

Cleansing the Bride I & II

Destroying the Generational Roots of Harlotry
& Pulling Down the Stronghold of Jezebel

Intercession Repentance (Standing in the Gap)

Daniel did this for the entire nation of Israel. Then I set my face toward the Lord God to make request by prayer and supplication, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes. And I prayed to the Lord God and made confession and said, "O Lord, great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant and mercy with those who love Him, and with those who keep His commandments, we have sinned and committed iniquity, we have done wickedly and rebelled, even by departing from Your precepts and Your judgments. Neither have we heeded Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings and princes, to our fathers and to all the people of the land...9:3-16

"Now therefore, our God hear the prayer of your servant, and his supplications, and for the Lord's sake cause Your face to shine on your sanctuary, which is desolate, Daniel 9:17 God's grace is marvelous!

May the Lord bless you as you continue to gain your victory. "That He might present her to Himself a glorious church not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she would be holy and without blemish." Eph 5:27

Introduction

When preparing this manual it was my prayer that anyone having the spirit of harlotry in their generational line would see God's heart for their deliverance. God made provision for us to be set free from both spiritual and physical harlotry throughout scripture.

The book of Proverbs has countless warnings to the young about being seduced by wayward women.

Hosea, whose name means salvation or deliverance, shows the loving heart of God to bring freedom from harlotry and widespread immorality. It also holds the hope to inspire people to turn back to God. Hosea's continued love for his wayward wife portrays the picture of how God loves us in spite of our sin.

In John 8:3-12 we see how Jesus dealt with the sin of adultery. The Scribes and Pharisees brought a woman caught in the act of adultery to Jesus and told Him that Moses' law commanded this woman be stoned. Jesus knelt and wrote something in the sand with His finger. When He finished He stood up and said, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw a stone at her first." The accusers all left and Jesus said to the woman, "Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more."

God does not condemn us for our past sins and transgressions, but loves us and desires the reconciliation that sets us free.

Why should we use the full name of Jesus when praying? Acts 3:6 Then Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk. Acts 3:16 'And His name, through faith in His name, has made this man strong whom you see and know, Yes the faith which comes through Him has given him his perfect soundness in the presence of you all.'"

These scriptures give us a key for exercising faith's authority when commanding healing. Let us be complete when claiming our authority over sickness, disease, or demons. In our confession of faith or proclamation of power we must confess His deity and His Lordship. There is no legalism or ritual demand intended in this point. By praying in His name we exercise all authority given to us by Him and the privilege of the power of His name.

Legal right

What do we mean by the term "legal right?" In generational deliverance, dealing with surface issues is not sufficient. We must get to the root sin where permission was given for demonic oppression.

Say we are dealing with anger. We repent and then something occurs to cause bitterness and anger to raise up again. Why? The root is still there. You discover that back in your generational line someone committed a murder which was never repented for; this leaves an open door giving the enemy "legal right" to enter.

Heb 12:15 Looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble and by this many become defiled.

Matt 3:10 and even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bear fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

Word of caution; if you should reopen a door, immediately go to the Lord Jesus, repent, ask forgiveness and go forward in your faith.

Matt 12:43-45 When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places seeking rest and finds none. Then he says, "I will return to my house from which I came." And when he comes he finds it empty, swept and put in order. Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first, so shall it be with this wicked generation.

Preface

After reading Yvonne Kitchen's manual on Harlotry, I was inspired to research the subject of harlotry from a biblical perspective. Other resources I used were The New Unger's Bible Dictionary, American Dictionary of the English Language by Noah Webster 1828, The World Book encyclopedia 1990 and James Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible. The Spirit Filled Life Bible, New King James Version 1991 was used unless otherwise stated.

The 1828 Websters Dictionary defines harlotry as follows:

Harlotry -a trade or practice of prostitution, habitual or customary lewdness.

Harlotry - formerly applied to males and females.

1. a woman who prostitutes her body for hire
2. in scripture one who forsakes the true God and worships idols.

Prostitute – to give up to any vile or infamous purpose; as to prostitute talents to the propagation of infidel principles; to prostitute the press to the publication of blasphemy. A base hireling; a mercenary; one who offers himself to infamous employment for hire.

Strong's Concordance defines harlotry as follows:

In the Hebrew 66948 qedeshah, ked-ay-shah; a female devotee (i.e. prostitute); - a harlot, whore. From 6945 qadesh, kaw-dashe; a sacred person, i.e. (male) devotee (by prostitution) to licentious idolatry: - sodomite.

In the Greek 4202 porne, pernay; a strumpet, fig. an idolater:-harlot, whore, fem. of 4205 pornos, par-nas; to sell, a male prostitute, i.e. (by anal.) a debauchee, (libertine) :- fornicator.

I found various forms of these words were used 261 times in the scripture so I concluded if the Lord referred to this subject that many times it should be researched. You may find the following characteristics or some of them in those with a spirit of harlotry or where that spirit has been in the generational line. Lies, seduction, incest, deception, secrecy, hated, jealousy, flattery, enticement, temptation, shame, guilt, and unfaithfulness in marriage. The following information in this manual is a result of that research.

Blessings as you look to the Lord for freedom.

Standing in the Gap

Heavenly Father,

As I pray through this manual I am not only repenting, renouncing and praying for my own sins but I stand in the gap for the sins and iniquities that have not been repented for in my immediate family and those in my generational line.

I ask, Father that you show me every stronghold that must come down. Please bring Your truth to all ungodly beliefs I have accepted as true.

I apply the blood of my Savior Jesus Christ to my entire family line and I close any door through which the enemy has gained entrance through legal right. I ask for your blessing as I stand accountable and release my family line from the grip of the enemy. In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth who came in the flesh.

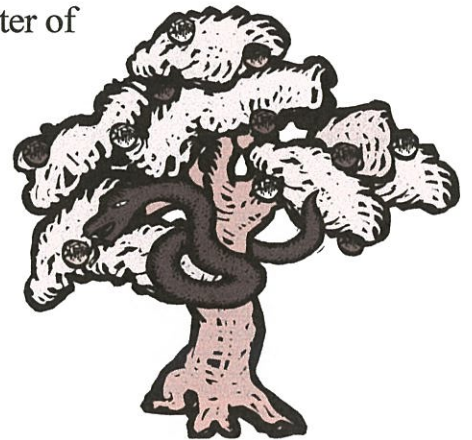

Amen.

GENERATIONAL PATTERNS OF HARLOTRY

In this section I hope to paint a picture of how harlotry passes through the generational line.

The pattern of deception, lies and seduction started in the 3rd chapter of Genesis with the serpent; followed by shame and guilt.

In Genesis 9 it speaks of Ham (the father of Canaan), who saw his fathers' nakedness. Noah cursed Ham in Genesis 9:25. The Canaanites had many false gods. The Israelites were later seduced to worship some of these false gods.

ABRAHAM'S GENERATIONAL LINE

Sarah was barren for a long time. (The fertility cult causes barrenness.)

Abraham lied about Sarah being his wife two different times to save his own neck.
Gen. 12:13 "Please say you are my sister, that it may be well with me for your sake and that I may live because of you."

Gen. 20:2 Now Abraham said of Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." And Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

Isaac

Isaac followed his fathers' pattern and lied about Rebekah being his sister. Abraham did not want Isaac to marry a Canaanite woman so he sent his servant to his family to find him a wife. Abraham said an angel would go before him and he would find a young virgin who would be willing to follow him. The servant prayed the young woman would give him water to drink. She not only gave him water to drink she also drew water for his camels; so he knew she was the one. The servant gave her a golden nose ring, and two gold bracelets. Rebekah was her name.

Gen. 26:7 And the men of the place asked about his wife. And he said, "She is my sister;" for he was afraid to say, "She is my wife," because he thought, "Lest the men of the place kill me for Rebekah, because she is beautiful to behold."

Rebekah

Rebecca was barren for 19 years after her marriage. Then God answered Isaac's prayers and she had twin sons; Esau and Jacob. Jacob was Rebecca's favorite. She carried on the spirit of deception by encouraging Jacob to steal the birthright of Esau. This story is found in Gen. 29. Jacob went to Rebekah's brother Laban and he continued the deception in Gen. 29:23.

Laban

Gen. 29:23 Now it came to pass in the evening that he took Leah his daughter and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her.

It was the custom for the oldest daughter to be married first but because Jacob loved Rachel, he agreed to work seven more years for her to become his wife.

Rachel

Rachel whom Jacob loved was barren a long time after marriage then had two sons and died after the birth of the second. She had lied about taking her father's gods.

When Jacob and his family fled from Laban, Rachel took her father's household idols. When Laban caught up with them Rachel lied to him about taking them. So the pattern of lies and deception continues in the family line.

Gen. 31:34-35 Now Rachel had taken the household idols, put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. And Laban searched about the tent but did not find them.

v 35 and she said to her father, "Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise before you, for the manner of women is with me." And he searched but did not find the household idols.

So you see one lie leads to another.

Judah

Judah the fourth born son of Jacob and Leah took a Canaanite woman as his wife. They had three sons and he chose a woman called Tamar as wife for Er the oldest son who was wicked so the Lord slew him. It was a custom of the time that if a son died early the widow would be given to the next son in line. Tamar was then given to Onan the second son but he rebelled and he died also.

Judah then promised his youngest son Shelah to Tamar when he became of age. Tamar had gone to her fathers to wait, but Judah never kept his promise.

After Judah's wife died he went to shear his sheep. Tamar found out about this and she took off her widows' garments and played the part of the harlot. Judah went in to her thinking she was a harlot. She asked him what he would give her for his being able to come into her. He said he would send a goat from his herd. She was laying a trap for him so said she would take his signet, cord and staff as a pledge of payment. When Judah sent the goat there was no harlot found, for Tamar had put on her widows garments and returned to her father's house.

Sometime later Judah was told Tamar was with child. He said, "Bring her out and let her be burned!" Gen. 38:24 and Lev 21:19

Gen. 38:25,26 When she was brought out, she sent to her father-in-law saying, "By the man to whom these belong, I am with child." And she said "Please determine whose these are—the signet, the cord and the staff."

v26 So Judah acknowledged them and said, "She has been more righteous than I, because I did not give her to Shelah my son. And he never knew her again.

Along with deception and betrayal we now see incest and harlotry. In the Old Testament harlots were stoned to death. Deut. 22:24.

Tamar

Tamar had twin sons she named one Pharez who was born in the breech position; a scarlet thread (the symbol of harlotry and incest) was tied around his wrist. In the breach position the babe has difficulty breathing because the cord is often around the neck like a noose. The other twin was named Zarah meaning rising.

Many of God's people are hung in a place and cannot get loose; some in their work, health, marriage or their spiritual walk. God wants to remove every noose.

Dinah

In Abraham's family tree we have seen a pattern of lies, deception, incest, and prostitution. Now rape, murder, destruction of a city and shame will be added to the list.

Jacob and Leah had one daughter named Dinah; she was raped by Shechem; the son of a Hivite priest of Canaanite decent. This story is told in Gen. 34.

The generational sins of lies, deception, incest and prostitution were never repented for and broken. This gave the enemy legal right for the rape. Simeon and Levi two of Dinah's brothers retaliated against the destruction; by taking up their swords and slaying all the males of the city. Then they spoiled the entire city. This brought dishonor to their father Jacob.

Gen. 34:2 And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite priest saw her, he took her and lay with her, and violated her.

Gen. 34:7 And the son's of Jacob came in from the field when they heard it, and the men were grieved and very angry, because he had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, a thing which ought not to be done.

Gen. 34:13 But the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father, and spoke deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister.

Gen. 34:14 And they said to them, We can not do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a reproach to us.

Gen. 34:15 But on this condition we will consent to you: If you will become as we are, if every male of you is circumcised.

Gen. 34:25 Now it came to pass on the third day, when they were in pain that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and came boldly upon the city and killed all the males.

Gen. 34:26 And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah from Shechem's house, and went out.

Gen. 34:27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and plundered the city because their sister had been defiled.

The story of Abraham and Sarah should show us the importance of repenting, renouncing and breaking generational patterns that have brought curses on our families. There is another story of rape, incest, and hatred that led to murder found in 2 Sam13.

Absalom

Amnon, David's firstborn was in love with his sister Tamar. He raped her and then threw her out because he hated her. In her shame she went to her brother Absalom. When King David heard about this he was very angry; but he did not carry out the commands of the Law against Amnon as he should have. Incest was punishable by death. Two years later Absalom devised a plan whereby his servant would kill Amnon.

