Ally Production and or Faisal Ally/ Brian Ally do not do videos, write articles, books, songs for anyone, nor edit books and articles for anyone. In the past I have done some weddings videos and around 2010 completed a half an hour comedy episode and a mock up movie.

There is another company by a similar name, Ally Production that does movies; I have no connection to them. If any body tells you that I will write songs, books articles for others or gives audition, those are all made up fabricated lies and have nothing to do with me.

Anyone can have a copy or copies of my songs and books, however, if anyone tells you that you can sample my songs, books etc... for commercial use and rewrite to make it better according to your taste thinking it's better, those are again fabricated lies as part of a scam, as I have never signed a contract with anyone to sample any of my songs and books or to use any of my songs/music and books commercially.

In this industry scams and tricks can be played on you and you can easily be mislead pulling you into a scam and or situations you will regret. Beware of people pulling you into their scams and having you take the blame for them! They will set you up, frame you and make you take all the blame, while they're on their beach getaway enjoying their paradise on earth, and they are well protected by a system that protects them, but scam people like my self for their gains and benefits. People on our email lists have been getting spams with the subject 'Ally Production(s); I never use this name in the subject line - those emails are not from me...F. Ally

RESOLUTION

Lyrics by Faisal Ally

From Christmas Day

IT'S CHRISTMAS

Put up a tree
turn on the lights,
there's magic tonight
Have a merry little Christmas,
and a happy new year

All the best and success
All the good things life brings

Follow your passion, with a New Year resolution
Put up a tree, turn on the lights

I'll always remember, Christmas day
Those moments we share and treasure, the things we do together

Taking rides on Santa's sleight
To see the lights on Candy Cane Lane

Smile with me, Shout with glee
Put up a tree, turn on the lights

Christmas day we celebrate our love,
On Christmas day we celebrate

Light up my life, light up the world, lets celebrate
It's the love we share, the love that gets, so high and higher

All the best and success, All the good things life brings
Sing a song and clap along, here we go under the mistletoe
Smile with me, shout with glee, put up a tree turn on the lights
Christmas we celebrate our love, On Christmas day we celebrate
Christmas day we celebrate our love, Christmas day we celebrate

KEEP THE PEACE

Music and Lyrics by Faisal (Fizal) D. Ally, Copyright Protected

When I think of those better days
Holding hands and singing a song
When we listened to each other
Reaching out across the sky

Make this Earth a better home
For all lives under the sun
On the land or in the sea
And up above the earth

You say you're white, black, whatever color
It should never be about the color of a person's skin
Lend a hand and you will understand
The meanings of Love

And if you're rich, poor or in-between
You shouldn't judge anyone by what you see
If you look deep down inside
You will find peace of mind

Peace Let's keep the peace
Keep the peace for everyone
Every country across the seas
Sharing love in the world

Put an end to all the wars
Yesterday today and for tomorrow
If you search for the answers
You will find peace of mind

It shouldn't matter what you are
Your religion class color or your race
Walk together and not against each other
Let's live in harmony

Peace, let's keep the peace
Keep the peace for everyone
Every nation across the land
Sharing life on this earth

Let's forgive and learn to compromise
Ease the pain sorrows and no more hunger
And the children will have some peace
In this land we call free

Can you imagine a world that is one
There's no limit to what we can do
Reach out for another
And have a change in heart

Peace Let's keep the peace
Keep the peace for every one
Every country across the seas
Sharing love in the world

Peace Let's keep the peace
Keep the peace for everyone
Every nation across the land
Sharing life on this Earth

Peace let's the peace
Let's keep the peace
Keep the peace for everyone

Merry Christmas and a Happy

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, and Happy Holidays to everyone celebrating Christmas, and for the ones that are not celebrating Christmas, Happy Holidays and a Happy New Year. Another year is coming to an end as millions across the globe are putting up their trees with decorations and celebrating Christmas, while others are enjoying the holidays. Many homes across the planet are lit with decorations, while others are enjoying the sceneries.

“Light shines on the righteous and joy on the upright in heart” (Psalm 97:11)

An uplifting quotes from the Bible that can uplift all of us during these dark times. “So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.” (Isaiah 41:10)

Throughout my life, I have always enjoyed Christmas and the holidays. As a boy in Guyana, South America, our culture is so diverse that most accepts each other celebrations, music and dishes. As a boy, I lived in Essequibo, New Amsterdam and other places, but we always travel to La Penitence in Georgetown, Demerara to spend the Christmas holidays at my grandmother’s home, where we baked Christmas cakes and celebrate Christmas.

2023 Is Year One of New World Order

We are facing a new era. The ‘Trilateral Commission calls 2023 ‘Year One’ of new world order. At the meeting, ‘The speaker, who cannot be identified according to commission rules, went on: “Three decades of globalization -- defined as integrated, free-market based and deflationary -- has been replaced by what will be a multidecade period of globalization defined as fragmented, not-free-market-based but industrial-policy based and structurally inflationary. This year, 2023, is Year One of this new global order.”

Don’t be surprised if they change the calendar, starting over with year 1 being 2023.

Demographics are changing tremendously

People from all over the world have contributed to the development in places like the United States and Canada. When my parents arrived in Canada, they worked two jobs, and so did all of my relatives and people I know from Guyana, building this world. Unfortunately, many of us are not considered as Canadians, even though we've been here for decades, much longer than many working and contributing to the development of Canada. In Edmonton we have Heritage Days which reminds us of many heritages world wide.

In the past 2 or 3 years, I have witnessed a rapid change in the demographics in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. For example, as a boy in grade 6, I was the only person of dark complexion; today I'm hearing the opposite, that for example in grade 6 or any other grade, you may find one or two 'white' children. Even ten years ago, many people in the malls were mainly of European origins where the main language heard was always English. Today, instead of English, I hear a lot of Spanish, Indian languages, Filipino, Arabic, African languages.

The Georgia Guide stones which was created a few decades ago and recently taken down actually told us of this future. It has 'A message consisting of a set of ten guidelines or principles was engraved on the Georgia 'Guidestones in eight different languages, one language on each face of the four large upright stones. Moving clockwise around the structure from due north, these languages were English, Spanish, Swahili, Hindi, Hebrew, Arabic, Traditional Chinese, and Russian. And today we hear a lot of different languages.

Diversity and Multicultural is taking over the world - It's now a global world

I will provide some information on my own diverse background as an example of what's taking place in the United States, Canada and places like England. I'm originally from Guyana, South America, and as a boy in Guyana before arriving in Canada to join my parents, I've witnessed a lot of multiculturalism in Guyana with people of all backgrounds calling each other dishes and music their own. We are beginning to see some of that in Edmonton, along with many children from mixed marriages. In Guyana it is said that today the people of mixed background in Guyana is 20%. However, I would say that the mixed population in Guyana is actually about 40%. For example because I have a Muslim name and dark in complexion, in Guyana I am classified as being of East Indian origin from indentured laborers that arrived in the 1800s to work in the sugarcane fields. However, I can identify 4 different heritages for myself. For example aside from my Indian ancestors, on my dad's side, his father and grand father are not of Indian origin but are of Syrian background where people from Syria back in the 1800s for example boarded a ship from the Port of Beirut, which then headed to France, and from Marseilles in France they took a bigger ship into the Americas. My mom's grandmother carried green eyes and light complexion with a European name. In Canada, some indigenous people thought my grandmother was an indigenous person. There are many people like myself in Guyana, and now in Edmonton, so we are seeing a more diverse world, not by the different waves of immigration as seen in the past, but now by the day.

