredible my career has been and continues to be."

His book "Chairman at the Board: Recording the Soundtrack of a Generation" is available on Amazon. To learn more about Schnee, visit his website at www.billschnee.com/.
