

Are you a sales professional passionate about horses, business, and service excellence? Would you like to help strengthen the OZNADIAN brand?

Do you pay close attention to detail and can hit the ground running? Do you thrive in a fast-paced, target-driven environment and enjoy working with a diverse team of people to deliver the best possible results? Can you grow sales and margin dollars within a designated territory by increasing business with new and existing customers, ensuring category development and overall customer satisfaction?

Adopt a "hunter" mentality to acquire new customers and achieve success. Develop personalized sales plans, including advertising, promotions, and other strategies. Continuously pursue and maintain a steady stream of potential customers through prospecting, networking, and referral activities within your designated territory or country to meet or exceed established quotas.

Oznadian is seeking applicants who have previous sales experience or related experience in the horse industry. The ideal candidate should have strong organizational skills and the ability to multitask to manage competing priorities. Additionally, excellent presentation and communication skills are required. If you possess these qualities, Oznadian is interested in you.

WWW.OZNADIAN.COM