Lots of changes are coming

While the world is taken up with worldwide protests, and wars, there are plans for ongoing vaccination, CBDC, depopulation of the world, and where humans will have a very small part in reproduction in the future generation. It's here the New World Order, a global world being restructured. It's called the Great Reset.

This edition looks at Gaza, Border issues, Grooming

This edition looks at the genocide against the Palestinians, Venezuela's threat to invade its neighbor, Guyana, and frauds.

On prayers

Many Muslims think that they have to touch their ears or raise their hands to their chest when they say 'Allahu Akbar (God is great) as they commence their prayers. From my view, a person should raise their palms similar to when the person doing the call to prayers (the Azan) in a motion to listening and focus, as a sign of listening to the words of the creator of all things and as a sign of leaving your worldly thoughts behind to focus on your prayers....Fisal Ally

Diverse News: Thousands of ‘adult male migrants’ at the United States of America border - did the mask man scare you

Thousands of men are at the US boarder waiting to be processed to get into the country. Many arrived in South America, and came through Central America, and through Mexico to the border. In the video (ref 11) focused through the slits on a mask man who came directly up to the wall and waved. A bit creepy. It’s one way to broadcast fear into the citizens, not knowing where these men came from and if some have ill intentions in the US.

Below are a few excerpts from the video:

‘Dementia is the “biggest health crisis of our time”, a charity has warned as it calls for the NHS to approve life-changing drugs.’ The video states, ‘Last year 74,261 people died from dementia and Alzheimer’s disease compared with 69,178 in 2021 - accounting for more than one in 10 deaths in the UK last year - according to an analysis.’ ‘Alzheimer’s Research UK has called for any drugs “deemed safe and effective” to treat the disease to be made available on the NHS soon as possible.

‘There have been major breakthroughs in Alzheimer’s research this year.’ They are looking at a ‘more powerful, slowing the condition by a third.’ However there are concerns that ‘the drugs may be deemed too costly for the NHS According to the NHS, about 944,000 people are living with dementia in the UK.’

Diverse News: Barbados calling for trillions slavery reparations

In the video (Reference 10), Barbados Seeks $4.9 Trillion in Slavery Reparations. A lot of this reparation will have to come from Scotland, as the Scottish were highly involved in slavery in places like Barbados and Guyana in South America.

Diverse News: Atrocities and massacres says Turkey's Erdogan, accusing the west of barbarism

According to Reference 7, in the video Turkey's Erdogan accuses the West of 'barbarism' and Islamophobia in the war in Gaza on December 9, 2023, the video states, 'ISTANBUL (AP) — Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan used a speech on human rights Saturday to accuse the West of "barbarism" for its stance on the Israel-Hamas war and what he alleged was its toleration of Islamophobia.

Excerpts from the video: "Israel has carried out atrocities and massacres that will shame the whole of humanity," Erdogan told a packed hall in Istanbul the day before the 75th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights...."All the values relating to humanity are being murdered in Gaza. In the face of such brutality, international institutions and human rights organizations are not taking any concrete steps to prevent such violations," the Turkish leader said.

Diverse News: Palestinians death toll continues to climb

The ongoing genocide of Palestinian children and adults continues as the whole world watches through the news and internet, and yet no other nations are powerful enough to stop this genocide, this barbarism on innocent civilians. In the Reference 8, December 9, 2023, states: 'The Palestinian death toll in Gaza from the Israel-Hamas war has surpassed 17,700, around two-thirds of them women and children, according to the Health Ministry in the Hamas-controlled territory.' 'Israel's ground offensive in southern Gaza Strip intensified on Saturday with further airstrikes and artillery re, a day after the United States blocked a U.N. resolution calling for a cease-re

Diverse News: Discrimination against Muslims

No doubt racism has a large part to play on bringing about the destruction of societies, as citizens in the world are involved in such hate, when they could be doing something to better humanity. In the video, Reference 13; CNN; Complaint says Muslim Arab American teacher was discriminated against after put on leave over pro-Palestinian phrase in email; Alaa Elassar and Jennifer Henderson, CNN; Sat, December 9, 2023, states: 'The Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR) has led a discrimination complaint on behalf of a Black Muslim Arab American teacher in Maryland, who was placed on administrative leave for her email signature, which included a controversial phrase supporting Palestinian rights.' The complaint also states, "until the present situation with Ms. El-Haggan, MCPS had never taken adverse action against any other employee who chose to include political speech in their email signature. Ms. El-Haggan was informed that including any political or non-political quotes in an email signature was against the MCPS Employee Code of Conduct, yet this policy was never enforced against any of Ms. El-Haggan's colleagues who participated in similar conduct."

Diverse News: Slaughter of birds and charged

In the video, Reference 2; People; 2 Men Accused of Killing 3,600 Bald Eagles and Other Rare Birds in 'Spree' Sean Neumann; Wed, December 13, 2023 at 9:10 a.m. MST; A message presented in court by prosecutors shows one of the men allegedly acknowledged he was "committing felonies" States: 'The New York Times reported that each of the men — Simon Paul of St. Ignatius, Mont., and Travis John Branson of Cusick, Wash. — were indicted in Montana on Thursday on one count of conspiracy, 13 counts of unlawful tracking and one count of violating the Lacey Act.'

There are laws to be followed, yet these two men refused to follow the laws and decided to slaughter these beings. 'The Lacey Act is a federal law that combats the tracking of wildlife illegally removed from nature, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.'

The news states: 'In court lings reviewed by PEOPLE, federal prosecutors say they uncovered messages sent by Branson, 48, in which he bragged he was on a "killing spree." Prosecutors allege the men then sold the birds, or parts of the birds, "for significant sums of cash across the United States and elsewhere" on the black market.'

Diverse News: Death tool of Russia-Ukraine war

Wars and barbarism against humanity continues across the world. In the article, Reference 3; OpinionWestern hypocrisy helps drive Russian support for war in Ukraine Alexander Hill, University of Calgary, Tue, December 12, 2023, states: 'Russian President Vladimir Putin has announced he intends to run in the 2024 presidential election. Putin is almost certain to win what would be his fifth term.' 'The news comes as little surprise. Putin has led Russia for 24 years and polls suggest Russia's ongoing military campaign in Ukraine has bolstered support for him.'

Over a year ago Russia invaded Ukraine. Some excerpts from the video states: 'In February 2022, Russia went to war in Ukraine with the justification of protecting the rights of those identifying as Russian in the Donbas, and to prevent further NATO encroachment into the former Soviet space. The "de-Nazication" of eastern Ukraine was also tacked on to these aims.' 'Defending the rights of ethnic Russians in eastern Ukraine clearly resonated to some extent with the Russian population at the beginning of the war.'