This was not the end of the story. Absalom spent three years in exile with his grandfather. David then allowed him to return to Jerusalem but refused to see him. Absalom plotted secretly to revolt and he won over many of the people. David fled when he heard this and Absalom entered Jerusalem taking over David's harem that was left in the city. A plot to kill David was devised and Absalom was formally anointed King. A battle resulted in the forest and Absalom rushing off in pursuit got his long flowing hair caught between two branches. When he let go of the reins to try and release his head, the mule ran off leaving him suspended in midair. Joab found him and killed him there and had his body thrown into a pit and mounded over.

Because the roots of harlotry in this generational line were never dealt with you can see the pattern that led to destruction.

When the Israelites went onto the Promised Land they did not destroy and drive out all the pagan nations as instructed by God. They were surrounded by great seduction to other gods, prostitution of people, and harlotry.

Num. 25:1-9 Then Israel remained in Acacia Grove, and the people began to commit harlotry with the women of Moab.

v2 They invited the people to sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods.

v3 So Israel was joined to Baal Peor, and the anger of the Lord was aroused against Israel.

v4 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Take all the leaders of the people and hang the offenders before the Lord, out in the sun, that the fierce anger of the Lord may turn away from Israel.”

v5 So Moses said to the judges of Israel, “Every one of you kill his men who are joined to Baal Peor.

v6 And indeed, one of the children of Israel came and presented to his brethren a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

v7 Now when Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose from among the congregation and took a javelin in his hand.

v8 And he went after the man of Israel into the tent and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So the plague was stopped among the children of Israel.

v9 And those who died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.

It will take courageous people like Phinehas to stop this plague, people who will stand in the gap and destroy the god of Baal Peor. Repentance alone is not enough, we must go to the roots of harlotry and perversion or we will be destroyed as in the days of Sodom and Gomorrah.

INTERCESSION

During a two month season of intercession for Pastor Nick Mc Carroll in his fight against cancer he was given the following picture of how seduction entered his life.

(Seduction—tempting someone, to be led astray, enticed to do wrong)

“Seduction was trying to seduce me into the glamour and attractiveness of the world.” While asking the Lord to take care of this issue, I was seeing a vision of Him doing it. “Lord I thank you for taking care of this and I ask that it now manifest in my life.”

VISION

Pastor Nick McCarroll had this vision as he was seeking the Lord for more information about the 13 thieves that had been sent against him by Satan.

I saw a gown come off someone but I did not see the person. It formed into the shape of a tricycle shooting at warp speed into the sun just melting and dissolving. It was like a beam of light came down and picked it up and you could see the gown, then I saw the gown come off, all at once it became a little bike with training wheels riding a sun beam that melts into the sun and no longer exists.

I knew this was a confrontation with seduction. “When did this spirit come in Lord?” His answer was, “At age 5.” I asked, “What do you want me to do about this Lord?” His answer was, “Repent for the sins of the fathers.”

So I prayed, “Father in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ I repent for myself and for the sins of my forefathers for yielding to seduction. I break the power of it over my life in the name of Jesus Christ and I cancel it from my generational line, past and all future generations; from my children, their children and their children’s children.

“Lord was this written in my DNA before I was born?” The answer was, “Yes.”

In the name of Jesus Christ I ask you to change the DNA so seduction has no power over me, or my children. Father go back to my original DNA and remove the evil from it and rewrite my DNA according to Your DNA, and rewrite it in the seed that was passed on.

When I asked the Lord to do that, I saw something radiating like an expanding shock wave, it moved out in space changing things as it moved. It went backward and forward in time. "Father in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ I ask you to activate this new DNA."

Later I found out at age 5 an instance happened that I was angry with my parents for not getting me a tricycle I wanted so badly.

Rahab

Rahab was a Canaanite. She had a respected position in this pagan society. Harlots (prostitutes) were often priestesses of the Canaanite religion and their profession was considered honorable. She had heard about the Israelites crossing the Red Sea and how they overthrew their enemies. She was convinced that Jehovah purposed to give Canaan to the Israelites. Josh. 2:11 And as soon as we heard these things, our hearts melted; neither did there remain any courage in any one because of you, for the Lord your God, He is God in heaven above and on earth beneath.

Josh 2:1 Now Joshua the son of Nun sent out two men from Acacia Grove to spy secretly, saying, "Go view the Land, especially Jericho." So they went, and came to the house of a harlot named Rahab, and lodged there.

v3 So the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the country."

v6 But she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order on the roof.

Josh. 6:17 Now the city shall be doomed by the Lord for destruction, it and all who are in it. Only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent.

Rahab secured a pledge from the spies to spare her life and the lives of her family because she had hidden the spies. The spies told her to hang a scarlet cord in the window and all in the house would be saved. Her house was situated on the city wall.

Heb 11:31 by faith the harlot Rahab did not perish with those who did not believe, when she had received the spies with peace.

Rahab is in the genealogy of Jesus Christ Matt 1:5 Salmon begat Boaz by Rahab, Boaz begat Obed by Ruth. Obed begat Jessie. (Jessie was David's father). John 7:4 Has not Scripture said that Christ comes from the seed of David and from the town of Bethlehem where David was.

JEALOUSY AND STEALING

Some synonyms for jealousy are envy, greed, resentfulness, suspicion, and covetousness.

Sometimes these things lay hidden in our soul until a situation rises to trigger them. We then allow our imagination to work causing false perceptions to take hold. Perhaps a friend has been invited to attend a party yet you have not received an invitation. Your perception is you were not invited to the party. The reality is the invitations were sent alphabetically and your name is at the end of the alphabet. Several days later you receive your invitation but by now jealousy and resentment have already entered in.

Ezek. 8:3 He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my hair; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem to the door of the north gate of the inner court, where the seat of the image of jealousy was, which provokes to jealousy. (NKJ).

Ezek 8:3 He reached out what looked like a hand and grabbed me by the hair. The Spirit swept me high in the air and carried me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the temple's inside court where the image of the sex goddess that make God so angry had been set up. (The Message Bible, copyright 2002).

This seems to be the image of Asherah, a fertility goddess who may be identified with Ashtarte (Ashtoeth) the queen of heaven (foot note from NKJ Spirit filled Bible).

Two Harlots

1Kings 3 tells the story of the two harlots who lived together. They both had babies. In the night one lay on her child and it died so she substituted her dead child for the others living one. To settle this they went to King Solomon. He ordered a sword be brought to him and he would divide the living child in two and give half to each mother.

The mother whose son lived said, “O my lord, give her the living child and by no means kill him!” So the king ordered the child be given to the rightful mother.

Jealousy and stealing have now entered the picture.

Flattery usually has a hidden motive behind it. In the case of harlotry it is used as a trap.

Prov. 7:5 That they may keep you from the immoral woman, from the seductress who flatters with her words.

Prov 7:21 With her enticing speech she caused him to yield, with her flattering lips she seduced him.

Prov 7:23b He did not know it would cost his life.

Prov 26:28 A lying tongue hates those who are crushed by it. And a flattering mouth works ruin.

The Hebrew meaning of flattery in Strong's 2505 is chalaq, khaw-lak"; to be smooth.

RENUNCIATION PRAYERS

Father I repent for all lies and deception in myself and my family, and I renounce and break these lies and any deception now in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth who came in the flesh.

I stand in the gap, take responsibility, repent and renounce the sin of incest in my generational line; both physical and spiritual incest. I break this pattern in the name of Jesus Christ, and I ask you Father to show me where this sin has been hidden that it may be dealt with.

I declare the spirit of incest is broken off my family now in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth who came in the flesh.

I repent and renounce any rape, murder, abortion or prostitution in my generational line.

Father forgive us for dishonoring You and our parents. Forgive us for the lies and deception we used to cover up our participation in any form of harlotry.

Father forgive me for surrendering to seduction. I repent for myself, and for my generational line for surrendering to the spirit of seduction. Show me any area where I am bound by the spirit of seduction.

Father wherever there has been a pattern of seduction in my generational line I ask forgiveness. I repent and break this pattern now in the name of Jesus Christ

Father give me the courage to destroy the roots of seduction that have plagued by family like you did Phinehas.

I now declare by the power of the name of Jesus Christ I will no longer be lured by seduction.

Give me the faith to believe for my deliverance, greater than the faith of Rahab.

I repent and renounce any jealousy and stealing that came about because of the desire to have others possessions. I renounce and break the spirit of jealousy and stealing off my generational line and myself.

I renounce and repent for all envy, greed, resentfulness, suspicion and covetousness in myself and my generational line.

FALSE GODS AND GODDESSES

The Israelites were commanded to have no other gods before the Lord God. They were to go in and claim the Promised Land. Conquering and utterly destroying the people that were residing there. They were to show them no mercy, make no covenants with them, and make no marriages with them because they would turn them away from the Lord their God, to serve other gods.

Solomon

King Solomon the son of David and Bathsheba was very wise and was chosen to build the temple.

1Kings 3:3 And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of his father David, except that he sacrificed and burned incense at the high places.

1Kings 11:1 But King Solomon loved many foreign women, as well as the daughter of Pharaoh: woman of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites.

They turned his heart to worship their gods, the best known being Ashtoreth.

1Kings 11:5 For Solomon went after Ashteroth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

Milcom was a national god of the Ammonites.

1Kings 11:6 Solomon did evil in the sight of the Lord, and did not fully follow the Lord, as did his father David.

v7) Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on the hill that is east of Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the people of Ammon.

v8) And he did likewise for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

David and Bathsheba did not completely deal with their sin. They followed the pattern of their ancestors but had not the power of the sacrificial blood of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth who came in the flesh to wash away all their sin. This gave the enemy the right to influence Solomon's choices. With all of Solomon's wisdom (he had a spirit of intellectualism), he died disillusioned and spiritually insensible.

Ashtoreth

Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians was known as Astarte among the Greeks, and Ishtar in Babylon. She was the leading character of sexual love and war in Babylon and Assyria. Licentious worship was conducted in her honor. To the Phoenicians she was the goddess of love and increase. In the OT she appears as a goddess by the side of Baal.

Her cult object was utterly detestable to faithful worshipers of Yahweh.

1Kings 15:13 Also he removed Maachah his grandmother from being queen mother, because she had made an obscene image of Asherah. And Asa cut down her obscene image and burned it by the brook Kidron.

This cult object was also set up on the high places beside the "altars of incense," and the "stone pillars" which were representative of Baal.

Ashtoreth was regarded as wife and sister of the principle Canaanite god El. She was frequently represented as a nude woman astride a lion with a lily in one hand and a serpent in the other, and called "The Holy One." This was a perverted word since she was a divine courtesan. The male prostitutes honoring her were called "sodomites." The lily symbolized grace and sex appeal, and the serpent fertility. Lust and murder were glamorized in Canaanite religion.

Baal

Baal is the common Canaanite word for master. (Strong's # 1167 –husband, owner).

Baal was one of the chief male deities of the Canaanites. He was the son of El, the father of the gods and head of the Canaanite pantheon. He is also designated as the son of Dagon, a deity associated with agriculture.

Baal was the farm god who gave increase to family and fields, flocks and herds. He was also identified with the storm god Hadad.

The Canaanites were addicted to Baal worship which was conducted by priests in temples and in the fields outdoors, on hilltops called “high places.” The “high places” had chambers for sacred prostitution by male prostitutes and sacred harlots.

1 Kings 14:23,24 For they also built for themselves high places, sacred pillars, and wooden images on every high hill and under every green tree.

v24) And there were perverted persons in the land (one practicing sodomy and prostitution in religious rituals.) They did according to all the abominations of the nations, which the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

This cult also included animal sacrifices, ritualistic meals and licentious dances. The gaiety and licentious character of Baal worship always had a subtle attraction for the austere Hebrews bound to serve a holy God under a rigorous moral code.

Baal was the title of many Canaanite gods. Peor is probably one of the hill shrines where a Baal was worshipped.

Psalms 106:28 They joined themselves also to Baal of Peor, and ate sacrifices made to the dead.

The term joined themselves refers to the immorality that Israel committed with the Baal cult prostitutes.

1 Co. 6:16 Or do you not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body with her. For “the two,” He says, “shall become one flesh.”

1 Co. 6:18 Flee sexual immorality, every sin that a man does, is outside the body but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body.

v19) Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own?

v34) They did not destroy the peoples, concerning whom the Lord had commanded them, v35) But they mingled with the Gentiles and learned their works;

v36) They served their idols which became a snare to them.

v37) they even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.

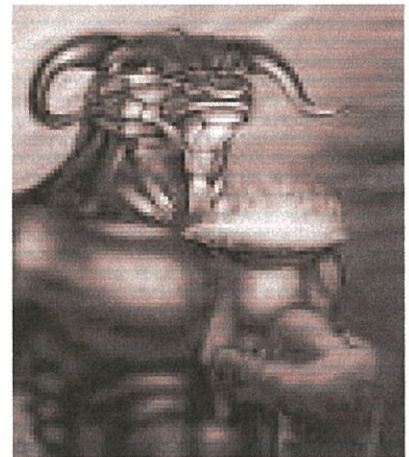

v38) And shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; and the land was polluted with blood.

v39) Thus they were defiled by their own works and played the harlot by their own deeds.

