Participants are taught skills that allow a Rifleman to be accurate out to 500 yards using a standard rifle with iron sights. This ability is traditionally known as mastering the 'Rifleman's Quarter Mile' and is an American tradition that has been part of this nation from its very first days. TJ Mauldin Named New Lead Pastor at First Baptist Church Tifton

This announcement marks a special day in the life of First Baptist Church Tifton. Please join them in congratulating and celebrating TJ Mauldin as their new Lead Pastor. TJ has served First Baptist Church faithfully for the past 11 years through Christ-centered leadership and is currently occupying the role of Executive Pastor and Preaching Pastor of the Connection service. TJ exemplifies their mission to Love God, Love People, and Multiply Disciples. First Baptist Church in Tifton is excited for this next season! At the beginning of the year, Pastor Wayne met with the staff, deacons, and personnel committees to announce his retirement. From those meetings a Pastor Search Committee was formed and after much prayer and discussion, the committee brought forward the call for TJ Mauldin to be the Lead Pastor. TJ met with multiple committees, deacons, and even the congregation to answer questions about the future of their church. On July 17th, the church exceeded the voting requirements and TJ Mauldin was approved to be Lead Pastor at FBC Tifton. TJ is full of integrity, faithful to the Word, and his love for Jesus is evident. Reaching the lost is paramount for TJ and he does this by seeking to build relationships beyond the walls of our church to lead people to Jesus. We welcome TJ, Taylor, Cameron, and Lizzie Claire into this new season and look forward to all the Lord has for the First Baptist Church of Tifton church family. They recognize that God has not only called TJ, but his family to love and serve their church. Taylor is not only TJ's wife, but his rock, best friend and ministry partner for life. First Baptist Church of Tifton is excited that God and their church chose this family to serve and lead them for years to come.

Lifetime Movie Brings Christmas To Tifton TV Movie Being Filmed At ABAC, Downtown Tifton

'Snow' at ABAC this week for a movie scene.

It's Christmas in July ... well, at least it is in the Friendly City as Tifton once again is a backdrop for a movie – this time a Lifetime TV Christmas movie starring Maria Menounos. And once again, Fitzgerald resident Alexander Kane with Workhorse Cinema is making things happen. Filming has been taking place this past week at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College and is continuing downtown and outside the Union Depot apartments. Billy Jack Harlow, who has been in four of Kane's films, said the shooting will continue around Tifton for the next two weeks. Kane said people are still being recruited as extras. "The production crew spun the web of fiction and frivolity for a holiday-themed movie scheduled to be released in 2023," an ABAC press release proclaimed. "Tifton has been good to us, and we're using many locations in the area," Associate Producer Ava Paloma told ABAC staff. "The plot of the movie is kind of 'Hitch' meets 'How to Lose a Guy in 10 Days,' set over the holidays." Portions of Tift and Lewis halls, two of the original three buildings at ABAC, were transformed into holiday scenes this week, complete with Christmas trees, presents, and even a snow-covered sidewalk, in Tifton's 96-degree weather. "The lead character, Jack McNeal, is one of the top publishers in the East, and we wanted something that looked very grand to represent those surroundings," Paloma said. "We thought we would have to go to Atlanta for the day, but everyone saw these buildings (at ABAC) and thought they would be great." Mike Chason, ABAC's acting vice president for communications and transition, had a small background part in the production. "What was so amazing was that one minute I was working in my office, and the next minute, I was concentrating on my steps just outside my office in an actual movie," Chason said. "It was lots of fun. Being 'inside' the movie as an extra showed me just how much attention to detail is involved in the process. Every facial expression, every prop, every piece of clothing is analyzed to see if that fits the scene." The movie's working title is "The Holiday Dating Guide." Playing the lead is Maria Menounos, who is an actress, journalist, and television presenter. She is known for "Fantastic Four," "Entourage," and "Kickin' It Old Skool." Menounos was part of the 14th season of "Dancing with the Stars," and has hosted "Extra" and "E! News," has served as a TV correspondent for "Today," and "Access Hollywood." Actor Brent Bailey, who wrote the script for "The Holiday Dating Guide," plays Menounos' love interest. He is currently a spokesman for Shell Oil commercials and starred as JFK speechwriter Ted Sorensen opposite Woody Harrelson and Richard Jenkins in Rob Reiners "LBJ." Bailey has four feature films in post production, and additional feature film credits include "Think Like A Man," "Fatal Beauty," "Girlfriends of Christmas Past," and "The Republic Of Two." He has had numerous TV roles on such shows as "N.C.I.S.," "Lucifer," "Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D.," "Criminal Minds," and "Rizzoli & Isles." Actor Steve Vinovich is playing another male role. He was Dr. Frederick Sykes on the soap opera "Days of our Lives" from 2002-2008 and has had many other roles through the years, including one in "The Intern" with Robert DeNiro and Anne Hathaway. Anyone interested in being an extra in the Tifton film may email their name, phone number, and a recent photo to tiftmovie@gmail.com.