The article looks at 'Western hypocrisy' stating: 'Through their actions, Western powers have made it easy for the Russian government to point to Western hypocrisy. Unwavering Western support for Israel's war in Gaza has further highlighted that the United States in particular has one set of rules for its friends and another for its enemies.'

How could this even happen? Much genocide has taken place throughout history and lots of the genocide and barbarism are hidden from the public. But now the whole world is witnessing this genocide through the news, Internet and other means. The article states: 'A U.S.-backed Israel has been slaughtering civilians at a rate far exceeding anything Russian forces have done in Ukraine. And while Western officials were quick to condemn Russian attacks on civilians, condemnations of Israel's actions have been muted or non-existent.'

Reference 4 ; Another country Russia invaded is worried a new naval base is going to drag it into the Ukraine war; Paul SquireWed, December 13, 2023 at 9:42 a.m. MST

The Kremlin seems to be building a naval base in Abkhazia, an area of Georgia that Russia has occupied since the 1990s, according to the BBC.

The above article states: 'As recently as 2008, Georgia has clashed with Russian-backed forces from the region. But the BBC reports that Georgia is increasingly worried that the planned military base could draw them into the largest war in Europe in decades.

Diverse News: Killed in Ukraine

Wars and more wars where the civilians and also many soldiers loses their lives. In the video, Reference 5; The Independent; US says Russia has lost 315,000 troops in Ukraine, equivalent to 90% of invading force; Arpan Rai, Wed, December 13, 2023, states: Russia has had 315,000 of its troops killed or injured in Ukraine, the equivalent of nearly 90 per cent of the total number of soldiers it sent to war when the invasion first began, a declassified US intelligence report said.

The video states: ‘Russia launched a full-scale invasion of Ukraine with a total of 360,000 personnel in February last year. After failing in its attempts to rapidly capture the Ukrainian capital Kyiv, Moscow has since launched several major recruitment drives to further bolster its numbers on the frontline, and replace tiring troops.’ ‘The figure of 315,000 Russian losses would be the equivalent of about 87 per cent of the total count with which Moscow started the war on Ukraine, though the US assessment does not clarify if the casualties include forces later sent into the convict by Russia.’ ‘According to the report, Mr Putin invaded Ukraine with 3,100 tanks but has lost 2,200 of these and is left with only 1,300 tanks on the battle field. Russia has had to “backll” the lost tank capacity with Soviet-era T62 tanks it produced in the 1970s, which are now among those still active in the field.

Diverse News: ‘Foreigners built the world’

Very often in the West, people of colors who have contributed so much to the development of this entire world are not credited with anything. For examples, the enslaved Africans, the East Indian indentured laborers etc...in the Americas are not credited for anything. In the video, Reference 6: Denmark Declares War on Multiculturalism - VisualPolitik EN; <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xFZjSwzdFyM>; Dec 9, 2023, states: "Most of these countries were built by the arrivals of hundreds and thousands of foreigners."

Diverse News: On injury

We continue to hear of many injuries. In Reference 16 Yahoo Life; 'Big Bang Theory' actress Kate Micucci, 43, developed lung cancer despite never smoking. Here's what to know; Kaitlin Reilly Tue, December 12, 2023 States: ‘The Big Bang Theory actress Kate Micucci is on the mend after her successful lung cancer surgery, the star shared in a recent TikTok. “I’m in the hospital but it’s because I had lung cancer surgery yesterday,” the Garfunkel and Oates singer, who is 43, explained. “They caught it really early.” This source states: ‘Despite early detection, Micucci said it was “really weird” to get the diagnosis because she has “never smoked a cigarette” — the leading cause of lung cancer, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). “It was a surprise,” Micucci said. “But also I guess, also, it happens and so the greatest news is they caught it early, they got it out, I’m all good.”’

Diverse News: On death

Many are facing injuries. In the report, Ref 16 and ref 16a states 'Anna 'Chickadee' Cardwell, Oldest Daughter of Mama June Shannon, Dead at 29: 'She Is No Longer with Us'; Erin Clack'

Diverse News: On Covid

Reference 17, BERLIN (AP) — A German man accused of forming an armed group to oppose government measures against the COVID-19 pandemic in 2021 has been arrested in Portugal, German prosecutors said Tuesday.

Diverse News:

Reference 18 states, CBC, Most Ottawa COVID-19 signals are very high, Wed, November 29, 2023 at 11:56 a.m. MST; <https://ca.yahoo.com/news/most-ottawa-covid-19-signals-185647559.html>

Happy Holidays!

PRECIOUS HOLIDAYS

The good times fly,
Another year gone by,
There's magic tonight,
So have a precious holiday
and a happy new year

All the best and success
All the good things life brings
Follow your passion,
with a New Year resolution
The good times fly, another year gone by

I'll always remember, the good times
Those moments we share and treasure,
the things we do together
Like taking rides on Santa's sleight
To see the lights on Candy Cane Lane
Smile with me, Shout with glee
The good times fly, another year gone by

Light up my life,
light up the world, lets celebrate
It's the love we share, the love that gets,
so high and higher

All the best and success
All the good things life brings
Sing a song and clap along,
here we go under the mistletoe???
Smile with me, shout with glee,
The good time fly, another year gone by

Introduction

There have been an out cry across the entire world for the people of Gaza who are being kicked out of their homes and driven out of their land, as their homes, hospitals and many other places are being bombed and demolished, as the genocide against the Palestinians continues. Generations of families were killed. Over 20,000 Palestinians have been murdered so far, and over a million are being driven out of their homes, and it's obvious that they will never be able to return to their homes.

It's against all laws that if someone or a group is holding someone as a hostage or hostages that you should not slaughter the hostages to get to ones committing the crimes, and that other means should be taken. Does it mean that if a bank robber robs a bank and then hold hostages that you should murder the hostages to then get to the robber? Of course not. Many are horror-struck on what's taking place against the Palestinians on this earth, stating that it's nothing but barbarism, terror and terrorism against these innocent people.

Palestine completely wiped off Netanyahu new map

In the youtube video (Ref 3) Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu angered Palestinians and their defenders; Friday after presenting a map of "The New Middle East"; <https://www.commondreams.org/news/netanyahu-map>; Brett Wilkings, Sep 22, 2023, states: Netanyahu Shows Map of 'New Middle East'—Without Palestine—to UN General Assembly. "Netanyahu made clear with his little map today what normalization really seeks: eliminating Palestine... from the region and legitimizing greater Israel, all with the blessing of Arab regimes," one critic said. This obviously mean that the new map which was shown on September 22, 2023 predicted the future as war in the region started on October 7, 2023 where the Palestinians are being told to get out from the north and head south, and when many arrived in the south, they were being bombed and attacked. So does this mean that they had already planned the destruction of Palestine and the people of Palestine?

There are many youtube videos with the title or similar to 'Angels of Gaza'. The title was also used for this report.

Palestine, name given (originally by the Romans)

The International Everyman's Encyclopedia, which was first published in 1913-1914 with updated editions after this, states in Vol 15, p. 5555, ‘Palestine, name given (originally by the Romans) to the ter. Formerly governed by Britain under Mandate from the League of Nations (1923-48). It was bounded to the N. by the Syrian and Lebanese Repts., to the W. by the Mediterranean, to the S. by the Sinai peninsula and the Hedjaz dist of Saudi Arabia, and to the E. of it lay Transjordan, which was roughly separated from it by the Jordan valley and the Dead Sea though it was included with P. in the Mandate. P. was roughly 240m. long from N. to W. and 23 m. wide in its N. area by 80m. wide in the S. Its area, not including Transjordan, was 10, 249 sq. m.’