They committed both physical and spiritual harlotry. In times of lapse the Hebrews compounded the names of their children with Baal. Jerubbaal (this was Gideon Jud. 7:11), Eshbaal, and Meribbaal are just a few. In times of revival and return to the Lord, the Baal element was replaced with “Bosheth” meaning “shame.” Some examples were Mephibosheth and Ishbosheth. Places were also named using Baal such as Baal-gad, Baal-peor, and others.

Molech

Molech the abomination of the people of Ammon was a Semetic deity honored by the sacrifice of children, causing them to pass through or into the fire. Solomon built an altar to Molech at Topheth in the valley of Hinnom. Molech worship was the most abhorrent form of idolatry.

Chemosh

Chemosh the national deity of the Moabites was honored with horribly cruel rites like those of Molech, sacrificing children in the fire. Solomon made a fatal mistake in rearing an altar to Chemosh in Jerusalem.

1Kings 11:7 Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on the hill that is east of Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the people of Ammon.

The naming of children was very important in the ancient Hebrew culture. It was a way of blessing the child. There was a celebration on the eighth day of life and the child was given their name. Elijah means "Jehovah is God."

So from the eighth day of his life this purpose and destiny were proclaimed every time his name was used.

Elijah was the prophet that exposed the god of Baal on Mount Carmel.

1Kings 18:20 So Ahab sent for all the children of Israel, and they gathered the prophets together on Mount Carmel.

v21) And Elijah came to all the people, and said, "How long will you falter between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow Him; if Baal, follow him." But the people answered him not a word.

v22) Then Elijah said to the people, "I alone am left a prophet of the Lord; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

So Elijah called for two bulls to be brought, two altars to be built, and the bulls cut in pieces. One altar was for Baal's prophets and the other was for Elijah. Baal's prophets called on their god all morning, then cut themselves and cried to their god until the time of the evening sacrifices. Nothing happened. Elijah called for water to be poured on his sacrifice three times and enough to fill the trench he had dug around the altar.

1Kings 18:38 Then the fire of the Lord fell and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood and the stones and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

It will take the spirit of Elijah and God's fire to come and burn out the spirit of harlotry.

RENUNCIATION PRAYERS

Father I pray my family and I will not be seduced to worship false gods. I repent for any worship of false gods by any of my generational line in the past. Show us where this spirit may still be residing and set us free and bring us into a spirit of holiness.

Father I repent and ask for Your forgiveness for trusting in the prophets of Baal. I renounce and break this off my generational line and myself. May I rise up with the spirit of Elijah to destroy them. In the name of Jesus Christ and the power of His name I ask you to send your fire to burn up all roots of harlotry in my generational line and myself.

I repent for all marriages outside our Christian faith. Your word says, 2 Cor 6:14 Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteous with lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness?

I repent for any false beliefs or worship of false gods caused by these marriages.

I ask you Father to dissolve all ungodly soul ties returning all fractured parts to their rightful owners cleansed by the blood of Jesus Christ and I call back every part of my soul cleansed by the blood of Jesus.

I repent, renounce, and cut off any worship of false gods in my generational line. Let me not depart from your word Lord.

I renounce the false goddess Ashtoreth (Astarte) and I repent for any worship of her in my generational line and myself.

As a result of worshipping any false gods I renounce, repent and break any lustful or incestuous relationships in my generational line and myself.

I renounce, repent, and break the curse of Baal worship and the attraction it had for my forefathers. Baal is not my master, husband or owner.

Isaiah 54:4b For you will forget the shame of your youth, and will not remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore.

v54:5a For your Maker is your husband, The Lord of Hosts is his name.

I renounce and repent for any belief that Astarte and Baal are the givers of life.

Father I declare You are the Giver and Creator of all life.

I repent, break, and cut off this pattern of idol worship. I stand in the gap for my forefathers back to Adam for any form of idol worship and sacrificing of children to the false god Molech or Chemosh. Forgive me for sacrificing my children to the false gods of pleasure and work.

I declare this pattern of spiritual and physical harlotry is broken in me and my generational line.

Where the spirit of harlotry exists in the marriage a wife or a husband can feel unloved and unworthy. There will be unfaithfulness no matter how hard the perpetrator tries to remain faithful. The woman may be looking for a father figure, the husband a mother figure or a brother/sister relationship. Either may be cold and have a hatred for their mate and children.

Ezekiel 16:44 Indeed everyone who quotes proverbs will use the proverb against you, 'Like mother, like daughter!'

v45) You are your mother's daughter, loathing husband and children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and children, your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite. (meaning from Canaanite origin.)

The children may be physically or emotionally abused or the mother may establish an incestuous tie with the son by using them as a replacement for a husband. The husband may form an incestuous relationship with the daughter.

Because of shame, lies and deception may occur in an effort to hide these relationships from others in the family or outsiders. If they are detected denial occurs and these issues are not talked about. Children may be instructed or threatened not to speak of these things to others. This may cause a person to lose their right to speak or have an opinion.

Without a strong spirit of discernment one could miss the spirit of harlotry in some families because it is well hidden. A family bound by harlotry would have no moral boundaries or would continually violate them as well as sexual, emotional, and financial boundaries.

Prov 7:6-10 tells the story of the harlot who seduced a young man.

Prov 7:6 For at the window of my house I looked through my lattice, v7 And I saw among the simple, I perceived among the youths a young man devoid of understanding.

v8 Passing along the street near her corner, and he took the path to her house.

v9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night.

v10 And there a woman met him, with the attire of a harlot and a crafty heart.

The spirit of harlotry must be broken for you to be released into a spirit of holiness.

Rape may be the beginning of harlotry. Harlotry is any kind of intimate relationship outside the marriage covenant.

If harlotry is not dealt with properly we will pay a very high price, because it is a total violation of God's boundaries and the holiness of God.

THE BRIDE

Jer 3:3 Therefore the showers have been withheld. And there has been no latter rain. You have had a harlot's forehead. You refuse to be ashamed.

Eph 5:26 That He might sanctify and cleanse her with the washing of water by the word.

v 27) That He might present her to Himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that she should be holy and without blemish.

cleanse 2511 katharizo; purge, purification; from 2513 katharos, pure. 2512 katharismos; a washing off, purification. (Strong's Greek) spot 4696 spilos; a stain or blemish, disgrace. (Strong's Greek)

Ezek 16:9 Then I washed you in water; yes I thoroughly washed off your blood, and I anointed you with oil.

v11) I adorned you with ornaments, put bracelets on your wrists, and a chain on your neck.

v12) And I put a jewel in your nose, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.

In these days we need increased anointing and discernment.

GOD IS CALLING HIS PEOPLE TO HOLINESS. EVERY UNCLEAN THING MUST BE REMOVED FROM OUR LIVES.

Rev 4:8 Holy, holy, holy Lord God Almighty. Who was and is and is to come.

We are in an hour of great darkness.

RENUNCIATION PRAYERS

I repent for and renounce any lies, deception and denial used to cover up the shame of harlotry in my generational line and myself.

I repent and renounce any unfaithfulness in marriage in my generational line and myself.

I renounce and cut off any coldness, hatred and emotional or physical cruelty toward my mate or my children.

I declare all unfaithfulness, hatred and cruelty are now broken off my generational line and myself. I cut off and destroy every root of harlotry in my life and the lives of my family by the power and authority of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth who came in the flesh.

Cleanse me with the water of Your word. I desire to be without spot or wrinkle, Holy Unto The Lord.

CRUMBLING FOUNDATIONS

To repair our crumbling foundations and stop further destruction we have to be honest and transparent. We must ask God to reveal any areas of harlotry still left in our generational line. Only then shall we be free.

John 8:32 "And you shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

The pagan practices of Babylon have come down through our generational line. Our families can look very respectable giving the impression of always having high morals. We may be unaware of harlotry in our family line because it has been so well hidden.

SEDUCTION OF CHILDREN

In today's world we are surrounded by deception. Satan begins to seduce our children at an early age, drawing them into false fantasy, authority, and witchcraft. This is done through toys, video games, movies, cartoons, and books.

A few years ago a toy company made unicorns for children to play with. It was thought if you made a wish on the unicorns' horn it would come true. The unicorn had a single horn growing from its forehead and was white which supposedly symbolized purity.

Unicorn Strong's Hebrew definition 7214 reym; a wild bull: unicorn.

Psalm 22:21 Save me from the lion's mouth for thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorn. (KJV)

Isaiah 47:21a "Stand now with your enchantments and the multitude of your sorceries, in which you have labored from your youth. This is referring to the virgin daughter of Babylon.

Job 39:9a Will the wild ox (unicorn) be willing to serve you?

Job 39:11 Will you trust him because his strength is great?

Isaiah 34:7 The wild ox (unicorn) shall come down with them and the young bulls with the mighty bull, their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust saturated with fatness. This is speaking of judgment on the nations.

IMMORALITY

It is evident in the day we now live that immorality keeps passing down the generational line. You can see it evidenced almost any place you go.

You see it in advertising, entertainment, clothes, and even in architecture. In Las Vegas there are statues of gods and goddesses, an Egyptian temple, a Greek goddess standing with her foot on a man's neck and others. Even New York harbor has a goddess.

The Statue of Liberty is fashioned after the Cushite (Ethiopian) goddess Maat. The statue originally depicted a black woman with chains. The American Committee on the Statue of Liberty rejected it because they wanted a woman of white origin.

It is reported that the goddess Maat was responsible for the laws of Hammurabi. The goddess Maat is being credited with the Torah and the Commandments of God; this is an abomination.

Hammurabi was one of the greatest kings of Babylon. He developed the Code of Hammurabi, one of the first law codes in history. The Code contained almost 300 legal provisions. The main principle was that "the strong shall not injure the weak."

Maat was pictured with an ostrich feather on her head. Jezebel is also pictured with an ostrich feather.

Rev 2:20 Nevertheless I have a few things against you, because you allow that woman Jezebel who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and seduce My servants to commit sexual immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols.

v21) "And I have her time to repent of her sexual immorality and she did not repent."

v22) "Indeed I will cast her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation unless they repent of their deeds."

v23) "I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts. And I will give to each one of you according to your works."

Amos 7:17 Therefore thus says the Lord: "Your wife shall be a harlot in the city; Your sons and daughters shall fall by the sword; Your land shall be divided by survey line; You shall die in a defiled land; And Israel shall surely be led away captive from his own land."

Amos is prophesying this to King Amaziah of Judah. He was a relatively good king but later turned away and he resented what Amos prophesied. The story is told in 2 Kings 14 and 2 Chronicles 25.

DIANA

Diana was a goddess known among the Greeks as Artemis. “Artemis of the Ephesians,” was not a Greek divinity but Asiatic. She was armed with bow and arrow. She was a goddess of light by night pictured with a torch. In time she became identified with all possible goddess of moon and night.

Diana was not regarded as a virgin but as a mother and foster mother. Her effigy is shown with a multitude of breasts.

The temple of Diana at Ephesus was one of the wonders of the world. Once every year there was a public festival held in Diana’s honor. Great gain came to the silversmiths for making and selling shall images of Diana.

Acts 19:27 “So not only is this trade of ours in danger of falling into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Diana may be despised and her magnificence destroyed whom all Asia and the world worship.”

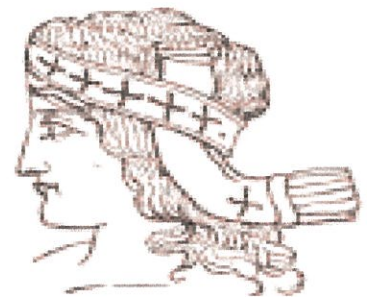

v28) Now when they heard this they were full of wrath and cried out saying, “Great is Diana of the Ephesians!.”

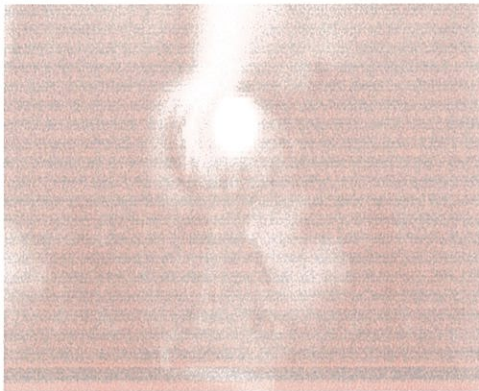

Paul had taught that there were no gods made by hand.

TAMMUZ

Ezekiel refers to the worship of this Babylonian god in a vision.

Ezekiel 8:14 So he brought me to the door of the north gate of the Lord’s house; and to my dismay women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.