Tift County Puts In Safeguards To Ensure School Safety, Supt Says

“Every single teacher should be teaching behind a locked door,” Tift County Schools Superintendent Adam Hathaway told the Tifton Rotary Club on Wednesday. Hathaway discussed school safety and takeaways from Uvalde, the city in Texas where a school shooter entered an unlocked door and then an unlocked classroom to take the lives of 19 children and two teachers. “Every bit of research tells us that in none of these cases did a school shooter kick in a door or shoot out a door,” Hathaway said. “When they find an unlocked door, that’s where they go in.” There were a lot of things that were not in place in Uvalde that are in place in Tift and surrounding counties. “As a school superintendent,” he said, “I’m confused about how that even happened.” After killing a family member and wrecking his car, the Texas shooter shot at a funeral home, jumped a fence, and left 20 casings in the school parking lot. “He was in the parking lot shooting for two minutes before he ever entered the building,” Hathaway said emphatically. In Tift County schools, on the back of every employee’s name badge is another badge with a button. “Any teacher in our entire school system can lock our buildings down like that. Any teacher can put the entire school in full lockdown,” Hathaway said. “Most school shootings are three minutes or less, so every second matters,” Hathaway said. “All of our kids and all of our teachers know exactly how to behave when they get that lockdown call. Every one of our exterior doors should be locked at all times. There should be one point of entry in every school. We started doing that several years ago.” He said he understands how uncomfortable it can be when a teacher is carrying items to have put them down and unlock an outside door, lock it back, then unlock their classroom door. “You know what is more uncomfortable? Standing in front of national media and explaining why 19 students are dead and two teachers are dead. That’s what uncomfortable is,” he said. “The No. 1 resource when it comes to school safety is our people. I can buy a $3 million door and put a $2 million lock on it, but if I don’t have a person that will shut it, that doesn’t matter.” Hathaway also discussed plans for growth and development in infrastructure among the schools. Most Tift County schools are more than 50 years old, he said, except Annie Belle Clark Elementary, which is 20 years old. Len Lastinger Elementary renovation is starting in January and is expected to be done by the following fall. A new middle school is out for bids to be built on the old Medford farm property on Highway 319. A new elementary school will be built on the Northeast Campus site. A new school will mean new districts with new zoning. There will be a lot of community conversation before drawing lines, Hathaway said. Also, in the next five years, Annie Belle Clark is coming up for renovation.

Last week, the Margaret Jones Public Library staff and children dove into the colorful world of Eric Carle and his classic story, “The Very Hungry Caterpillar”. They used the caterpillar to help children learn the letters in their names. Letter recognition is a skill children need to have in order to be successful readers. Make plans to join Margaret Jones Public Library anytime you can. There is always a great book to check out.

