AEPS SEMINAR 2020

Christmas is coming and it is already time to book for the AEPS Seminar 2020! These are always pleasant post-Christmas social occasions and very instructive on all aspects of philately.

The Association has arranged the 2020 Philatelic Seminar for Saturday 25 January 2020 at Henry Dixon Hall, Henry Dixon Road, Rivenhall End, Witham, Essex CM8 3HR, starting at 9.30am and finishing approximately 4.30pm.

We have always said that this Seminar is designed to assist and advise collectors to make more of their collections, so, for our 26th annual seminar, we have decided to try something slightly different. Instead of following a specific study theme, we will, this year, encourage all participants to entertain and educate us with their own displays. We will start with a round of two invited 48-sheet displays, then there will be three rounds of twelve 8-sheet or six 16-sheet displays each, open to everyone. It is hoped that the day will help to give people the enthusiasm, confidence and interest to exhibit their collections to fellow members at their home societies and also provide a shop window for society Programme Secretaries looking for speakers for their next season. Even if you have never displayed before, your participation will be very welcome.

If you do not want to display, do not let this put you off coming! Just come along and enjoy the variety and the social aspect.

As always, there will be plenty of experts present to help you with any aspect of collecting with which you would like assistance or to point you in the right direction to find out more. There will also be plentiful of opportunities to ask questions.

The cost will be £25 per person. This will include morning coffee, lunch and afternoon tea.

If you would like to attend, please detach and return the application form as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely,

R. E. HOW.
Seminar Organiser.