Tammuz was a Sumerian fertility god similar to the Greek god Adonis. Semeramis was Tammuz mother. He was known by the Babylonians as Dumzie, god of pasture and flocks (stag god), of subterranean water, and vegetation. He was also equated with the Egyptian god Osiris. He was the husband-brother of Ishtar (Ashera a fertility goddess.)

Tammuz supposedly died every autumn when he departed to the underworld; from there he was recovered by the disconsolate Ishtar. His reappearance was marked by the bursting forth of life in springtime. The rites of Tammuz included a divine marriage of the king annually to the fertility goddess in the person of a temple priestess.

The worship of this god was widespread in the Fertile Crescent from Babylonian-Assyria to Palestine-Syria.

BACCHUS – DIONYSUS

Bacchus was god of wine in Roman mythology. The myths about Bacchus are almost the same as those involving Dionysus the Greek god of wine.

The Romans began to worship Bacchus after they came into contact with Greek culture in the 700's B.C. They adopted the name from Bakios an alternate Greek name for Dionysus.

The Romans held an annual festival honoring Bacchus. This festival called the Bacchanalia featured drinking and wild behavior. The word Bacchanalia means drunken riotous conduct. The Romans pictured Bacchus as a handsome young man. The painters of the Renaissance portrayed him as a drunken fat old man.

It may not be well known but Mardi Gras is a Bacchanalian celebration to the pagan god Bacchus. Mardi Gras (Mahr dee Grah) was introduced to America in the early 1700's by French colonist. The custom became popular in New Orleans, Louisiana and spread throughout the southern states. It is a legal holiday in Alabama and Florida as well as eight parishes in Louisiana. In Louisiana it attracts tourist from everywhere. There are balls and parades where people dress in fancy costumes and wear masks. The date of Mardi Gras depends on the date of Easter another pagan holiday. It is celebrated on Shrove Tuesday the day before Ash Wednesday when Lent begins. It takes place at the end of a long carnival season beginning on January 6, or Twelfth Night. It is celebrated in many Roman Catholic countries and other communities, such as Germany and England.

Mardi Gras goes back to an ancient Roman custom of merrymaking before a period of fast.

Dionysus the god of wine in Greek mythology was associated with violent, unpredictable behavior, especially actions caused by drinking too much wine. Included in his gatherings were satyrs that were half man, and half goat, and woman attendants called maenads. The merry making ended with religious ceremonies honoring Dionysus.

Not all stories about Dionysus concern drunkenness or violent behavior. Many Greeks believed Dionysus taught people farming techniques, especially those related to grape growing and wine making.

Hosea 3:1b the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine. (KJV)

Strong's Hebrew flagons 809; something closely pressed together, i.e. a cake of raisins.

Hosea 3:1 Then the Lord said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by a lover and is committing adultery, just like the love of the Lord for the children of Israel, who look to other gods and love the raisins cakes of the pagans."

Hosea 3:11 Harlotry, wine and new wine enslave the heart.

v12) My people ask counsel from wooden idols, and their staff informs them. For the spirit of harlotry has caused them to stray and they have played the harlot against their God.

v13b) Therefore your daughters commit harlotry, and your brides commit harlotry.

Amos 2:8 They lie down by every altar on clothes taken in pledge, and drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

This wine was used in the pagan worship of their gods. Making it occult wine. When drunk with this wine their behavior became unpredictable which led to illicit sexual acts, playing the harlot, not only wives played along but also the daughters.

Freemasonry uses occult wine in their rituals.

Numb 14:8b Visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generation.

Rev 17:4 The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication.

v5) *On her forehead a name was written MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

v2) With whom the kings of the earth committed fornication and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

Ezek 23:35 Because you have forgotten Me and cast Me behind your back, therefore you shall bear the penalty of your lewdness and your harlotry.

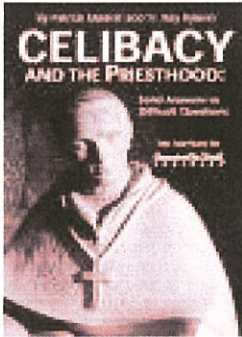

1 Tim 4:1 Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons.

v2) speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience seared with a hot iron, v3) forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

The Catholic Church forbids the marriage of priests and today their moral character is in question. There have been charges brought against the priesthood for molestation of boys and girls.

Many young men and women do not marry today; they live together, have children born from these relationships or have abortions to do away with the children conceived in these relationships. Could there be a spirit of forbidden marriage in their generational line?

Rev 2:23a I will kill her children with death

RENUNCIATION PRAYERS

Father I ask you to reveal any areas of harlotry still left in me, or my generational line.

I repent for and renounce any fascination my generational line or I may have had for unicorns.

I renounce the false symbol of purity the unicorn portrays.

I renounce and repent for my generational line and myself for being drawn to suggestive advertising, clothing and the watching of sexually suggestive or explicit movies.

I renounce and repent for being seduced into any form of sexual immorality in my generational line or myself.

I renounce and repent for any fascination and worship of the false goddess Diana and the false god Tammuz in my generational line and myself.

I renounce and repent for any intoxication and violent behavior that may have been caused by drinking of occult wine in my generational line and myself.

I repent for any fascination and participation in Mardi Gras in my generational line and myself.

I declare I will not be seduced or become a part of the festival called the Bacchanalia. This celebration held to honor the god Bacchus.

I renounce, repent and break the curse of forbidding marriage and any illegitimacy or abortion caused by this curse

I declare this curse is broken now in the name and power of the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth who came in the flesh. Father I desire holiness in all my relationships and the relationships of my family.

JEZEBEL

Jezebel was the daughter of Ethbaal, king of Tyre and Sidon. He had formerly been a priest of Astarte, and violently deprived his brother of the throne.

Jezebel married King Ahab of Israel and became Queen Jezebel.

1Kings 16:31 And it came to pass, as though it had been a trivial thing for him walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ehtbaal, king of the Sidonians, and he went and served Baal.

Together Jezebel and Ahab murdered Naboth for his vineyard. This was Naboth's inheritance from his father. Jezebel devised a plan to falsely accuse Naboth and have him murdered. Jezebel did whatever she wanted and had no regard for anything or anyone. (This story is found in 2 Kings 9:25-26, 1Kings 21:1).

Jezebel killed the prophets of the Lord.

1 Kings 18:13 and was it not reported to my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the Lord?

Then she immediately established Baal worship on a grand scale at Ahab's court. She supported four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and four hundred of Astarte at her table.

By the direction of Elijah the prophets of Jezebel were executed.

1 Kings 18:40 And Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal! Do not let them escape! So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the Brook Kishon and executed them there.

Jezebel vowed to take Elijah's life for this.

Jezebel's influence was so great that there were but seven thousand people who had not bowed the knee to Baal or kissed the hand of his image. Through her daughter Athaliah, queen of Judah the same policy prevailed in that kingdom.

Jezebel was a woman in who were united the sternest qualities of the Phoenician people. (The Phoenicians worshipped Canaanite gods.) Her fascination with magical arts and her character were known throughout the nation.

2 Kings 9:22 Now it happened when Joram saw Jehu that he said, "Is it peace Jehu?" So he answered, "what peace as long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft are so many!"

We learn of Jezebel's death in 2 Kings 9:23-30.

2 Kings 9:30 Now when Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she put paint on her eyes and adorned her head, and looked through a window.

(v31) Then, as Jehu entered at the gate she said, Is it peace Zimri, murderer of your master?"

(v32) And he looked up at the window, and said, who is on my side" Who? So two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

(v33) Then he said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down, and some of her blood splattered on the wall and on the horses; and he trampled her underfoot.

(V35) So they went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.

(v36) Therefore they came back and told him. And said, "This is the word of the Lord, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, On the plot of ground at Jezreel dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;

Long afterward her name lived as a by word for all that was detestable.

Rev 2:20 Nevertheless I have a few things against you, because you allow that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and seduce My servants to commit sexual immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols.

THE SPIRIT OF ELIJAH

Elijah was a true prophet called of God to expose the false priests and false prophets of Baal on Mount Carmel. You remember how angry this made Jezebel, she threatened to kill him. Elijah recognized the spirit of murder in Jezebel and in terror he fled to a cave. Interesting after what God did on Mount Carmel.

JOHN THE BAPTIST

John the Baptist was also called by God to be a true prophet; he would operate in the spirit and power of Elijah. John was the cousin of Jesus born six months prior to Jesus.

The angel of the Lord appeared to Zacharias as he was serving in the temple telling about the son Elizabeth would have.

Luke 1:16 “And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God.

(v17) He will also go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared of the Lord.”

John the Baptist taught the baptism of fire prophesied by Malachi in 3:1-3.

Malachi 3:1 Behold I send My messenger, And he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. Behold he is coming, “ says the Lord of hosts.

(v2) But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For he is like a refiners fire and like launderers soap.

(v3) He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the Lord an offering in righteousness.

Verse 3:1 is quoted in Matt 11:10 by Jesus himself.

Isaiah 40:3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, “Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Matt 3:3 For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah saying “The voice of one crying in the wilderness. Prepare the way of the Lord; make His path straight.”

We also find this in Mark 1:3, Luke 3:4 and John 1:23.

John the Baptist taught that repentance was required. Just because your family might be Christians does not mean you automatically become one.

Mark 1:4 John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

John preached the axe must be laid to the root.

Luke 3:9 And even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

We MUST remove the roots of our generational sin that we might bear good fruit in the kingdom.

In the spirit of Elijah John began exposing the harlotry, incest and adultery in Babylon. He confronted King Herod Israel's king.

Herod had seduced Herodius, his niece, and also the wife of his brother Philip. He persuaded her to divorce Philip and marry him which meant he must also divorce his own wife.

So we see adultery and incest, now harlotry and murder would soon be added.

Matt 14:3 For Herod had laid hold of John and bound him and put him in prison for the sake of Herodius, his brother Philip's wife.

Herod had a celebration for his birthday. As a treat Herodius had her daughter Salome dance to please him. He was so taken by her that he promised her anything up to half his kingdom. Being prompted by her mother she asked for the head of John the Baptist on a platter. Herod did not want to kill John and was sorry but because of the oath he had made to Salome and to save face in front of his guests he had no choice but to honor the promise. So John was beheaded. Herod was a very treacherous man and was regarded as being sly and ambitious. In Luke 13:32 Jesus referred to him as a fox.

Matt 14:1 At this time Herod the Tetrarch heard the report about Jesus.

Caligula removed Herod from office and his tetrarchy was given to Herod Agrippa. His money was confiscated and he and Herodius sent into perpetual banishment in Lyons, France. Eventually they were sent to Spain where he died. Herod was not a proper king only a tetrarch. This makes him a false king and Herodius a false queen.

Ezek 23:45 "But righteous men will Judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses, and blood is on their hands."

Prov 29:3 Whoever loves wisdom makes his father rejoice, but a companion of harlots wastes his wealth.

The prodigal son lost all his money and inheritance by living with harlots.

RENUNCIATION PRAYERS

Father I renounce the power of Jezebel in my generational line and myself.

Like John the Baptist I desire to walk in the spirit of Elijah to remove any traces of the fertility cult from my generational line and myself.

I renounce and repent for my generational line and myself for any involvement in this cult.

I renounce and repent for any spirit of murder used to obtain others possessions in my generational line and myself.

I renounce and repent for any witchcraft in my generational line and myself.

MUSIC

The first mention of music is found in Genesis 31:27.

Gen 31:27 Why did you flee away secretly and steal away from me, and not tell me; for I might have sent you away with joy and songs, with timbrel and harp?

This was spoken by Laban to Jacob when he fled with his family and livestock.

Music played a vital role in Israel; it is mentioned throughout the O.T.

The Hebrews used it in merry making and religious ceremonies.

Exodus 15:1 Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the Lord. This was after crossing the Red Sea.

They had many musical instruments. The shofar was used for giving the signal for war as well as announcing danger. It was sounded during the year of Jubilee, and the appearance of the new and full moon, as well as other solemn occasions.

David played the harp and sang to soothe Saul's troubled mind.

1 Sam 16:4 But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul and a distressing spirit from the Lord troubled him.

1 Sam 16:23 And so it was whenever the spirit from god was upon Saul, that David would take a harp and play it with his hand. Then Saul would become refreshed and well and the distressing spirit would depart from him.

There was a time later when Saul resented David and his music incited Saul to murder.

1 Sam 18:7 So the women sang as they danced and said: "Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

1 Sam 18:10 And it happened on the next day that a distressing spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied inside the house. So David played music with his hand, as at other times; but there was a spear in Saul's hand.

1 Sam 18:11 And Saul cast the spear, for he said, "I will pin David to the wall!" But David escaped his presence twice.

Music is an integral part of the Christians worship today bringing us into the presence of our heavenly Father.

