

This book explores emerging first response technologies, disruptions, opportunities, and community needs. By developing proactive design, adoption strategies, practices, nurturing communities of stakeholders and experts in their area(s) of emergency response, law enforcement commitment, local communication infrastructure, disaster management planning, educational leaders' involvement, and other approaches to emergency response situations that focus on the overall goal of achieving self-sustaining communities while providing services, training, and outreach to target communities. The guide will focus on the following areas:

- Utilization of Surveillance Technologies in Community Emergencies
- Centralized Emergency Communication systems
- Fire Detection and Training Technologies
- Vocational Education and Safety Personnel Development
- Local Opportunity Zone Stakeholder Development Strategies
- Emergency and Safety Awareness and Empowerment
- Mobile Emergency Center Technologies
- Public Safety
- Quality Control Capabilities
- Local, State, and Federal Funding Legislation Framework

BLUE INITIATIVE
PALMETTO LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

SAFETY AND SECURITY TECHNOLOGY SIMULATION CENTER FOR THE NEXT GENERATION

WRITTEN BY:

Eric Whiteside and John W Bryant