

Manners Quiz

1. Have you encountered a person, adult or youth, whom you felt needed to know about manners?  Yes  No
2. Have you met people who do not make eye contact during your conversation?  Yes  No
3. Have you met someone who does not have a good handshake?  Yes  No
4. Have you noticed someone who does not have good table manners?  Yes  No
5. Do you know someone who would rather talk on the cell phone than face to face?  Yes  No
6. Have you met someone who does not know about the “magic words” and does not say “please” or “thank you?”  Yes  No
7. Have you experienced having a door slammed in your face?  Yes  No
8. Have you experienced someone not knowing how to introduce him/herself?  Yes  No

These are the kinds of things the youth at The Emmanuel Center will learn this summer through their partnership with Manners Always Matter. We feel the time, energy, and expense will be worth the outcome in every way.

---

*Agnes Pokrandt (Book Club); Victor and John Robilio (NE Memphis Optimist Club and Curmudgeons); Lynn McDonald and Jo Garner (Talk Shoppe); Anna McNeill (Trezevant Manor); Dr. Kathy Tuberville (The University of Memphis, Professional Development Program and guest on We Believe in Memphis, Christ Church Memphis; Gerald Nelson (Oakland, Tennessee Chamber of Commerce); Anne Goss (Desoto County School System).