Music played a great role in pagan worship, inciting the participants into a frenzy resulting in illicit sexual acts. There is some music today that incites (particularly the young) into frenzies and acts of violence. Combined with mind altering drugs this can be a lethal weapon in the hands of the enemy. The Rolling Stones wrote a song titled Bridges to Babylon. We must not be carried over this bridge.

When Scotland went into battle they placed the bagpipers ahead of the army. I understand this was to incite terror in the hearts of their enemy.

It is believed by some that the musical reference in Ezek 28:13 suggest Lucifer's role included leading heavens choirs in worship of the Most High.

Ezek 28:13 The workmanship of your timbrels and pipes was prepared for you on the day you were created.

THE WOMAN AND THE DRAGON

Rev 12:3 And another sign appears in heaven: behold, a great fiery red dragon having seven heads, and seven diadems on his heads.

The dragon speaks of the Kundalini spirit. This spirit is at the core of Hinduism and the New Age movement. It attacks the spine and nervous system. The power of Kundalini awakens the seven chakras from the sacrum to the crown of our head. This awakening opens the spine to the fire of Satan and extinguishes the Fire of God. It can be brought about by injury to the coccyx, yoga, participation in martial arts and trauma to the spinal column.

Rev 21:1 Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars.

(v) 2 Then being with child, she cried out in labor and in pain to give birth.

(v5) She bore a male child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her child was caught up to God and His throne.

(v6) Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

(v7) And war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with the dragon: and the dragon and his angels fought.

(v8) but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them in heaven any longer.

(v9) So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world: he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

The woman symbolizes God's people, the faithful remnant of Old Covenant Israel.

Zeph 2:7 The coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah. For the Lord their God will intervene for them, and return their captives.

This is referring in part to the returnees from the Babylonian captivity and in a broader sense; it refers to God's future church.

Rev 12:17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

We must come out of Babylon. All around us we can see the flood of iniquity aimed at destroying us. To be prepared to win this battle we must break the spirit of harlotry off our generational line and ourselves.

Remember the story of the ten virgins, five were prepared with sufficient oil and five were not. If we want to be part of God's Faithful and True army we must be prepared.

Rev 19:11 Now I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse. and He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war.

(v15) Now out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written.

Matt 11:12 "And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it y force. (The upheaval caused by the kingdom of God is not caused by political provocation or armed advance. It is the result to God's order shaking relationships, households, cities, and nations by the entry of the Holy Spirit's power working in people. NKJ Kingdom Dynamics.)

Father please remove all evil from my DNA and restore me to how You originally designed me to be. Do this in the seed that has been passed on. Father in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth who came in the flesh I ask you to activate this new DNA now.

Now that I've finished standing in the gap for my ancestral line and have numbered myself with the transgressors, I am removing myself from the gap until such a time as you call me to intercede again.

I call back every part of myself cleansed by the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth who came in the flesh. I call back every Godly attribute, gifting and every generational blessing.

I place everyone in my family line in Your care and ask that the work done here be sealed by the Holy Spirit in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth who came in the flesh. Amen.

Cleansing the Bride Part II

Pulling Down the Stronghold of Jezebel

I hear many ask and I have even asked this myself, "What am I called to do for God." We, each and every one of us, is called to do Hebrews 11:33-34 "who through faith subdue kingdoms, work righteousness, obtain promises, stop the mouths of lions, quench the violence of fire, escape the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, become valiant in battle and turn to fight the armies of the aliens." Lord today we want to do Hebrews 11:33-34.

The final Principalities to be destroyed in the earth are Death and Hell, the Dragon or Beast (Antichrist spirit) and Jezebel. These three work together as a false and unholy trinity.

Death and Hades - The bible closely associates the grave with death.

"And I saw, and behold, a pale horse: and he that sat upon him, his name was Death; and Hades (hell) followed with him. And there was given unto them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with famine, and with death, and by the wild beasts of the earth." (Revelation 6:8)

"And the sea gave up the dead that were in it; and Death and Hades (hell) gave up the dead that were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death, even the lake of fire. And if any was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire." (Rev 20:13-14)

The Dragon (the beast, devil, Satan) Antichrist spirit -The English word Antichrist is taken from the Greek, and literally means "instead of Christ".

Contrary to a popular misconception and to the surprise of many Christians and non-Christians, the actual word "Antichrist" does not appear in the book of The Revelation. Scripture does warn against a false Christ image that becomes a living icon, and an object of worship (Revelation 13:14-15). Satan's plan is to be worshiped as God and Savior (Isaiah 14:12-14; 2Thessalonians 2:3-4; 2Corinthians 11:14)

The words "Antichrist" and "Antichrists" appear only five times in the Bible.

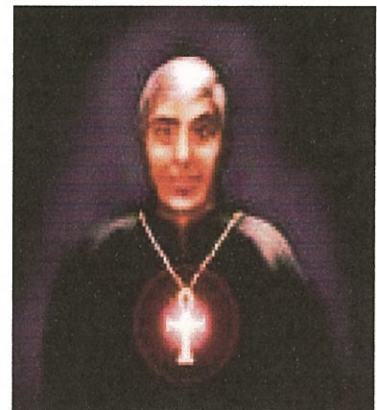

Little children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come, by which we know that it is the last hour. (1John 2:18)

Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. (1John 2:22) and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and is now already in the world. (1John 4:3)

For many deceivers have gone out into the world who do not confess Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist (2John 1:7)

In these contexts, "Antichrist" seems to describe any false teacher, false prophet or corrupter of the Christian faith, but sometimes also seems to indicate a specific person or single spirit of deception that motivates false teaching and whose presence is a sign of the end times.

However, in popular understanding, many Christians identify this particular Antichrist with the "man of sin" or "son of perdition" mentioned in 2 Thess., and with several figures in the Book of Revelation including the Dragon, the Beast, and the False Prophet. The Antichrist is variously understood to be an evil system or a false religion, which sets up false worship in place of the worship of Christ.

As John wrote, such an antichrist (or opponent of Christ) is anyone who "denies that Jesus is the Christ;" "denies the Father and the Son;" "does not confess Jesus;" and does "not confess the coming of Jesus."

In 2 Thessalonians 2:1-12, a "man of sin", "the son of perdition" is expected to set himself up in the temple of God, on the false pretense that he is God himself. This portrait of the Antichrist is reminiscent of the acts of Antiochus Epiphanes, who around 170 BC commanded Jews to sacrifice pigs on the altar, four times a year on the Shabbat, in tribute to him as the supreme god of the Seleucids. Paul appears to be warning his readers, by alluding to events in the past, to anticipate similar trouble in the future. Some Christians believe that the events warned of in this passage took place soon after Paul warned of them, but many others believe that the Antichrist has yet to appear.

Jezebel - is mentioned as the licentious false prophet of the Thyatira Church of the seven churches of Revelation. The church at Thyatira seems to fulfill the age of the Western Church from the dark ages unto the present time when their last works are more than the first. The Nicolaitan idea of fleshly leadership in the church typified Rome and continued with the Protestants with the separation of clergy and laity. The denial of the sacramental quality of marriage leads the church into fornication and the false authority leads the church into confusion and false prophecy.

What Jesus had against the church of Thyatira was that "You suffer that woman Jezebel, which calls herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication and to eat things sacrificed unto idols. And I gave her space to repent of her fornication and she repented not. Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds."

Jezebel is a figurative and spiritual name for us. The Thyatiran church continues to this day and the Jezebel spirit manifests herself in the church and reaches to the highest pinnacles of government. The prophecy of the tribulation is in these last days and includes the greater part of Christendom that has allowed idolatry and the Jezebel spirit to flourish in the church and subsequently into all areas of society. Without an attitude of holiness, grace turns into licentiousness.

Jezebel is a whore and a witch whose spirit endures in the church by taking over the vineyard of the Lord. She covers her face with make-up to appear more attractive. Jezebel was a woman who was eventually destroyed by the very government she herself corrupted. The word of God came to Elijah and called him to show himself to Ahab and it would rain. The prophet came out of nowhere, stirred the righteous hearts, and the priests of Baal were put to death by the people. It was not Elijah alone but Jehu the anointed King over Israel that sought out the prophets of Baal and slew them, avenging the blood of God's prophets. It was this king that dealt Jezebel the death blow by having her thrown down from her window. However, in the end, Jehu did not follow the laws of the Lord with all His heart and left altars to Baal and Asherah in Dan and Beersheba, but it shall not be so with us.

We the bride, are under the law of love and are among the over comers. We will arise in the spirit of Elijah and take our inheritance as kings and priests. It is up to the church to become that spotless Bride in these last days and cast out the false prophets. We have the right and the power but we need to have the resolve to appropriate this power as the chosen remnant.

JEZEBEL

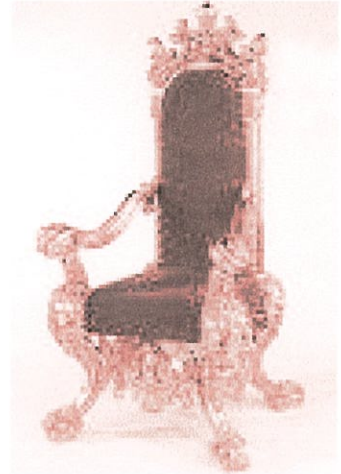

The battle against the Queen of Heaven is not a battle that is just for women. This is a principality that affects men and women. The battle for the throne of our heart can become very vicious and intense at times.

Jezebel (Queen of Heaven) is a Queen on a throne. Revelation 18:7 in her heart she boasts ...as a queen (on a throne) I sit, and I shall never see suffering or experience sorrow.

A Stronghold – a power hold, a fortress, a throne with anything on it that exalts itself above the knowledge of Jesus.

Breaking Strongholds – To break a stronghold, you must acknowledge there is one there. Paul tells us to be strong in the Lord and the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God that you may be able to stand against the wiles (tricks or lures) of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in high places.

The Role of Jezebel

Jezebel means without cohabitation or unhusbanded. This system is all about control and manipulation to rule and reign. This principality has hatred for true authority and especially hates the Apostolic and of course the Prophetic.

To Seduce and Divide

When seducing spirits are at work, individuals most often think they are fine. They believe they are hearing from and getting great revelations from the Lord. In fact they are false doctrines and must be tested to see if they are of God, tested against Scripture. Demon spirits use seduction and entice what appeals to the flesh, they bring forth unsound doctrines that will “feel” good because we all know emotions can be manipulated. Truth will generally contradict feeling.

The deceived are generally “good” people who are sincere in what they believe. However, they are sincerely in error and must be exposed as such. We must overturn their false doctrines for the truth.

Paul's letter to Timothy shows that there are some very distinct characteristics of people who are under the influence of seducing spirits.

- ✓ They are in the faith.
- ✓ They are in the church.
- ✓ They are members in good standing.
- ✓ They are more than just members who attend.
- ✓ They are able to instruct because Paul makes clear that some depart from the faith as a result of their instruction.
- ✓ They may be ministers or deacons or Sunday school teachers.

These people teach their destructive heresies to the unsuspecting in the congregation and many depart from the faith because of these heresies. Paul makes it clear that we are NOT to take what someone says as the truth, but are to be like the Bereans and study God's Word to know what it says. Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 2 Timothy 2:15

Many “religions” are in existence but because they are called a religion doesn't make them true. Too many in the church today tolerate and embrace things as their own belief system because they sound or more to the point feel good. False teachers will not let go of their false doctrine because their conscience is seared, they have no desire for the truth. Those who want the truth teach and allow themselves to be taught, they are accountable to authority and they are responsible before God.

Revelation 2:20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because you suffer that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. The church at Thyatira allowed a person to teach simply because she called herself a prophetess. Jezebel is that person and she was able to seduce the servants of God.

The Jezebel spirit, as all seductive spirits, brings false doctrine into a church that allows, endorses or justifies sin in some way. Gnosticism justified sin with the superspiritualizing of the flesh, and the Jezebel spirit justifies sin by coming from a place of authority in the church. Remember she was a prophetess.

To Deceive

The Jezebel spirit blinds us to the reality of her plans. The plan is to dethrone the King of Kings. The whole purpose is idolatry, to stray away from God to another. Jezebel led Israel to worship Baal and Asherah. This spirit wants to rid the world of believers and to establish evil as good. She systematically infiltrates and deceives those in authority. She pretends to be an ally while bringing in her own agenda.

The Jezebel spirit has nothing good in it, and all the doctrines bring one result, apostasy, wandering away from the truth until one is no longer able to see the truth, but accepts evil and thinks they are fine as they are.

This spirit operates in the dark and stays hidden and disguised. She does not want to be exposed.

