Congregational Prayer (in unison):

On this Mother's Day Sunday, we are reminded that you, O God, are more than a Father to us. You are also a Mother to us.

You have nurtured us in your love.

You have wept with us, and you have rejoiced with us.

This morning we pray for our mothers and our mother figures.

We pray for all of the ladies in our lives who have loved us unconditionally.

We pray for those who are in our presence, some here in this worship service; and for those who are no longer with us.

Whether we like it or not, there are times we feel their hands resting on our shoulders, and we hear their whispers of advice and insight.

We offer prayers of thanksgiving for these women who remain a part of us forever, in the sparkle of our eyes, and in our gestures and quirks.

*Sending Forth with Blessing – Halverson Benediction (in unison):

You go nowhere by accident. Wherever you go, God is sending you. Wherever you are, God has put you there. He has a purpose in your being there. Christ who indwells you has something He wants to do through you, where you are. Believe this and go in His grace and love and power. Amen.

1 Corinthians 13

If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. ² If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³ If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁴ Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵ It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. ⁶ Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. ⁷ It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

⁸ Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰ but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. ¹¹ When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. ¹² For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

¹³ And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Exodus 20:12

¹² “Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.