The above information confirms that Palestine with the name ‘Palestine’ has existed for thousands of years, and I’m making the assumption that the people that are being driven out of Palestine have probably always been there.

What was left of Palestine after 1948

As up to today, most of Palestine have disappeared as Israel continues to expand, where many Palestinians are locked into the Gaza strip with no freedom, as many calls it the world’s largest prison, and some refers to it as the world’s largest concentration camp. Many Palestinians are also in the West Bank, which was also removed from Netanyahu’s new map. We continue to hear that Palestinians or others do not believe Israel should exist. That is not the point. The question is why Israel continues to take over all of Palestinian lands and driving the Palestinians out of their homes and lands?

‘According to The International Everyman’s Encyclopedia, p. 3124, Vol 9 states: ‘The Strip came into existence in consequence of the armistice agreement between Israel and Egypt of 1949, represent the area of Palestine left in Egyptian hands after the fighting of 1948. The G. S. was never annexed by Egypt, being at first hoped ot make G. the centre of a Palestine Arab state. Later they maintained the separation of G. from Egypt in order to prevent the Arab refugees from moving into Egypt proper...’

A long history of Palestinians, where other names were used throughout history such as Canaan

The International Everyman’s Encyclopedia, Vol 15; p. 5749 states:

‘Philistines, people often mentioned in the Bible (Pelishtim), where they are said to be of Hamitic stock. They originated from Caphtor, commonly supposed to denote Crete...They settled, perhaps before the Israelite invasion, on the SW. maritime plain of Canaan, the Plain of Philistian. They gave their name to the whole country of Palestine...Their chief god, Bagon, was a corn-deity well known in Syria and Palestine...Very little is known of Philistine culture, since their main cities continued to be occupied in subsequent ages...’

The 12 tribes of Israel (Jacob)

In the Holy Quran, the people of Israel refers to Jacob and his 12 sons and thus the 12 tribes of Israel, but this reference are made towards tribes and not a physical place called Israel, but the tribes of Israel (tribes of Jacob).

The International Everyman’s Encyclopedia, Vol 11, 3966 states: ‘Israel (God fighteth), name given to the patriarch Jacob and also to the 12 tribes of the Hebrews as the children of I. Later the name was restricted to the N. kingdom, whole the S. kingdom was known as Judah. The accounts of their origin, contained in the early books of the Bible, are based upon genuine tradition. Their ancestor, Abraham, migrated some time between 2000 and 1700 BC from Haran in Mesopotamia into the land of Canaan. Here his descendants lived a pastoral life and ultimately, in the time of Jacob, famine in Canaan led to a fresh migration into Egypt...Moses led the Israelites to Mt Sinai and here a covenant was solemnly made with Yahweh...Moses led the Israelites to Mt Sinai and here a covenant was solemnly made with Yahweh. From Sinai they passed to the work of conquering Canaan for which they had set out. An attempt made at Kadesh on the S. frontier was unsuccessful and they returned to the wilderness for 40 years. During this time Moses and it was under Joshua that the entry into Palestine was finally made. The Israelites now settled down to an agric, and commercial life, entering in many cases into treaties of friendship with and adopting the religious practices of their Canaanite neighbours....’

Note the above states ‘entry into Palestine’. Does that mean at that time the name Palestine was already being used and existed?

Note the above where it says, the Israelites (meaning these tribes) wanted to conquer Canaan, meaning the Israelites were a people - tribes - and the place was called Canaan and not Israel, at least at that time and based on what’s stated in this Encyclopedia. And clearly states that the Israelites filed in invading Canaan. Thus, these tribes were living somewhere ,but not in Canaan which is today known as Palestine.

Note the above where it states: ‘The Israelites now settled down to an agric, and commercial life, entering in many cases into treaties of friendship with and adopting the religious practices of their Canaanite neighbours....’ This most likely means that the Israelites were many tribes, not living in a place called Israel, but living surrounding a place called Canaan, where Canaan will later be called Palestine. The question I have is, does that mean that the area called Palestine before 1948 was never in history occupied by the Israelites, and that the lands the Israelites occupied back then where other lands in the surroundings? These are questions I will look into and see what I come up with. I would have to further my research to see if the Israelites had taken over Palestine at different time in history.

Conclusion

Some parts of the encyclopedia states that Israel and Judea were places, but the question is, were these places located in Palestine, or were they outside of Palestine? The above also clearly state that the Israelites where living outside of Canaan and failed at their attempt to invade Canaan. I would have to do more research on the above topics to fully understand what had taken place back in history and to see if the Israelites at another time in history had taken over Palestine.

Today there is a mass genocide taking place against the Palestinian people, from children to adults to the elderly, wiping out complete generations, as they are being driven out of Palestine, and where the Prime Minister of Israel showed a new map of the Middle East, back on Sep 22, 2023, before the war, showing that Palestine would not be in existence anymore. Many around the world sees this siege and slaughter of Palestinians as barbarism, inhumane and disgusting, and against all international laws. Then why are such terror, barbarism and ongoing slaughter allowed to take place? Are powers around the world so weak and powerless to stop this? The world should have never allowed this to happen because it will only get worse, worldwide with the call for globalism, depopulating the world, the Great Reset, and marking 2023 as year one of the ‘New World Order.’

Introduction

In the past and also recently, Venezuela have made claims to Essequibo in Guyana. In 2015 when the Exxon, Hess, and CNOOC oil explorations commenced, Venezuela once again began making claims for the Essequibo region, as the oil companies explorations continued. In 2023 the President of Venezuela made statements that they will annex Essequibo and created a new map with Essequibo being a part of Venezuela. Recently it was written that "Guyana could become the Monaco for Latin America" (Ref 1). So we know that Guyana is doing very well because of its oil. So what's the real problem here?

The question is does Venezuela or Spain even have any valid claims over Essequibo?

In a comment made by someone, he stated that the Guyanese are swatting on Venezuela's land. Then, one can ask, are the Spanish squatting on indigenous lands? Spain made claims to lands just by sighting them when the Indigenous people were living on those lands? Does that mean that the Spanish are squatting on other people's land also? Is it okay for Spain and not for others? Lets look at history going all the way back to the 1500s to see if Spain or Venezuela have any legitimate claims to the Essequibo region of Guyana.

The border issues between Venezuela were already settled back in 1899, and once again in 1966.

Section I - Before the Europeans made claims to Essequibo, the Indigenous people were living in the area

The following was retrieved from Wikipedia on 12/14/23: 'Before the arrival of European colonials, the Guianas were populated by scattered bands of native people. The Warao people are considered to be the first inhabitants of Guyana, followed by the Arawak and Carib people. The native tribes of the Northern Amazon are most closely related to the natives of the Caribbean; most evidence suggests that the Arawaks immigrated from the Orinoco and Essequibo River Basins in Venezuela and Guiana into the northern islands, and were then supplanted by more warlike tribes of Carib Indians, who departed from these same river valleys a few centuries later.