To Intimidate and Dominate

The Jezebel spirit wants to control through power and prestige. That is why she goes straight for the leadership of a church. It is a spirit of witchcraft and harlotry with the world and will use flattery, seduction and sexual immorality to accomplish destruction. Once in her grasp the leader is powerless because divine order has been lost.¹

Today we are influenced by the sins of our fathers and those who have preceded us. We must break all ties and repent for and renounce all involvement with this spirit.

To Murder

The Jezebel spirit will stop at nothing to get her way. Once she has made her way onto the throne she will kill those who oppose her.

1 Kings 21:9-11 She wrote in the letters saying, proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth with high honor among the people; and seat two men, scoundrels, before him to bear witness against him, saying “You have blasphemed God and the king.”

Then take him out and stone him that he may die. So the men of his city, the elders and nobles who were inhabitants of his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them.

Jezebel schemed, lied and then murdered to get the vineyard. This murderous spirit has not changed.

Renunciations

- Father God, In Jesus’ Name we totally renounce the false kingdom of Jezebel, which has been established to keep us from knowing You and the true joy that is set before us. We submit now to our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ. Today we choose to declare that the kingdom of rebellion no longer has a place in our lives.
- I renounce all suffering and sorrow caused by the spirit of Jezebel, the Queen of Heaven. I ask You Lord Jesus, to dissolve all ties to the suffering and sorrow that comes from this stronghold.

- I renounce and repent for the sin of ignorance and I repent for being attracted and attached to the spirit of this world.
- I renounce the throne of the Queen of Heaven.
- I renounce and break the crown, the scepter and remove from my life the false cloak of humility.
- I renounce the hold of this principality over my body and soul (mind, will and emotions).
- I renounce my citizenship in the kingdom of darkness.
- I break every tie that binds me to her kingdom.
- I renounce any tie to her nature of rebellion, independence and hatred of Godly authority.
- I repent for not being able to co-habit in the family of God because of the Jezebel spirit's nature of rebellion and independence.
- I renounce and repent for all ties to this principality who is obsessed with ruling and governing at all cost. Lord, I ask that You, cut the ties with all ungodly woman-dominated rule and government in my generational line and I totally break this curse in Jesus' Name.
- I repent for and renounce all deception, manipulation, control and murder in my family line and in myself.
- I repent for not trusting You Lord and for thinking that you will not truly help me.
- I renounce the power of deception, being deceived and being blinded in my family line and in myself.
- I renounce ALL religious deception that has been a family stronghold and renounce all the divination that went with the deception.

- I renounce all doctrines of Jezebel and totally break that power over me in Jesus' Name.
- I renounce all bonds to the mystery of iniquity and break all chains that bind me to all darkness. I renounce anything and everything that does not allow me to know the truth.
- I renounce all false revelation and illumination that came from Satan that I believed was from the Lord.
- I repent for and renounce all heresy.
- I repent for ever intimidating anyone, knowingly or unknowingly and misrepresenting God's love.
- I repent for all false flattery.

The Spirit Of Jezebel Wants To Accomplish Three Main Goals

Destroy the Church's Anointing and Authority

A Jezebel spirit controls those around it in a carnal way. It will destroy a man's authority whether in the church, home or workplace. Jezebel hates God given authority. She hates the man of God just as she hated the prophets. Remember, she issued an all out assault against the prophets and almost succeeded in destroying each one in Israel.

Jezebel manifests not only in women but also in men, but more so in women. Men need to take the proper role within the home and in Church. Jezebel uses this weakness in the American church to destroy its ministry, while everyone is fighting for control.

Introduce Idols

People learn from leadership. Idol worship started with the Hebrews in Egyptian bondage. They were aware of the pantheon of gods worshipped all around them. That is why it was so easy for them to envision and build the golden calf (Baal). Throughout history God has warned against being unequally yoked. In the Old Testament He told the Israelites not to take women from other cultures as their wives. We see this command ignored time and time again and even Solomon with all his wisdom took women from pagan nations as his wives. These women taken in marriage did not give up their gods and in fact introduced their idol worship to their husbands and children.

As we know from scripture, the worship of other gods is an abomination to the one true and living God.

When Ahab married Jezebel, the scripture says she was the daughter of a King who was also a High Priest of Baal.

The idol Baal was a Canaanite/Phoenician fertility god of storm, spring and water. The worship of Baal led to the worship of Asherah, the goddess of fertility, and sexual perversion through the use of temple prostitutes. Mythology says Asherah is the wife of Baal, a pole in the form of a naked woman or female genitals represent her next to Baal's altar. In 1 Kings 16:29 we see that Ahab set up these altars to Baal like his father Omri and like Jeroboam.

Baal and Asherah.

"They worshipped their idols, which became a snare to them. They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons. They shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan and the land was desecrated by their blood" (Psalms 106:36-38).

The Spirit of Jezebel corrupted a nation with her idols. The Jezebel spirit goes by many names: to the Babylonians she is Ishtar, the daughter of the moon god named Sin. She is also the goddess fertility and also named the Queen of Heaven (Jer. 7:18). Other names are the Phoenician Astarte, Ashtoreth, Sumerian Inanna, and Egyptian Isis. In Greece she is Aphrodite. In Rome she is Venus and also Dianna. In Acts 19:24, 27-28, 34-35 Diana is closely related to the Greek goddess Artemis (the New King James calls this goddess Diana, while the NIV calls her Artemis). Artemis is depicted as a woman with rows of breast hanging from her body and also the testicles of her lovers. Jezebel emasculates men.

Artemis/Diana

Ishtar

Shiva Kali

Hinduism's Kali holds a sword in one hand and in the other hand holds the head of her decapitated lover. Around her neck is a necklace of the human skulls from her many victims. She stands with one foot triumphantly placed on the corpse of her murdered lover. She is famous for seducing her lovers and then, at the moment of orgasm, taking their lives. In India where the cult of Kali originated, she is revered and feared by those who tremble at her sexual power and bloodthirsty prowess."²

Spiritual idols are anything that takes place of the True Living God. Idols can be money, greed (Col. 3:5, Eph. 5:5), sex, cars, homes, material possessions, fame, prestige, power, control etc.

² Bob Larson Exposing Jezebel 2005

Introduce Witchcraft

In I Kings 21:25, Jezebel used manipulation to accomplish her idolatrous goals. Manipulation and control are some forms of witchcraft. Rebellion is another. Since Jezebel cannot be husbanded and is without co-habitation it's her way or the highway. Many of the sins of Israel are still plaguing the church today as we see pornography, fornication, self mutilation, drunkenness, abortion, etc. Many Pastors know of the condition of their people but will not confront that woman Jezebel.

Witchcraft can also come in the form of prayer or prophecy. When someone wants to control the actions of another person they have a spirit of Jezebel. To control someone or manipulate them to gain your desire is putting a curse on them and that is witchcraft.

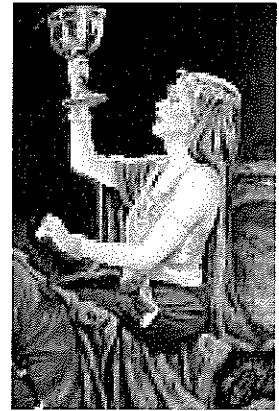

Many personal prophecies come from people who may have the right motive, but the prophecy is inspired by the spirit of Jezebel. Paul said not to hold prophecies in contempt (I Thessalonians 5:20). Prophetic words must be given under the diligent leadership of the Pastor. Never should prophetic words negate the Word of God found in the Old and New Testament. Do not be bewitched! Witchcraft's purpose is not just to conjure or curse, but to deceive and confuse.

The Jezebel spirit will always lead to witchcraft and the pollution of God's people. Revelation 2:20-24, reveals a woman in Thyatira who claimed to be a prophetess. She misled people with false prophecies. She encouraged sexual immorality and the worship and eating of food sacrificed to idols. Christians are forbidden to participate in such actions. For example, when the question arose in the early Church regarding this, the Apostles met in Jerusalem to pray and discuss the matter. The final decision was rendered to all gentile believers, "You are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from sexual immorality" (Acts 15:29 NIV).

The church at Thyatira did evil in God's sight. This Jezebel led the Church to rebel against the Lord's commands. They went so far as to mingle with the occult, "the depths of Satan" Rev. 2:24. This woman identified with Jezebel gave revelations that were not from God. Jezebel will take your mind off God's word and place it on her and her so called wisdom and knowledge of the LORD. Any form of secret knowledge or secret societies is by it's very definition occult. It is dangerous and we saw that it happened to the Church at Galatia which Paul said was "bewitched" (Gal. 3:1 NIV). The word "bewitched" in the Greek is baskaino- which means to smite with the eye such as the evil eye or to hypnotize. Control can be used in the guise of prophetic words "from the LORD".

Christians are forbidden to get involved in any form of the occult. The Apostle Paul wrote, "You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons too; you cannot have a part in both the Lord's Table and the table of demons" (I Corinthians 10:21 NIV).

Jezebel is Unclean and Immoral

Revelation 17:4-5 and the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls. And on her forehead was inscribed a name of mystery-with a symbolic meaning: Babylon the great, the mother of prostitutes and the filth and atrocities and abominations of the earth.

Jezebel is the mother of harlots and abominations in the earth and Jezebel is in the church.

The Body of Christ must come out of the Jezebel spirit's hold or we will never be the pure and spotless Bride (Revelation 18:4). When the Bride begins to make herself ready (AS YOU ARE DOING TODAY) she will be adorned in the jewels and gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Jezebel and the spirit of abortion

Jezebel is the daughter of Babylon and kills her spiritual children. This principality has a strong outworking in abortion. We must break off the spirit of abortion over our church, our families, our calling, our anointing and our destiny. One of the tactics of the enemy of our souls is to enlist several demonic spirits to join forces with her. The picture to the right is Shiva the Destroyer. She is a Hindu god and as you can see she has her foot on the back of a baby. This demonic power works with the Jezebel spirit to destroy future believers in God.

The spirit of abortion must be repented for and the peace of the Lord spoken over every uterus that has ever had an abortion, spontaneous abortion (miscarriage) or stillbirth. The womb of a woman who has had any of these can contain the trauma that could affect every child that comes after.

Many children born in a womb after these types of trauma may be given to night terrors, panic attacks, stuttering, autism and other things that cause communication problems. The mouth is especially targeted because Jezebel hates the real prophetic voice and wants to silence it.³

Jezebel is the Mother of Harlots

Jezebel is false submission.

Jezebel has the nature of rebellion and pride. Vashti was a type of the Queen of Heaven (Esther 1:11-12). Jezebel resides in heavenly places. Remember our battle is in the Spirit. This is where the war must be won. We can only win this war in the spirit realm. We must begin to train in Spiritual Warfare. We must learn to go into the counsel of the Lord for His strategies on how to defeat the Queen of Heaven/Jezebel because remember, the battle is the Lord's.

³ Jezebels Murder by Yvonne Kitchen

Unhusbanded

Jezebel is unhusbanded so consequently she behaves as if she was a single parent. Her children in essence are fatherless and so are open to the spirit of illegitimacy. Without our father we lose our identity and security. A person under the influence of this spirit will have a difficult time acknowledging the love and acceptance of our true Father God. Because Jezebel hates male authority she promotes perversion against God's Word and where God promotes love and forgiveness, she promotes suspicion and revenge.

Indecision

This spirit encourages indecision. It should also be noted that the indecision among God's people, the children of Israel in Elijah's day, is the same indecision among God's people today and we can see how closely we relate to the assembly in Thyatira (Rev 2:18-29). Will we choose God over our idols?

Jezebel's maternal control twists the hearts of men and establishes a stronghold of fear. Men under the power of a Jezebelic mother never grow up emotionally and even as adults they remain a child. Men will begin to lie and make excuses. They cannot make decisions because decisions are fraught with dangers. "What if I'm wrong?" So by not making a choice no "blame" can be affixed to them. This way they do not have to face the disapproval of my mother (wife). Indecisive men lack masculine self-worth. Inevitably grief, guilt and depression will occur. What they don't realize is by not making a decision they have already made one.

False Equality

Jezebel rules through false equality. Isaiah 47:8 I am –and there is no one else beside me. Feminism comes from this harlot spirit that is manifesting in the world today.⁴ This spirit brings with it contention and competition. This stronghold feminizes God and we begin to see goddess worship.

Jezebel Is In The Church

Leonard Ravenhill wrote a book called Why Revival Tarries. In this book he wrote that the only power that God yields to is the power of prayer. He wanted to bring home the point that we wrestle not against flesh and blood but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places; (Eph 6:12 KJV) but because we do not humble ourselves before the Lord God in prayer He said a title for a book about the church today would be “We wrestle not”. We are always ready to display our gifts both natural and supernatural, we make sure we air our views, both political and spiritual; we preach our sermons and write our books to correct doctrine

But

WHO IS WILLING TO DENY HIMSELF AND GIVE UP HIS GOOD FOOD, GOOD REST AND COMFORT to storm the Gates of Hell? To see demons embarrassed, captives liberated, hell de-populated and to see a stream of blood-washed souls!