Georgia's Unemployment Rate Dips Below 3% and Job Numbers Reach a New High

July 21, 2022 Atlanta, GA - Georgia Labor Commissioner Mark Butler announced today that Georgia's June unemployment rate hit an all-time low of 2.9 percent while Georgia's number of jobs continued to climb to an all-time high of 4,801,800. Jobs are up 18,100 from May to June and up 246,300 over the year. Georgia's unemployment rate was seven-tenths of a percent lower than the national June 2022 unemployment rate of 3.6 percent. "We have never seen an unemployment rate below three percent," said Commissioner Butler. "The unemployment rate is decreasing exactly the way it should in a strong economy. We are adding new job seekers and they are quickly finding employment." The state saw a new all-time high number of employed Georgians of 5,134,566, up 10,420 in June. The labor force was at an all-time high of 5,289,765, up 8,103 over the month, and the number of unemployed was down 2,317 to 155,199, the lowest figure since March 2001's 152,974. Job numbers were at an all-time high in Trade and Transportation, 1,015,000, including the Wholesale Trade sector, 226,000, in Financial Activities, 270,400, in Professional and Business Services, 791,200, including the Professional, Scientific, and Technical Services sector, 319,900, and in Education and Health Services, 628,800, including the Health Care and Social Assistance sector, 534,200. The sectors with the most over-the-month job gains in June included Health Care and Social Assistance, 3,700, Professional, Scientific, and Technical Services, 2,900, Accommodation and Food Services, 2,400, Wholesale Trade, 2,200, State Government, 2,000, Non-Durable Goods Manufacturing, 1,800, Local Government, 1,500, and Finance and Insurance, 1,400. The sectors with the most over-the-year job gains included Administrative and Support Services, 35,600, Accommodation and Food Services, 32,800, Professional, Scientific, and Technical Services, 22,800, Transportation and Warehousing, 22,000, Health Care and Social Assistance, 20,700, and Retail Trade, 20,200. "The labor force has increased to its highest number ever as more Georgians are actively working or looking for work," said Commissioner Butler. "Georgia ranks highest in the Southeast and third highest of the ten most populated states with a labor participation rate of 62.3% for May." There are over 227,000 jobs listed online at EmployGeorgia.com, resulting in a minimum of over 300,000 unfilled positions. Market salaries for the jobs listed on Employ Georgia range from $23,000 to $105,000, showing a median salary of $44,000. Employers with over 1,000 job postings included Wellstar Health System, 1,500, Amazon, 1,300, Price Waterhouse, 1,200, Home Depot, 1,100, Emory University, 1,000, Deloitte, 1,000, and Northside Hospital, 1,000. Industries with over 10,000 job postings included Health Care, 35,000, Manufacturing, 21,000, Retail Trade, 19,000, Accommodation and Food Services, 17,000, Professional, Scientific & Technical Services, 16,000, and Finance and Insurance, 14,000. Initial claims were up 8,910 (53%) from May to 25,660 in June. Over the year initial claims were down 75,604 (75%). For personalized assistance, employers can reach Georgia Department of Labor (GDOL) staff at <https://dol.georgia.gov/employeremail>. Additionally, by visiting Employ Georgia, employers can manage job openings and access the state's talent pool. GDOL's Career Centers are providing in-person employment services by appointment. Job seekers can reach out to their local career centers for assistance. For more information on jobs and current labor force data, visit Georgia LaborMarket Explorer to view a comprehensive report.

Customers Become Family

Recently State Farm in Sylvester had a great visit with a precious fella. Mr. Ray Bittner stopped by to see Stuart Pate and his staff on his 99th Birthday! Stuart said that he has known Mr. Ray Bittner (aka Preacher Bittner) since he was 81 years old. "We are honored that he came by to see us this morning - on his special day!" stated Stuart. Mr. Bittner was once a champion handball player, and he still gets around very well. He even bragged a little while visiting the State Farm crew and showed them that he can still jump off the ground. Mr. Bittner is always eager to share his vast biblical knowledge and is an amazing person. Happy Birthday Mr. Bittner!

Kloey Harrison Recognized In Washington, D.C.

Last week, Kloey Harrison, who won this year's People Choice Award as a part of the annual 8th District Congressional Art Competition, visited Representative Austin Scott's Washington, D.C. office. Over 3,800 votes were cast on his Facebook page and Kloey's piece "Duality" was the overwhelming winner. Kloey recently graduated from Worth County High School and traveled to D.C. with her family to see her artwork hanging in his office. Join me in congratulating Kloey on this honor!

We Don't Want To Rush The Days But....
 Can College Football Please Start?

So this weekend, I have been catching up on things around the house such as restocking, cleaning up, work AND watching old games of college football. I have enjoyed it immensely and now I am ready for football season to kick off! I am a Gator Girl for sure but I have watched all the teams this weekend and even during the season I watch more than just the Gators. Having the television on just hearing football games brings a whole different feeling in the house. It brings a sense of fall and even a bigger sense of peace! There is something about football, fall and food that can bring happiness to most. Who is your college team that you pull for? Week zero begins around August 27th with week one kicking off on Labor Day weekend. Start making your plans with friends and family to have your favorite snacks and/or meals and watch football together! Enjoy making memories and yell for your favorite team!

A Bag To Go Will Start Serving Breakfast On August 1st

Did you know that about 30% of Americans eat breakfast out each morning? This number declines slightly during the Summer months but as soon as school starts, these number increase. The reason why you may ask? In most households, both parents work and the morning rush of getting ready for work and getting your children ready for school can cause a cooked breakfast to go by the waste side. However, A Bag to Go is now here to help with that. Customers had been asking them to start offering breakfast and they will begin on August 1st at 6am. A Bag To Go will have biscuits such as bacon, sausage, steak, ham or chicken. They will have breakfast burritos, grits and tator tots. And don't forget a good cup of coffee! Be sure to make plans to stop by and see them on August 1st!
