

Aug 12/99
Expositor

Work is nearing completion on a Grand River pedestrian bridge, which will also carry sewer and water services to the northwest industrial area. Construction began in May, with in water work starting in early July, after the fish spawning season. The project is expected to be completed by the end of August or early September.

Brian Thompson, Expositor

ought olled"
ants, w
jail.
son. of