Press Release: Boston Newspaper Pressmen's Local 3 newly organized shops in Rhode Island

Quincy Ma, Boston Newspaper Pressmen's Union Local 3, President and Business Agent Stephen Sullivan, is happy to welcome two recently organized print shops in the state of Rhode Island. Local 3 has represented workers in all aspects of the printing trade since 1896. From printing and publishing to packaging, our qualified Journeymen and women produce the highest quality products in the industry today.

A partnership with Local 3 displays a commitment to working families in Rhode Island. We are proud to announce an affiliation with the following organizations. Please make an effort to patronize these great local businesses. And look for the Union Label for all your printed needs.