The question is, do others have the right to just site your land or to even carry out some exploration on that land, as in the case of the Spaniards as they claimed, and then claim that land belongs to them even though others were already there living and carrying out business?

Section II - Spain claim of lands in the 15th century

The follow information in this section was retrieved on 12/14/23, 7:23 PM Guayana Esequiba - Wikipedia, Guayana Esequiba.

15th century

In 1499, the Spaniards explored Essequibo

'The first European encounter of the region was by the ships of Juan de Esquivel, deputy of Don Diego Columbus, son of Christopher Columbus, in 1498. The region was named after Esquivel. In 1499, Amerigo Vespucci and Alonso de Ojeda explored the mouths of the Orinoco, and reportedly were the first Europeans to explore the Essequibo.

As stated above, two Spaniards explored the mouth of the Orinoco, so does that mean they have rights to that land because they explored it? Did the people of the land gave Spain the rights to claim their land and to give their land their own name Spanish name? We can all agree that the Indigenous people were living on that land carrying out their day today lives. Did other Europeans accept Spain's claim to the Essequibo region?

Mohammed Deen Ally in Essequibo, also born in Essequibo (Fisal Ally's dad)

Section III - The Treaty of Tordesillas was not signed nor recognized by other colonialists

From https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Guayana_Esequiba 2/28; retrieved 12/14/23, 7:38 PM Guayana Esequiba - Wikipedia' states: 'Before other European powers had made excursions into these lands, Spain had already declared ownership of this region, as per the Treaty of Tordesillas. The treaty was not signed nor recognized by other colonialists, such as the Dutch or the English who inserted themselves into the Guianas between areas claimed by the Spanish Empire and Portuguese Empire.

Does it mean that because Spain had already declared ownership that they were exploring, living and trading in that area. That's not the case. The area is all jungle and the Spanish were not living in the Essequibo region. The indigenous people were living in that area, and the Spanish did not set up any colonies, thus how can they even claim that area. They might as well claim the moon and some of the stars if that's the case.

Section IV - Soon after the Dutch was in the Essequibo region

Note that Spain had made claims in 1499 to Essequibo region, but they did not start any colonies in that area. Indigenous colonies were already in that area, living under their own rule. Shortly after Spain made its claims, the Dutch arrived in the 1500s into the Essequibo region and had made connections with the Indigenous people and or also or traded with them. Maybe the Indigenous people allowed the Dutch in the area to live amongst them and to even explore. The Dutch would also expand their sugar plantations into Essequibo forming Dutch colonies; it's obvious that the Spaniards were not in that area living and forming colonies, so why are they claiming all of these places that does not even belongs to them, and this is why others did not recognize the Treaty of Tordesillas.

In 1581, on the banks of the Pomeroon River, Dutch colonists from Zeeland established a trading post and were colonizing the land situated west of the Essequibo. The Pomeroon colony was incorporated into the Essequibo colony and would become a major destination for trade for the Dutch colonialists before control was transferred to the British.

The Spaniards were not living in the Essequibo region. They did not start colonies in the area? The Treaty of Tordesillas were not recognized nor signed by the Dutch, British and others and not long after, the Dutch commenced their work in Essequibo.

Section V - Development in the Essequibo by the Dutch commenced in the 1500s

16th century

According to Wikipedia: ‘Dutch colonisation of the Guianas occurred primarily between the mouths of the Orinoco River in the west and the Amazon River to the east. Their presence in the Guianas was noted by the late 1500s, though many documents of early Dutch discoveries in the region were destroyed. The Dutch were present as far west as the Araya Peninsula in Venezuela utilizing salt pans in the area. By the 1570s, it was reported that the Dutch were commencing trade in the Guianas, but little evidence of this exists. At the time, neither the Portuguese nor the Spanish had made any establishments in the area. A Dutch fort was built in 1596 at the mouth of the Essequibo River on an island, which was destroyed by the Spanish later that year.’

According to Wikipedia: ‘In 1597, Dutch interest in travelling to the Guianas became common following the publication of The Discovery of Guiana by Sir Walter Raleigh. On 3 December 1597, a Dutch expedition left Brielle and travelled the coasts between the Amazon and Orinoco. The report, written by A. Cabeljau and described as having "more realistic information about the region" than that of Raleigh, showed how the Dutch had travelled the Orinoco and Caroní River, discovering dozens of rivers and other previously unknown lands. Cabeljau wrote of good relations with the natives and that the Spanish were friendly when they encountered them in San Tomé. By 1598, Dutch ships frequented Guiana to establish settlements.’

The Dutch and English never accepted Spain’s treaty. Why should Spain claim lands that they were not cultivating, as Essequibo was all jungle, and they were not living in? At least give someone else a chance. Just don’t claim lands and let it sit. The Dutch arrived soon after and commenced its development, while the Spanish were in other places with their colonies. Thus how could one even claim that Essequibo belongs to Spain and Venezuela, when there were no colonies in Essequibo under Spain. Could it even be possible that the Dutch made their own treaties with the indigenous people that were accepted by the Indigenous people? The indigenous people in that area worked with the Dutch, and not with the Spaniards; and this was shown throughout slavery that the Indigenous people worked for the Dutch and Spain had nothing to do with Essequibo.

Thus one would think that the Dutch have the rights to this area, even though Spain sighted the land and drew up a treaty, which the Dutch and others did not recognize, and the Dutch commenced its development not long after. Spain commenced their colonies in places like Columbia and Venezuela, but not in the Essequibo region. Thus one may think that because these settlements began very early by the Dutch after Spain’s treaty, and that these developments continued by the Dutch for a few centuries that the claims under the Dutch is valid, and that Venezuela or Spain really does not have any claims to the Essequibo region. It's written that the Dutch had already established a trading post in Essequibo in 1581. It is noted that the Dutch commenced development much earlier than 1581.

Section VI - The Dutch colony, Essequibo

Retrieved from Wikipedia on 12/14/23, 7:02 PM Essequibo (colony), states: 'Essequibo (Dutch: Kolonie Essequibo,[[][koˈloni ɛsəˈkʷebo][]]) was a Dutch colony in the Guianas and later a county on the Essequibo River in the Guiana region on the north coast of South America. It was a colony of the Dutch West India Company between 1616 and 1792 and a colony of the Dutch state from 1792 until 1815. It was merged with Demerara in 1812 by the British who took control. It formally became a British colony in 1815 until Demerara-Essequibo was merged with Berbice to form the colony of British Guiana in 1831. In 1838, it became a county of British Guiana till 1958. In 1966, British Guiana gained independence as Guyana and in 1970 it became a republic as the Co-operative Republic of Guyana. It was located around the lower course of the Demerara River, and its main settlement was Georgetown.'

Section VII - Border disputes - Peace of Amiens (1802)

Border disputes - the info was retrieved from Wikipedia on 12/14/23, 7:02 PM

'At the Peace of Amiens (1802), the Netherlands received the Essequibo colony for a short time, from 1802 to 1803, but after that the British again occupied it during the Napoleonic Wars. In 1812 Stabroek was renamed by the British as Georgetown. Essequibo became official British territory on 13 August 1814 as part of the Treaty of London and was merged with the colony of Demerara.'

