

A Call to Test the Truth

The Apostles' Doctrine — The True Beginning

What you are about to read goes back to the very foundation of the faith, to the same message the apostles preached from the beginning. This is the Apostles' Doctrine.

Their mission was simple and powerful: to bring people to believe in Christ, to reveal who the Christ truly is, to make known His real Name, and to lead every believer to the water of baptism. Through baptism they received remission of sins, a clean conscience before God, and the beginning of a new life.

The apostles did not wait weeks, months or years to prepare someone for this step. They did not require classes or relationships first. They preached, the people believed, and they were baptized that same day. Three thousand were added to the Church in one day (Acts 2:41). Later, five thousand more believed and obeyed (Acts 4:4). The Ethiopian eunuch was baptized the moment he understood (Acts 8:36–38). Paul himself was baptized without delay (Acts 9:18). Anything that comes after baptism is discipleship. That is where growth, learning, and transformation begins. But baptism itself is the doorway. That is where salvation starts.

Many churches today have replaced that pattern. They ask people to change before baptism or to take long classes before they are allowed to obey. That is not biblical. Christ said He came for those who are sick, not for those who are already well (Mark 2:17). The change begins when you are baptized, not before.

Now ask yourself this: Have you ever walked into a church for the first time and had someone come to you and ask, “Do you believe in Christ?” or “Have you been baptized?” Most likely not. In many places, you go to church, they might greet you politely, take your name or phone number, and that is the end of it. Some may say they are giving you space or respecting your comfort, but what they are really doing is leaving souls untouched. That is not the pattern the apostles lived by. The apostles did not wait for people to feel ready; they introduced Christ right away, explained the Gospel, and offered baptism the same day.

The order Christ gave is clear and perfect. He said to go into all the world and preach the Gospel, to baptize those who believe, and then to teach them to observe all things He commanded (Mark 16:15–16, Matthew 28:19–20). The apostles followed that same pattern without delay. They preached Christ first, revealed His true Name and identity, called people to repentance and baptism, and then continued teaching them after they were baptized. This is the biblical order. This is the Apostles' Doctrine.

This study is meant to wake you up, to bring clarity to what the apostles truly taught, and to help you understand why your Bible is not just a book, but the living guide to salvation. It will help you see what your Bible has been saying all along and why it matters now more than ever.

If you are reading anything else right now, stop for a moment. Pause whatever you are studying or reading and read this first. This booklet is priority.

The Lord has impressed upon me to deliver this truth to every single person who believes in Christ for correction, and to every person who desires to know Him or come to Him. My prayer is that when you finish reading this booklet, and go on to read the second study, you will understand the weight of this message and the importance of bringing this truth to everyone around you.

Dear Believer in Christ,

Grace and peace be unto you in the name of our Lord and Savior, Christ. I pray this letter finds you strong in faith, walking in obedience, and guided daily by the Holy Spirit.

I am not writing as part of a program or campaign, but personally and sincerely, as a fellow disciple and servant of Christ. My calling is simple: to point people back to the truth of God's Word and His perfect plan of salvation.

The Holy Spirit placed this study in my heart through years of prayer, fasting, and revelation. It was not taught to me by man but revealed through the Spirit of God. I have written it for you to read, test, and judge according to Scripture, because truth must always be proven.

This first booklet, The Name the World Changed: The Power of His True Name and the Baptism Heaven Requires, reveals how tradition altered the message of salvation and how the covenant of salvation is not sealed by man's effort but by obedient faith to the Name Heaven appointed. It is not law; it is relationship confirmed through obedience. This is not about earning salvation but about honoring the covenant the same way the apostles did, through faith that obeys. I urge you to read it carefully, slowly, and prayerfully. Keep your Bible open beside you. Every point can and should be verified by the Word. This is not written for argument but for awakening. It calls each of us to examine whether what we believe truly matches the pattern of salvation given by Christ and His apostles.

When you have completed The Name the World Changed and find through prayer and Scripture that it aligns with truth, I invite you to request the continuation, Part Two – The Covenant of Salvation: The Path, the Water, and the Spirit.

That second study walks line by line through repentance, water baptism, remission of sins, and the sealing of the Holy Spirit. It brings together everything revealed in this first booklet and applies it directly to the plan of salvation itself. Part Two also includes what I call The $1,000 Truth Challenge, a declaration of confidence in the message God has revealed. The challenge is simple and sincere: if anyone can prove, using Scripture alone, that what is written in the salvation plan contradicts the Word of God, I will personally bless that person with $1,000. This challenge is not about money; it is about the seriousness of truth. Salvation is eternal, and false doctrine costs souls. I would rather lose money than allow deception to go untested.

Important Note: This challenge applies only to Part Two (The Covenant of Salvation), not to this first booklet. To qualify, a person must have read both studies in full and must provide clear Scriptural contradiction, not opinion, commentary, or denominational belief. All proof must be based directly on the Word of God. The purpose is accountability before Heaven, not debate among men.

My Invitation to You

If you find truth in these pages, share it. If you have questions, reach out. If you desire to walk in full covenant obedience, contact me, text, and request Part Two. I will gladly provide all materials needed, whether the printed study or a Bible. This ministry exists to restore the foundation that Christ Himself laid, to guide souls to remission, and to see every believer sealed in the true Name of salvation.

“Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.”