The Jezebel religious, political system vs. the five-fold ministry

Ephesians 4:11-12 says He gave some to be Apostles, some to be Prophets, some to be Evangelists, Pastors and Teachers, to prepare God's people for the works of service, so that the Body may be built up until we reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

True Apostles

The apostles of today are still being sent out from Jesus to establish His kingdom. When you are sent, you go in the name of the One who sent you. Jesus said, "As my Father has sent me, even so I send you." These last day apostles will dwell in the holy of holies and bring others in with them.

They will be on the side of the Captain of the Host in order to perfect the church.

It has been said that true apostles will exemplify true servant hood.

This is what Jesus has said to His disciples which were also His twelve apostles:

You know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Matthew 20 NIV

True apostles throughout history are easy to find if you look for them. They are the ones that emanate power and glory in their lives and are progressive enough by God's standards to be opposed by the established church leadership. If we want anointed ministries we must submit only under the authority of those apostles who are true servants and ministers, have humbled themselves, pour love upon the brethren, cast their crowns at the foot of Jesus' throne and show the way of righteousness. True apostles point to their real leader, the Lord Jesus Christ.

True apostles want to present the church perfect, fully equipped, and fruitful in Christ. True apostles emphasize obedience to the Holy Spirit. True apostolic ministry liberates people to be all they can be in Christ.

False Apostles

These are people who go out but the Lord has not sent them. True spiritual authority will be a threat to them as it was to the religious leaders in the day Jesus walked on earth.

False apostles will be evident in that they have to resort to manipulation and control in order to maintain their following. There are false apostles today that will need to stress the governorship of apostles over the rest of the five-fold to maintain a false authority; their pride elevates this gift above the others to exalt themselves.

The mark of false apostles is pride and arrogance. Just as a true Apostle follows Jesus their leader, the false apostle follows his leader the prince of pride and arrogance Lucifer. They are easy to spot if you know what to look for.

- ✓ They will preach apostolic leadership with their own kind as chiefs.
- ✓ They want to be first in the kingdom and for us to follow them.
- ✓ They will always put a title in front of their name.
- ✓ They will exalt themselves and try to gather others around them.
- ✓ They will come with their own agenda and traditions of men.
- ✓ They will find it hard to have faith in God's provision and will generally take things into their own hands.
- ✓ They will hold to the letter of the law and not the spirit or even being subject to the prophets.
- ✓ They will establish a “pecking order” of fleshly authority.
- ✓ They lack true wisdom but are wise in their own eyes.
- ✓ They become authoritarian, manipulative and tyrannical, expecting absolute obedience and control and will lash out in the flesh if criticized.

✓ They bring people into bondage.

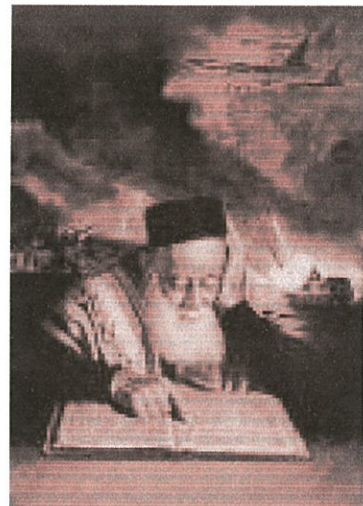

Paul had to deal with the problem of false apostles. After Paul's departure, the Corinthian church was infiltrated by false apostles who claimed to be better than Paul. These men claimed to be so good and so worthy, that unlike Paul, they required financial reward for their ministries. While Paul was meek and humble, next to him these men seemed so powerful.

In regard to the church at Corinth and their acceptance of these false Apostles, Paul wrote to them saying, “For you put up with fools gladly, since you yourselves are wise! For you put up with it if one brings you into bondage, if one devours you, if one takes from you, if one exalts himself, if one strikes you on the face, to our shame I say we were too weak for that.” (2 Cor 11:20-21).

In Paul's day, some of the false apostles claimed to be sent by God, but insisted on physical circumcision as a condition for salvation. They would emphasize special days to be observed, new moons, feasts, food laws and other such things. Adding law to law, they encouraged guilt and unworthiness. These feelings created the atmosphere for the “great men” who could tell them what they had to do to come to Christ. Because so many rules and regulations were added no one was dealing with the carnal nature that was opposing the work of the Holy Spirit.

True Prophets

The world has almost always held true prophets to be insane. Church leadership will generally find true prophets about as welcome as a hole in a boat. One of the main problems with the church today is a misunderstanding of what a true prophet is and how great the need for true prophets is in the church today. Every true church of Jesus Christ will welcome the gift of true prophesy.

The Hebrew word naba not only signifies to foretell events, but also to pray and make supplication; and nabi, the prophet, was not by office a declarer of future events, but primarily a preacher of righteousness for his day.⁵ The church today desperately needs true prophets. That is why Jezebel wants to destroy the true prophets.

The prophet is called to see future events in the light of the righteousness or wickedness of the people with whom God has made an everlasting covenant. His main work is to urge men to live righteously and godly according to biblical principles. His secondary work is to warn of events to come. This job generally uncovers the attitude of the people concerning the will of God. His role is also to pray and make supplication for the people.

- ✓ They trust only in God. (Jer 17:5)
- ✓ They are generally liked by very few. (Matt 5:12)
- ✓ They speak what God tells them and how God tells them to speak it. (Deut 18:18)
- ✓ They warn about God's judgment for sin. (Ezek 33:7)
- ✓ They use the Sword of the Spirit to change the atmosphere.
- ✓ They demonstrate God's power and give Him the glory. (1 Cor 2:4-5)
- ✓ They do not conform to people's expectations.
- ✓ They seek God's will in all. (Prov 3:13)
- ✓ They seek the counsel of the Lord. (Jer 18 and Amos 3:7)
- ✓ They expect their words to be judged.

False Prophets

False prophets will be placed in the church to silence the true prophet, prevent prophetic exposure to sin, silence the message of repentance and stifle the corporate prophetic anointing of the Holy Spirit.

- ✓ They trust majority opinion.
- ✓ They are always looking for affirmation from the people.
- ✓ They speak about God in a too familiar way.
- ✓ They speak only peace and prosperity.

⁵ Lion and the Lamb Ministries

- ✓ They use the power of suggestion and their knowledge of situations and call it prophetic. (Matt 24:24)
- ✓ They enjoy the praise of men. (Luke 6:26)
- ✓ They are wise in their own eyes.
- ✓ They socially conform to people's expectations.
- ✓ They promote themselves. (Phil 2:21)
- ✓ They take it personal if you do not believe in their position.
- ✓ They judge, not trusting God to judge.

True Teachers

True teachers teach the Word expecting what they teach to produce results. They release people into their destiny and are called by God to equip the saints for the work of the ministry.

False Teachers

False teachers compromise the Word of God. They ignore repentance and sanctification, they overlook fornication and homosexuality, they debunk healing and deliverance. In short false teachers love the wisdom of man rather than the wisdom of Jesus, the Word of God.⁶ Jezebel too is a teacher. She is a teacher of false doctrine.

⁶ Jezebel's Murder Yvonne Kitchen

True Pastors

Refuse to allow Jezebel to function. The word "pastor" may also be translated "shepherd." This person is normally the head of a local assembly. A true pastor cares for his people from the heart and will desire to protect them from false gospels. The true pastor will not just let anyone preach in his pulpit nor will he allow any films or materials to come into the church without screening it. The true pastor desires to see his people grow stronger in and closer to the Lord. He is not threatened by those in the congregation who show leadership ability but will encourage them and help them.

The true pastor lives with his people and not above them because he knows that he depends upon them as much as they depend upon him.

The true pastor nurtures and nourishes his congregation. He knows his accountability is to God first, and then to the people.

False Pastors

Please keep in mind that if a pastor has one or two of these traits does not automatically mean they are false but you will know them by their fruits.

- ✓ They will not have accountability to anyone.
- ✓ They are rarely available to their congregation.
- ✓ They are attracted to activities outside the church.
- ✓ They allow people to come into their church with messages they themselves are unfamiliar with.
- ✓ They rarely visit their congregation to see how they live.
- ✓ They insist on their pastorate being a paid position.
- ✓ They allow the movers and shakers of the church to dictate policy to them.
- ✓ They preach meatless messages which keep the congregation unweaned.

- ✓ They take people they don't truly know into their confidence.
- ✓ They allow anyone to take communion without reinforcing the fact that one must be born again to partake of the Body and Blood of the Lord Jesus (1 Cor 11:19-34)

False pastors become hirelings and run when danger comes. A false shepherd will be unable to resist the take-over of the Jezebel spirit.

The true shepherd faces paradox. On one hand the Jezebel spirit bruises the sheep, on the other hand, if confronted, will turn the sheep against the true leader. The true pastor's reputation will be tarnished and even so, he will humbly accept abuse and pray for the protection of his sheep. True shepherds attend to the needs of the sheep first and in time will end up with increased anointing, discernment and authority.⁷

True Evangelists

True Evangelists are called by God and his burden for the lost is from the Lord. They teach Bible based truth not their own opinions. Their aim is the evangelizing of people for the work of the Kingdom of God. He will always point to Jesus as Lord of Lords and King of Kings. He is a voice for God and he is a vessel to be used.

He allows the Spirit of God to work through his natural personality. He expects the Spirit to work through him.

- ✓ They are fishers of men. (Matt 4:19)
- ✓ They are approved by God. (2 Tim 2:15)
- ✓ They are anointed for their work. (Acts 10:38)
- ✓ They expect signs and wonders to follow them. (Eph 3:20, 21)
- ✓ They are grieved because of the sinful state of man.
- ✓ They are disciples of Jesus.
- ✓ They preach the Word. (2 Tim 4:2)

⁷ Jezebel by Yvonne Kitchen

- ✓ They know their mission is to win souls for the Kingdom of God. (Acts 20:26)
- ✓ They do not lack humility.

False Evangelists

False evangelists have given themselves over to a counterfeit gathering anointing. This anointing can be better called marketing.

- ✓ They are hypocritical.
- ✓ They are lovers of money.
- ✓ They use deceitful methods in the appeals for conversions.
- ✓ They use emotionalism.
- ✓ They are proud and arrogant.
- ✓ They are jealous and seekers of fame.
- ✓ They are manipulators.
- ✓ They do not PRAY they PREY on the sheep of the Lord's pasture.
- ✓ They are builders of their own kingdom.

Pride in the Church

An indictment against the house in Jeremiah 23:11 “For both prophet and priest are polluted, even in My house I have found wickedness” declares the Lord. The religious system of Babylon has lulled the church into a false sense of security. Jeremiah 5:31a says, “The prophets prophesy falsely and the priests rule on their own authority and My people love it so!”

Pride manifests itself in division. We as Christians are not immune to mockery, gossip and judgment toward others who do not believe as we do. Don't think you are so innocent. When will teachers say that it is alright to see things differently? After all didn't God create us diversely? We need to accept the one who is weak in faith. Not for the purpose of ridicule but because we must hold up our weaker brother. Scripture says in Romans 14:2-3 For one believes he may eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. Let not him who eats despise the one who does not eat, and let not him who does not eat, judge him who eats, for God had received him.

We should examine our hearts daily to be sure that we have no judgments or that any pride be found. We must keep short accounts with God and be mindful of having clean hands and pure hearts.

Fruits of the Jezebel spirit

Divorce and broken covenants - are the fruit of the Queen of Heaven. One of her main weapons is broken covenant. A man under the influence of a Jezebelic stronghold can take on the mentality of having a HAREM. A woman under this stronghold can be very frigid and cold emotionally and sexually to her husband. This same spirit of divorce and division will also bring church splits.

Eunuchs - this principality produces spiritually barren men who are so controlled and dominated by this stronghold that they cannot receive the seed of the Word of God.⁸

Sodomy and homosexuality are birthed out of this stronghold through spirits of illegitimacy and confusion.

Idolatry and Witchcraft - Idolatry enthrones the Queen of Heaven and DETHRONES God from our heart and brings estrangement.

Mystery: In many lives there seems to be a mystery as to why a person can't get set free. We need every key God has promised us to bring us out of this prison.

The Spirit of Elijah and Unmasking the Jezebel spirit

To resolve the matter of a Jezebel spirit, God requires His servants to remove the demon thorn that infects His body. Godly confrontation is necessary in order for conviction and true repentance to occur.⁹ Since the Jezebel spirit counterfeits the Holy Spirit, people under this spirit will have to acknowledge that the spirit that gives them comfort, power, insight, authority, value and self esteem is demonic. This rarely happens.