'But it also became involved in one of Latin America's most persistent border disputes because the new colony had the Essequibo river as its west border with the Spanish Captaincy General of Venezuela. Although Spain still claimed the region, the Spanish did not contest the treaty because they were preoccupied with their own colonies' struggles for independence.'

As seen above, the Essequibo was not colonized by the Venezuela, but by the Dutch for hundreds of years already. The Spanish had no time for Essequibo, but the Dutch did. As seen in the information above, the Dutch was recognized through the 'Peace of Amiens' for the Essequibo colony. Thus others have accepted the Essequibo as being under Dutch rule instead of a colony of Spain or Venezuela very early on.

Section VIII - 1899 Paris Arbitral Award

According from Wikipedia retrieved o 12/14/23, 7:38 PM Guayana Esequiba: 'Guayana Esequiba (Spanish pronunciation: [gwaˈjana eseˈkiβa] —), also called Esequibo or Essequibo, is a disputed territory of 159,500 km² (61,600 sq mi) west of the Essequibo River. The territory is controlled by Guyana based on the 1899 Paris Arbitral Award but is also claimed by Venezuela. The boundary dispute was inherited from the colonial powers (Spain in the case of Venezuela, and the Netherlands and the United Kingdom in the case of Guyana) and has persisted following the independence of Venezuela and Guyana.’

‘In 1840, the British government commissioned German-born explorer and naturalist Robert Hermann Schomburgk to survey British Guiana's boundaries. This survey resulted in what came to be known as the "Schomburgk Line", which went well beyond the area of British occupation and gave British Guiana control of the mouth of the Orinoco River. These borders were disputed by Venezuela, and tensions worsened after the discovery of gold mines in the region in 1876, culminating with Venezuela severing diplomatic relations with the United Kingdom in 1887. The United Kingdom and Venezuela went into arbitration with mediation from the United States, which resulted in the Paris Arbitral Award in 1899 and ruled largely in favour of Britain. In 1949, a memorandum written by Severo Mallet-Prevost, official secretary of the US–Venezuela delegation in the arbitration, and published posthumously stated that the Arbitral Award resulted from the pressure by the Tribunal President Friedrich Martens and a political deal between Russia and Britain. Said memorandum led to complaints by Venezuela in the United Nations in 1962, which resulted in the Geneva Agreement, signed with the United Kingdom in 1966.’

As stated above, when gold mines were discovered in the Essequibo region in 1876 tension about Essequibo erupted. But the fact remains that Spain just sighting the area and drawing up a treaty in 1499 was not accepted by the Dutch, the English and others. Nor did Spain or Venezuela commenced any development or colonies in Essequibo, where as the Dutch did very early on.

Wikipediat states: ‘The status of the territory is subject to the Geneva Agreement, which was signed by the United Kingdom, Venezuela, and British Guiana on 17 February 1966. This treaty stipulates that the parties will agree to find a practical, peaceful, and satisfactory solution to the dispute. Should there be a stalemate, according to the treaty, the decision as to the means of settlement is to be referred to an "appropriate international organ" or, failing agreement on this point, to the Secretary-General of the United Nations. The Secretary-General referred the entire matter to the International Court of Justice.’

Regardless of what the above section says, Spain’s original treaty in 1499 was not recognized and shortly after it was the Dutch that were accepted by the Indigenous people and carried out work with them, and not the Spanish, thus from the very beginning the Essequibo region did not belong to Spain or Venezuela, but belong to the Dutch.

Section IX - Geneva Agreement (1966)

The following information was retrieved on 12/14/23, 7:19 PM Geneva Agreement (1966) - Wikipedia - Geneva Agreement (1966) states the following:

‘The Agreement to resolve the conflict between Venezuela and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland over the border between Venezuela and British Guiana, better known as the Geneva Agreement, is a treaty between Venezuela and the United Kingdom, along with its colony of British Guiana (which would soon receive its independence), that was signed in Geneva, Switzerland, on 17 February 1966. The treaty outlines the steps taken to resolve the territorial dispute between Venezuela and the United Kingdom over the region of Guayana Esequiba, arising from Venezuela's contention to the UN in 1962 that the 1899 declaration by the Paris Tribunal of Arbitration awarding the territory to British Guiana was null and void, following the publication of Severo Mallet-Prevost's memorandums and other documents from the tribunal that called the decision into question.’

History

‘The Geneva Agreement was published in the Official Gazette of Venezuela No. 28.008 on April 15, 1966, and subsequently registered with the General Office of the Organization of the United Nations on May 5, 1966, under registration number I-8192.

According to the link https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Guayana_Esequiba 1/28, retrieved on 12/14/23, 7:38 PM Guayana Esequiba - Wikipedia states: ‘On 18 December 2020, the ICJ accepted the case submitted by Guyana to settle the dispute. In December 2023, Venezuela held a referendum asking the Venezuelan electorate whether the region should become a state of Venezuela and its population become citizens, where it declared that the results showed overwhelming support for such action. No vote was held in the disputed region.’

Section X - Will Guyana still exist as a country in a few years, or will it become a part of Venezuela and Brazil?

On a simulation took place on October 23, 2022, the country Guyana was removed, showing just Venezuela and Brazil. Like Palestine removed from Netanyahu’s map, is Guyana destined to be consumed by Venezuela and Brazil?

Parts of this section was taken from the article The New World: Order Out Of Chaos; Part XI - A simulation of a future virus known as SEERS 2025 by Fisal Ally, published in a previous edition of the Diverse City Magazine

A NEW CATASTROPHIC CONTAGION OF A 2025 FUTURISTIC SIMULATION WHERE 3 SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES ARE HIT WITH AN OUTBREAK FROM A NEW INFECTIOUS DISEASE KNOWN AS SEVERE EPIDEMIC ENTEROVIRUS RESPIRATORY SYNDROME (SEERS) 2025

On October 23, 2022, at the Grand Challenges Annual Meeting in Brussels, Belgium, a fictitious scenario of a new virus simulation on Catastrophic Contagion had taken place, carried out by ‘The Johns Hopkins Center for Health Security, in partnership with WHO and the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation’ (Ref b). In the video created for this new new simulation (Ref c), at time 2:30 the host Jeanne Meserve of GNN states:

‘Official in 2 Latin American countries alerted the WHO on several outbreaks on a new infectious disease that’s mysteriously appearing across the region, Severe Epidemic Enterovirus Respiratory Syndrome (SEERS), 2025.’

‘In the past six weeks alone, there have been 500 confirmed or suspected cases reported. The virus could cause a severe pandemic if early containment and mitigation efforts are not successful.’

At time 1:18 in the video, a map of the northern part of South America is shown and is divided into two sections, an approximately north and south division with two colors. To the north is the orange colored area labeled as Nueva Esperanza and the second half to the south is a yellow area called San Rafael. In the video, a chart is then showed with the number of cases in each region where the cases for Nueva Esperanza continues to grow over a period of six weeks and the cases of San Rafael remains very lower.

