ABOUT Me

Dr. Jerrod Pickering

I'm a travel and landscape photographer with a passion for capturing the beauty, atmosphere, and unique personality of spaces. Specializing in hotel, resort, and property photography, I help businesses bring their locations to life through vivid, high-quality imagery that draws guests in before they even arrive.

Process

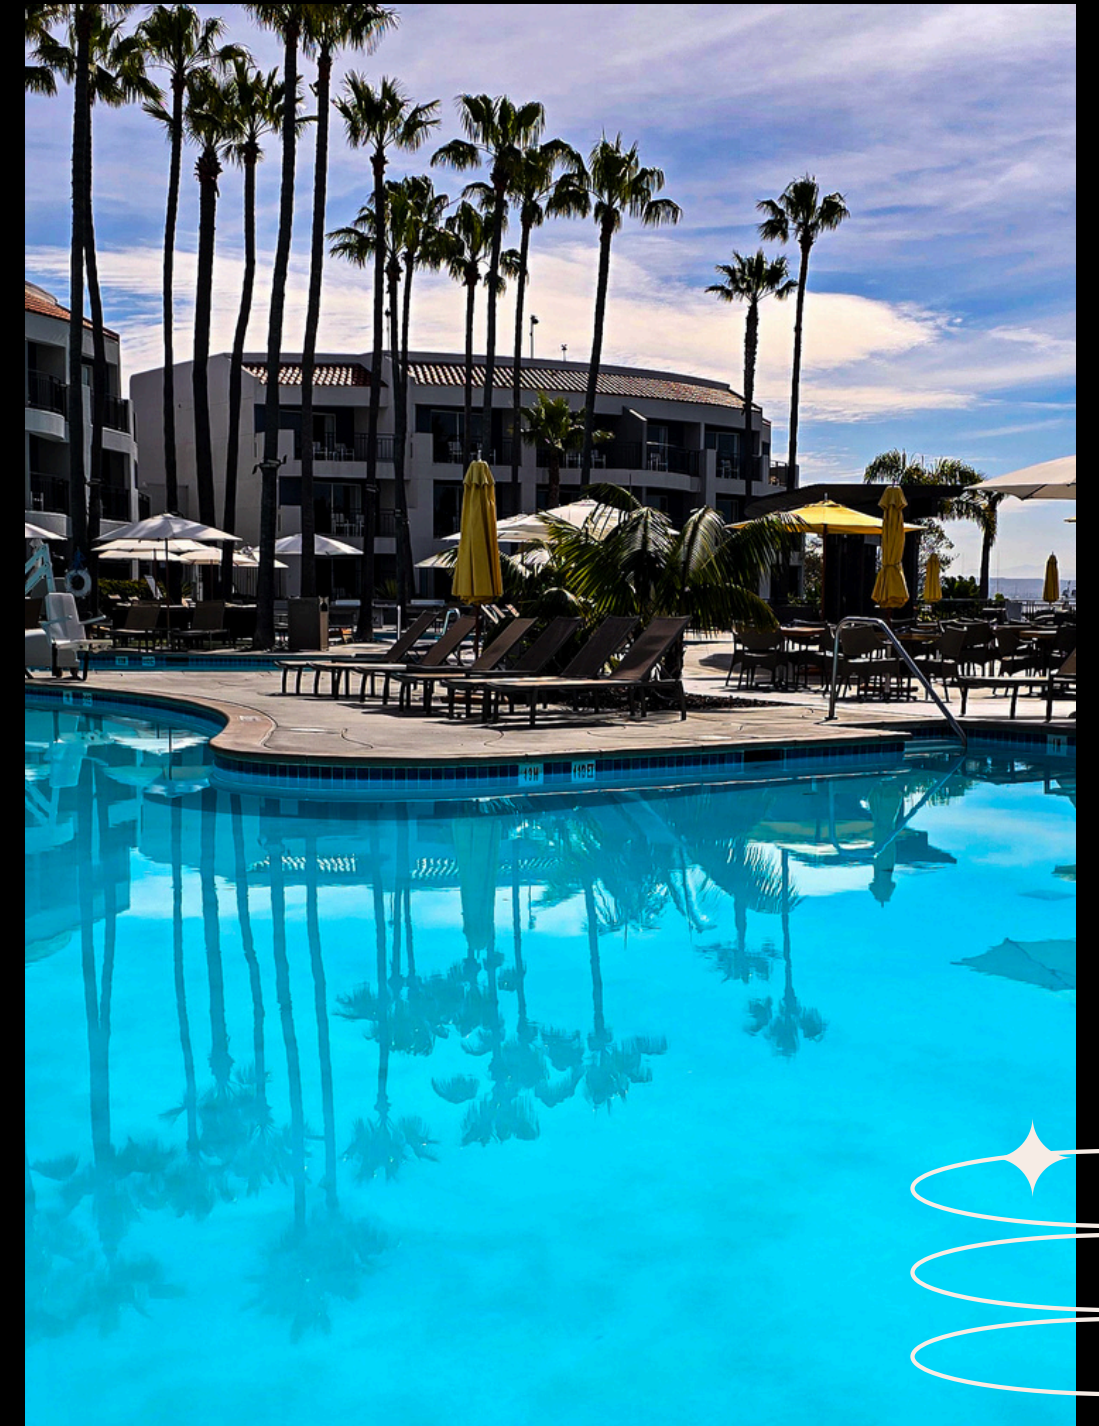

With an eye for detail and a focus on natural lighting, I highlight what makes each property stand out—from inviting guest rooms and vibrant lobbies to scenic views and intimate dining spaces. Whether you're looking to elevate your website, social media, or marketing materials, my photography is designed to tell your brand's story and inspire travelers to book.

COUNTRIES

Around the World

My camera has taken me across Europe, the United States, the Caribbean, and Latin America—capturing the essence of each place through thoughtful, immersive photography. From historic architecture and coastal resorts to lively city scenes and quiet natural landscapes, I aim to tell the story of a destination in every frame. My portfolio highlights the textures, colors, and moments that make each location unique, inviting viewers to experience the world through a fresh perspective.

Italy

Italy holds a special place in my portfolio, with its timeless architecture, sun-drenched coastlines, and rich cultural textures. From the winding alleys of Venice to the golden hills of Tuscany, I've captured the beauty and charm that make Italy unforgettable.

San Diego

San Diego's Balboa Park and Coronado Island have been favorite subjects of mine, offering a perfect blend of historic charm, coastal beauty, and vibrant California light.
