

Training Division

Compliance Training provided by K Scott Consults, LLC is provided by a team of professionals who have been recognized and authorized by both state and federal governing entities as having substantial expertise in the subject matter. Courses are tailored to be site specific to meet client's needs and requirements. Courses are tailored so that they meet and/or exceed requirements for regulatory agencies. The following chart lists courses that have been professionally developed and taught by K Scott Consults, LLC, however the list is not all-inclusive. Specific course offerings requested by clients can be requested. Professionally developing clients' workforce is a goal included with ensuring regulatory compliance.

Course	Code of Federal Regulation Number
Accident Investigation
Anti-Harassment as it relates to Discrimination Prevention: Sex, Sexual Orientation, Race, Color, National Origin, Religion, Disability,	EEOC Title VII
Behavior Based Safety
Bloodborne Pathogens	1910.1030
Control of Hazardous Energy - Authorized Employee	1910.147
Control of Hazardous Energy – Affected Employee	1910.147
Cultural, Diversity, and Inclusion
Effective Communication
Effective Interviewing (Hiring, Terminating, Suspension)
Emergency Management and Response
Ergonomics
Event Site Safety Plan
First Aid and CPR
Hazard Communications	1910.1200
Hazard Identification
Hearing Conservation	1910.95
Machine Guarding	1910.212
OSHA 10 Hour – General Industry
OSHA 30 Hour – General Industry
OSHA 1904 Recordkeeping and Reporting	1904
OSHA: It's Not for Manufacturing
Performance Feedback
Personal Protective Equipment	1910.132
Powered Industrial Truck	1910.178
Portable Fire Extinguisher	1910.157
Powered Industrial Truck Train the Trainer	1910.178
Respiratory Protection	1910.134
Root Cause Analysis
Risk vs. Hazard
S.W.O.T. (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, Threats) Analysis
Situational Awareness
Welding, Cutting, Brazing	1910 Subpart Q

What's In It For Me (WIIFM)
Workplace Violence Prevention
You're Safe: #NowWhat?