In the video the host says, 'If a new virus called SEERS, Severe Epidemic Enterovirus Respiratory Syndrome 2025 spread across the world. This time a deadly virus that is more infectious than covid it harms more children.'

The countries in the catastrophic contagion simulation

Note: The original map did not show the names of the countries, nor the west borders of Guyana, but only showed two areas called Nueva Esperanza and San Rafael, and using the term, TWO LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES. THEY DID NOT SAY THREE COUNTRIES? DOES THAT MEAN THAT THE COUNTRY CALLED GUYANA WILL NO LONGER EXIST IN A FEW YEARS DURING THE GREAT RESET?

In the original map for the two regions in the video, the countries in Latin America are not mentioned. Being originally from that area, I immediately recognized which countries are in the simulation. See Graph 1 above in this report where I created a map with the two regions and also outline one of the main countries not outlined in the original video. The three countries in the simulation are located in South America. The countries are:

Guyana
Venezuela

Brazil

On the map, a part of eastern Venezuela, which is directly attached to Guyana, a part of northern Brazil also directly connected to Guyana, and all of Guyana area a part of the SEERS 2025 simulation.

Note in map in Graph 1, the bigger dot in Guyana is in the capital city, Georgetown, which obviously indicates more cases. There are also two smaller dots in Venezuela. There's also another dot in Guyana, not too far from where the Jonestown massacre had taken place where most of the people in community, adults and children, were poisoned by their leader Jim Jones and his medical staff by giving them poison to drink and also using syringes to give them the poison, resulting on the destruction and death of the people, except for a few that had managed to escape. Guyana had already seen lots of catastrophic. Also in the region there have also been a lot of chemical spills in Guyana gold mining, poisoning many rivers and species in this Amazonian country.

In the video the host says, 'If a new virus called SEERS, Severe Epidemic Enterovirus Respiratory Syndrome 2025 spread across the world. This time a deadly virus that is more infectious than covid it harms more children.'

Conclusion

From the above information presented, my view is Spain nor Venezuela had never had any valid or legitimate claims to the Essequibo region from the very beginning back in the 1550s. This is not about the 1899 agreement or what took place in 1966. Also from comments I've heard from some of the Indigenous people of Guyana, is, they are Guyanese and wants nothing to do with Venezuela. On October 23, 2022, at the Grand Challenges Annual Meeting in Brussels, Belgium, a fictitious scenario of a new virus simulation on Catastrophic Contagion where a deadly virus hits two Latin American countries in 2025 where when the map provided as part of the simulation, two new areas spans over the country Guyana and where the words 'TWO LATIN AMERICAN' countries were used. Will the Americans become unstable breaking out in wars and lockdowns, which all will start off with the threats being made by Venezuela towards Guyana, and where Venezuela will actually end up with most of the Essequibo and Brazil taking the rest of Guyana as per original map in the simulation?

1) The Epstein Scandals

Grooming someone to take advantage of them is very common, or even lying to them and tricking them into doing something they didn't want to do, whether in the music business, movie business, are crimes carried out on the victims, and very often the victims are threatened or blackmailed, where the ones that commits the crime gets away with it. Many crimes continue to be exposed, exposing the ones that commit the crimes destroying people's lives, as in the Epstein case and other cases.

The Epstein case came to light many years ago and is once again in the spotlight. Just recently in the article that came out on December 19, 2023 (ref1) 'Federal judge orders documents naming Jeffrey Epstein's associates to be unsealed; James Hill and Aaron Katersky; Tue, December 19, 2023, says 'A federal judge in New York has ordered a vast unsealing of court documents in early 2024 that will make public the names of scores of Jeffrey Epstein's associates.' The article states: 'A federal judge in New York has ordered a vast unsealing of court documents in early 2024 that will make public the names of scores of Jeffrey Epstein's associates.' Furthermore, 'Anyone who did not successfully fight to keep their name out of the civil case could see their name become public -- including Epstein's victims, co-conspirators and innocent associates. (ref1)'. Does this mean that someone that has money to do so, can buy their way out of the crime they were involved in?

Retrieved from Google search on December 20, 2023 at 8:45am tells us of the victims.

'Federal officials had identified thirty-six girls, some as young as 14-years-old, whom Epstein had allegedly sexually abused. Epstein pleaded guilty and was convicted in 2008 by a Florida state court of procuring a child for prostitution and of soliciting a prostitute (Reference 3)

Innocent people can easily get trapped and caught up in such grooming carried out by criminals. Thus it's important to get help and get out before your life is completely ruined and destroyed.

Get help. Talk to someone about it. And for the ones committing these crimes as seen in many of these reports coming out, sooner or later it catches up to you. It's bad enough that people who are committing crimes are finding ways to frame their victims, so the victims are blamed where the victims may even get charged and sentence to prison as we've heard of. With technology today, there are many ways of tracking the criminals as seen in the next write up on Call Center Scams. The technology is there for scammers to steal your work as you create it and takes credit for all your work before you have an opportunity to get your work out.

Imagine that someone tricks your child who doesn't know that people can be so evil where they are being lied to and before you know it, they are being groomed and also framed. The article (ref1) states that 'From 1994 to 2004, Maxwell and Epstein worked together to identify girls, GROOM THEM AND THEN ENTICE THEM to travel and transport them to Epstein's properties in New York, Florida, New Mexico, and elsewhere, prosecutors said. The girls -- some of whom were as young as 14 years old -- were then sexually abused, often under the guise of a "massage" they said.'

'Many of these sexual abuses took place on a small island in the Caribbean. 'In 1997, Little St. James was owned by venture capitalist Arch Cummin and was for sale for $10.5 million. In April 1998, a company called L.S.J. LLC purchased the island for $7.95 million, and documents showed that Jeffrey Epstein was the sole member of L.S.L.' 'Famous and wealthy people are involved in this wickedness and crimes. 'The guests to Epstein's island came from across the world and from the highest ranks of society: celebrities and scientists and members of royal families, touching down in a private jet and then boarding a helicopter to the island.' 'Its owner liked to call it "Little St Jeff". The locals called it "Paedophile Island." Reference 2

The ones committing these crimes often looks for ways to cover up their crimes. 'On this island, the complaint says: "Epstein and his associates could avoid detection of their illegal activity from Virgin Islands and federal law enforcement, and prevent these young women and underage girls from leaving freely and escaping the abuse." Reference 2

'The complaint also alleges that Little St. James served as a prison for the victims, with Epstein controlling communication with the outside world. It says one 15-year-old tried to escape by swimming, but Epstein organized a search party, recaptured her and confiscated her passport. Reference 3

2) Call Centers Scams - SEO Poisoning Method

By Faisal Ally

Published on December 22, 2023

Scandals and frauds are never ending

From the theft of people's songs, books, to conning someone over the phone, or tricking someone into doing something they didn't want to do. We have seen the outcome of scandals such as fraud in the music business, the College Admission Scandal, the Epstein cases, and countless phone and Internet scams.

There are many fraud campaigns

In a youtube video called ‘Scammers Get Arrested Live On Camera! (POV)’ by Scambaiter, which was uploaded around December 5th, 2023, the host of this video says that, ‘Pretending to be with Amazon is not the only process these guys have been running, they have actually had 18 different campaigns’

In the past, very often someone would call and try to get information from over the phone, but the fraudsters are always look for news ways to commit and cover up their crimes.

