2023 Charity Reserve Committee Grant Application and Guidelines Introduction

St. John's United Church of Christ is continuing a program in 2023 to distribute some of our investment earnings to local charities. We plan to award several grants to selected recipients, not exceeding $5,000 each, at the end of this year. If your charity is interested, and is qualified to receive one of these grants, please review the following application guidelines, complete the application form, and forward it to St. John's United Church of Christ ATTN: Charity Reserve Committee in Burton, Texas before May 31, 2023.

ST. JOHN'S UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

GRANT APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Fundamental Objective:

The fundamental objective of the St. John's United Church of Christ Charity Reserve Committee is to provide recommendations to the church council for financial support to organizations complying with the 501(c)(3) status, further enabling them to serve lives through the love of God.

Grant Eligibility:

- All organizations must be tax exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- A significant use of the grant must be applied in the local area. This being in the following counties:
 - Austin, Burlison, Brazos, Fayette, Grimes, Lee, Waller, and Washington counties
- Grant requests for the following purposes will NOT be considered:
 - Annual or special-event fundraising activities
 - Capital campaigns
 - Endowment growth
 - Debt reduction

Special Considerations:

Special considerations will be given to organizations that will use the funds for the following:

- Relief of the poor, distressed, or underprivileged
- Promoting public safety
- Defending human rights
- The advancement of education
- Specific projects oriented toward mission or ministry intended to further the Kingdom of God
- Requests for grants that will significantly impact an organization's ability to fulfill its overall mission, project, or ministry
- Projects that show Christ's love to the community, including by not limited to, areas of social service, Christian education, or spiritual growth outreach
- Projects that empower people, rather than enable them
- Applications submitted on or before the deadline with full and complete information, including all requested supporting documentation

Grant Application Guidelines:

- As primary objectives, the activity or organizational mission and goals must reflect the desire to serve others through God.
- The grant writer must be actively and personally involved in the activity or organization for which the funds are requested.
- St. John's UCC Charity Reserve Committee, may request a site visit or personal interview with representatives of an organization that has submitted a grant proposal.
- Applicants should not contact the St. John's UCC Charity Reserve Committee or Church Council members during the application review period. All questions or updates should be directed to stjohnsburton@gmail.com

Grant Approval Process:

St. John's UCC Charity Reserve Committee, awards grants only once each year as the result of a formal proposal process. Grant Application forms and instructions are available at the St. John's UCC Office, 516 Colorado Street, Burton, TX or online at stjohnsburton.org under the Outreach tab. Contact the church office: 979-289-2485 to obtain an application by mail.

- 10 copies of the Grant Request must be returned by May 31, 2023 via US Mail or another mailing service (FedEx, UPS, etc) to St. John's United Church of Christ to PO Box 180 Burton, Texas 77835. Electronic submissions WILL NOT be accepted.
- An acknowledgment will be sent via email upon receipt of the application
- Questions should be directed to stjohnsburton@gmail.com
- Grant requests are considered by the Charity Reserve Committee of St. John's UCC.
- The Charity Reserve Committee recommends proposals to the Church Council for approval.
- By November 1st, the Church Council makes the final selection of the grants that will be awarded and the Charity Reserve Committee will notify all applicants of the results.

Award Recipient Accountability:

All recipients will be asked to confirm that grant funding was used for its intended purpose within six months of receipt of the award. Additionally, all recipients will be asked to provide St. John's United Church of Christ Charity Reserve Committee with a brief narrative explaining any impact the grant has made on the organization, its members, or the surrounding community within one year. Failure to provide the requested statements of accountability in a timely manner may impact consideration for future grants. Reports can be mailed to: St. John's UCC