We have written this manual, provide workshops and have devoted much of our lives to the healing of root issues so people can come into the knowledge of who they were created to be by God and not who they have become because of wounds and hurts suffered throughout life.

Malachi 4:5 speaks of the Spirit of Elijah, “Behold I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and dreadful day of the Lord. And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to the fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.”

Reconciliation of children to the Father, our Father God, is what will destroy the Jezebel spirit. We must embrace the Spirit of Elijah. The Elijah church will join with Heaven to see her religious city fall. Elijah gives us hope because he was human just like us but he rose up in the power of the Living God to wipe out the prophets of Baal and to proclaim in all of Israel, the Lord (Yahweh) He is God.

Servants Of Yahweh Do Not Always Recognize One Another

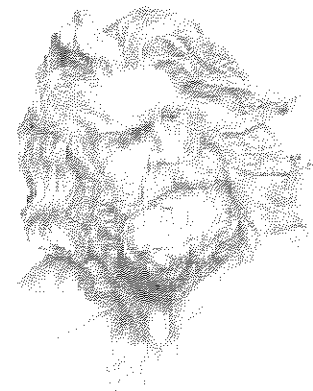

Why is it that we as servants of God, the Body of Christ, have difficulty many times in recognizing one another? Elijah thought he was the only one left in all of Israel who followed the Lord. He did not recognize Obadiah as a fellow believer. John the Baptist who came in the Spirit of Elijah and was the cousin of Jesus asked if Jesus was indeed the Messiah.

We must ask the Lord for discernment so that we do not make the same mistake. I also believe that we do not recognize other parts of the Body because we look upon the outward appearance while God looks upon the heart. 1 Samuel 16:7 God said to Samuel, "Don't look on his face, or on the height of his stature; because I have rejected him: for God sees not as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but God looks at the heart."

We humans do not see things as God sees them. To see as the Lord sees we must ask Him to open the eyes of our understanding.

The Elijah who was

Who was Elijah? Was he only the one who made prophetic declaration to stop the rain, ran ahead of horses, called down fire from heaven on Mt. Carmel and went to be with the Lord in a chariot of fire.

Jesus' view of Elijah stands out. There is only one story Jesus referred to in Elijah's life, and it was about the widow (Luke 4:25, 26). It is the reference to Elijah's caring that Jesus draws on.

Elijah essentially fathered an orphan, and was helpmate to a widow for three years during the drought (1 Kings 17). His care and love for the son, especially when he died, was the defining moment for the widow. This act validated his prophetic ministry: "By this I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is the truth." (vs. 24).

It is the fathering theme Jesus picked up on. This is Elijah, who raised up a spiritual son in Elisha (2 Kings 2:12). He raised up at least four schools called “the sons of the prophets” located at Bethel (2 Kings 2:3), Jericho (vs 5), Gilgal (2 Kings 4:38) and Ephraim (2 Kings 6:22).

Elijah is mentioned in the book of Malachi chapter 4 and once again his mention is linked directly to fathering. But long before chapter 4, Malachi deals with fathering. The 'fathering theme' is found all the way through Malachi's writings and touches on four things that prevent God's heart from being expressed in the 'spirit of Elijah'.

1. Inability to Honor

“A son honors his father and a servant his master. If then I am the Father, where is My honor? And if I am the Master, where is My reverence... you offer the blind as a sacrifice, is it not evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, is it not evil?” (Mal. 1:6 & 8)

God's accusation against Israel then and the Church now is that we do not revere God as Father, or as Lord. God said to Israel that they were dishonoring him in their sacrifice. They gave him the blind and the lame, the left over portion. We likewise dishonor the Father, and invalidate ourselves from the Elijah spirit when we give God our 'spare time' and our left over efforts. Those who move in the spirit of Elijah will honor God in all they do, giving him the best of their best and the first of their lives.

2. Broken covenants

“Have we not all one Father? Has not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously with one another by profaning the covenant of the fathers?” (Ma. 2:10).

God's accusation against Israel then and the Church now is that we deal treacherously with one another. We thereby profane the covenant of the Father. Christians lie, steal, slander and accuse the brethren, thereby invalidating the covenant cut by the Blood of God's Son. We should be known as those who love one another, but instead we are known as those who abuse children, take advantage in counseling situations and can not be trusted financially. Jesus was clear, if you bring your offering to God, be sure you have nothing against your brethren. If you do, you must first go and be reconciled. (Matt. 5:24) Those who move in the spirit of Elijah will bring truth and integrity back into the church, no matter what the cost.

3. Financial fidelity

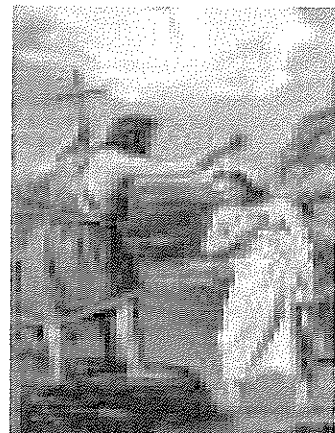

"I do not change; therefore you are not consumed, O sons of Jacob. Yet from the days of your fathers you have gone away from My ordinances and have not kept them... "Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed Me! But you say, "In what way have we robbed You?' In tithes and offerings" (Mal 3:6 & 8).

God's accusation against Israel then and the Church now is that we have robbed God and have strayed from His ordinances. The law was given so that a rebellious people would know how to love and serve God faithfully. The law therefore required Israel to give the first fruits of the tree, the first bundles of the crop, the ewe lambs and a portion of their wine and oils. By Jesus' time, the Pharisees had perfected tithing, even down to the herbs and spices - but they had forsaken the spirit of the law. The Church has likewise become fixated on tithes and offerings to keep the wheels of the machine oiled and running, but forsaken the spirit of the Law - to love, have mercy and be kind (Matt. 23:23).

Those who move in the spirit of Elijah will display love, charity and mercy; never tiring of doing good.

The Elijah who is

The last words of the Old Testament are "strike the land with a curse". For 400 years those words stung the ears of Israel, waiting for another voice to speak out, another life to be born and demonstrate God's love for them. During those silent years Israel must have strained to see a life that would fulfill the words of Malachi.

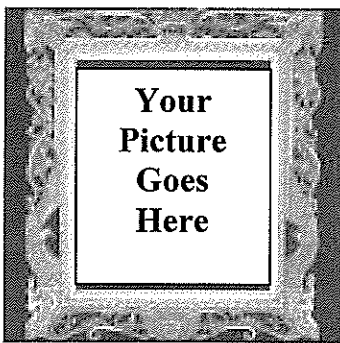

Then the angel of the Lord visited Zacharias, telling him what kind of man his son John would be: “He will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God. He will also go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord” (Luke 1:17).

Jesus declared that when we looked at the life of John, we saw a New Testament fulfillment of Elijah (Matt. 11:14) and therefore of Malachi's words.

What did John embody? The disciples thought that moving in the ‘Elijah spirit’ was to move in power, signs and wonders. They wanted to call down fire from heaven on the unbelieving Samaritans, but Jesus told them: “The son of man came not to condemn but to save” (Luke 9:54-56). That preoccupation with signs and power still inhibits the moving of the spirit of Elijah in these last days.

What did John do? He did no miracles, he didn’t raise the dead, he didn’t heal anyone, he didn’t stop the rain, didn’t call fire down from heaven. What then? He prepared the way, he restored lost truth, he challenged people on matters of personal fidelity, he laid an axe to the root of selfish pride, he baptized for the forgiveness of sins, he called for repentance of the heart, a change of life and he pointed to the One who was coming!

The Elijah who is to come

Having told his disciples that John was an embodiment of Elijah, Jesus then said that “Elijah is coming first and restore all things” (Matt. 17:11). There is still a sense that Elijah is yet to come. Restoration is at the heart of God's plan and purpose for the end times. Elijah must come before the dreadful day of Judgment, and he will come in a fathering capacity. Like Elijah of Old, those moving in the spirit and power of Elijah will care for the widow and the orphan because that alone constitutes true religion (James 1:27).

The mandate on an Elijah generation will be to father the fatherless, to help the widow, to turn people's hearts back toward God. They will call for uncompromising repentance and change of life, advise people at a personal level about righteous living and prepare the Body for the Lord's second coming. We will be a people who demonstrate the spirit of the Law, which is to love, have mercy and show kindness. We will, in short, show the Father's heart.¹⁰

¹⁰ The Spirit of Elijah by Robert Holmes

- I repent for being unkind.
- Forgive me for seeking signs and wonders and not your face.
- I repent for not representing Your love to a dying world.

The Lord God is showing the house to the house. Let us ask God for the Elijah anointing today.

Jesus will forgive all who have sinned I John 1:9. Christ can cleanse us from the effects of Jezebel. Do not let Jezebel fool you. Do not get caught up in her lies and seductive power. She will lead you into rebellion against authority, idolatry and witchcraft. But the Lord has equipped the church with the truth to defeat Jezebel. Babylon will burn, her end is fire. There will be wailing and weeping but she will be given a double portion of the judgment of God's fire (Revelation 18:8)!

Out of the Gap

Heavenly Father,

Now that I have finished standing in the gap for my ancestral line and have numbered myself with the transgressors, I am removing myself from the gap until such a time as you call me again to intercede.

I call back every part of myself cleansed by the blood of Christ. I call back all Godly attributes, giftings, callings and generational blessings from every dimension.

I place everyone in my family line in Your care and ask that the work done here today be sealed by the Holy Spirit in Jesus' name. Amen.

Letter to Jezebel

Several years ago I had the chance to read a small book written by John Frady, the Pastor of a church in Shell Beach, CA. The book was titled "Letter to Jezebel." It was a letter written from Leviathan to Jezebel congratulating her on her success, here is an excerpt from the book.

Dearest Jezebel, mother of all fornication,

I am writing this letter to inform you of the state of our unholy alliance, as well as to congratulate you on your recent successes.

It seems to the boss, as well as to me that our smoke screens are working well. The way the nation of America is headed I'm sure we'll bring it down soon. Starvation, Poverty and Idol Worship, however are losing ground. They are constantly asking for reinforcements, but every time we send them, those who oppose us begin to pray. You know what happens when those Christians begin to pray to their Master.

"Poverty" has suggested that we send you to teach the troops how to be more subtle. Your fame for slyness is widespread. Even spirit-filled marriages cannot detect you. We denied his request of course, because you are very entrenched in the mind of the American woman and we don't want to lose any ground. Above all we cannot let the church discover your presence.

While I was speaking with the boss this morning he mentioned that the next time I write I should not only congratulate you but reward you as well for your efforts. As a reward we will be sending 5 of our strongest soldiers, "Cancer", "Lust", "Pride", "Jealousy" and "Aids". They will be with you shortly to assist in your diabolical undertakings.

I believe one of the wisest decisions that you have made in recent years was to capitalize on the injustices done to women. We all thought the Women's Lib Movement was a brilliant idea until you pulled out all the stops regarding the treatment of women in Muslim countries. BRILLIANT! I see your cunning and craftiness. We cannot allow women to begin to think kindly about men.

We must keep them insecure. Keep the women thinking they need to be independent and then let their imaginations run wild. The resulting disunity in a family is beautifully contrary to that book we all hate.

"Rebellion" and "Hypocrisy" applaud you for your handling of the Prophets. The way you sent "Rage", "Anger" and "Spiritual Blindness" into the church was a stroke of genius. This is the mark of a true leader of darkness. Many of us are in awe of the way you keep "Humility" and "Repentance" from getting through at critical times. We never realized "Past-rejection", "Man-hater" and "Bad-Experience" were so useful. We are all paying closer attention to them these days. I want to remind you to give "Blame-shifter" some time in the game. He has a way of keeping the humans focused on the sins of others.

In closing I want to say again, great job! Your expertise in manipulation never ceases to amaze us. The new generation of entertainers like Britney Spears has taken the bait just like Madonna did years ago. Men are such fools they fall for "Seduction" and "Lust" every time! They never seem to tire of being pawns and that whole Kabbalah rebirth was excellent timing.

Remember you must keep the Christians from seeing that their only hope is in Jesus Christ. Keep them from pursuing Him at all costs. If we can keep them religious, focused on doing good deeds and on church attendance then we should be in good shape. Above all keep them from interfering with our kingdom.

Yours unfaithfully,
Leviathan

Declarations

It is time for the true prophet and truly prophetic people to arise in the government of God. We must take our SWORD, the Sword of God's Spirit, and cut all cords to this principality.

It is time we unite and arise in indignation against this spirit. Under the Elijah anointing God has established for such a time as this!

I am putting on the whole armor of God! It is complete, without flaw and new every morning.

I declare the Apostolic government of God that is on Jesus' shoulders is my authority and the authority over my family line.

Let us allow God to deliver us from our past pollution as we renounce the powers of darkness and He sets us aflame with HIS HOLINESS!