The host of this video says, ‘most scammer will send you a text message, email or even call you but thee guys know that code calling has already been done so many times that they have come up with a more clever way of reaching people in desperate need of help.’ The host of the video provides some examples of what a scammer may do. He says, “Lets say somebody is having issues with their Wal-Mart membership account being charged twice or their Facebook account being hacked and frozen, the first thing most of us do is go to Google and look up how we can resolve these common issues and this is where the scammers malicious ad campaign comes in as they are paying Google to make them the top search result for specific problem related Google searches and they will advice you to call the official customer line to easily fixed your issue (833) 784-3044.’

No doubt, this is exactly what many people do. For example, if I encounter a problem with a device or is looking for a help line, I would do a search on Google, youtube or other platforms for information.

The scam method being used - SEO Poisoning

The host of the video says, ‘The scam method they are using is not something they came up with but is a popular method by the name of SEO or search engine:

SEO Poisoning Defined

SEO poisoning is a technique used by threat actors to increase the prominence of their malicious websites, making then look more authentic to consumers. SEO poisoning tricks the human mind by assuming the top hits are the most credible and is very effective when people fail to look closely at the first search results. This can lead to credential theft, malware infections, and financial losses. Threat actors may even use targeted types of SEO poisoning, like spear-phishing, to go after specific users, like IT admins. The technique enables attackers to target and customize their attacks to specific audiences, making them more challenging to identify and defend against.’

The host says that many people do think that the top hits on Google are more creditable. So they make that call, where companies have paid to be at the top of the search.

He continues, ‘for example people think they are speaking to a real Facebook employee when in reality they are speaking to some random guy in a call center in India which they don’t know and since the victim is the one that called it’s easier for the scammer to make them do something stupid like sending money through cash app, bitcoin, zel or gift cards to quickly resolve their problems.

Thus once the customer makes the call to that call center, the customer feels that they can trust the person on the other end. And by gaining their trust, chances are some or many will do what they are told to do or asked to do, such as providing personal information, bank information etc...

Technology used for tracking scammers

The host of the video also has the skills and technology for tracking scammers, where the host made a call pretending to be an elderly lady that called a call center to solve her problems. The call center personnel now think that they may have a catch, or a person they can dupe. While the call center personnel is carrying out their crimes, with technology and skills the host possessed, he knew what the scammer was doing and he was also able to send the police to the call center to arrest the scammers.

Another incident is where the host of a video tracked the criminal and while the personnel was assisting him, the host deleted files from the criminal's computer and threatened the criminal, as the criminal begged for his files and not to be turn him over to the police.

Technology have come along way, and thus a person must think before committing a crime knowing that chances are they can be tracked and get caught. So why take a chance? Many will, hoping they will get away with it.

3) The Fadda'Chris'Mas Tricks

A fictitious scam

It's Christmas 2023 and hard times are here for some. Ahmed is broke. Albie, Alb, and Alber who are backbiters and back stabbers have stolen his songs and books, made hundreds of millions and made sure Ahmed is harassed and broke. There's hope. Santa is coming. You can hear the bells ringing in the neighbor as a man posing as Santa hands out gifts to the needy. He stopped at a few neighbors, rang the bell and handed them the gifts, and they looked at it and thanked him. Ahmed heard the bells ringing. He opened the door and waited as Santa walks up and handed him a box. Santa had a few tricks up his sleeve. He called himself Fadda Chris Mas. He pulled out an envelope and handed it to Ahmed. Ahmed was happy. He was hoping for a new running shoes and a few dollars to go out and get a nice meal for Christmas. Ahmed thanked him and he left. Ahmed opened the box and was surprised to see an empty box. Then he opened the envelop and pulled out something. He looked at it and it was blank. Ahmed shook his head, as FaddaChrisMass rode off ringing his bell. On that night FaddaChrisMas made himself fifty thousand dollars from robbing people that he does not like.

4) A family caught up in a music fraud

A fictitious music scam - 2025 court hearing

First Edition

It's the year 2025 and Ahmed was in the courthouse as Albie was in court. His brothers Alb and Alber had recently appeared in court. Albie, Alb and Alber are the world's biggest popular singers. They could not sing a tune, nor play a guitar, nor write a song, but they were known as the worlds best singers and songwriters. But the scam got out that for years they have been stealing songs and books, breaking them into pieces and going through the backdoor to get the work into the music business until they controlled the music world, more so in their country of 5 million people. They and their families have made trillions from the theft of songs, books and art and paid out lots of cash to people in position to cover up their crimes. They have also pulled Ahmed family and friends into the scam telling them they will become stars if they backbite Ahmed and carry out some initiations to please Satan. They have given contracts and gifts to Ahmed family and friends who were gullible enough to take it. Ahmed older brother Salman who where 20 years older than Ahmed was pulled into the scam, where Albie promised him to get his children into sports such as swimming, basketball, and got them into the best colleges, and Ahmed fell for the scam, where he would always have to carry out some tricks and teasing Ahmed, the things Satan wants his followers to do.

In the court house

Judge speaking to Albie: You come from one of the most powerful families in the world and now the biggest pop star. Words got out that you stole all of you songs?

Albie: I wrote those songs.

Judge: You were in diapers when some of those songs were written. The World Court have carried out a massive investigation. You and your family have destroyed the music business, destroyed the movie industry and much more, and now the Globalists are taking control of everything are you proud of yourself?

Albie: How dare you blame me for them taking over everything.

Judge: In your country, you promote that only music on the internet can be stolen. But the fact is, you stole from the unknown and you keep them down, and harass them. You and your brothers have made billions from this theft, so you tracked Ahmed for the past 20 years, and tracked all of his friends and families and paid some to harass him.

Albie: I did not.

Judge: We will present you will witnesses.

Albie: Oh no!

Judge: That's right. You have the best technology to track people, but there are colonies high up in the world that's tracking you.

The hearing was soon dismissed....To be continued....

Meditation Exercises

Rejuvenation Seminar by F. Ally March 7, 2014

This article takes some excerpts from the seminar with some modifications.

Be mindful of what's going on in your mind

What happens to your mind during the day? Do you notice how your mind is rambling on with stories, chattering, living in the past and the future? We need to live in the present moment. To do so we need to silence our mind for periods of time. Do you notice how we can waste hours engaged in these story lines that's rambling on and on in our minds? Do you notice how much energy we lose? Do you notice how we stress ourselves out when we are engaged in these chatters taking place in our heads?

Guard your thoughts

We want to guard our thoughts. Sometimes or even often our thoughts can harm us more than others trying to harm us. We must catch ourselves when are we caught up with these storylines and chit chattering going on in our head. The goal is to silence our mind for period of times. Silence is golden.

Meditate by using a mantra

Mantras can be found on the Internet? People that belong to a faith may have a line of words, which they can be repeated over and over. For example in Islam, Muslims do dhikr, which is the same as meditating, where a line such as 'Subhanalah' is repeated over and over. If you do not have a line to use as a mantra, then you can do a search online to find one that works for you.

Exercise

Repeat your mantra over and over trying to block any thoughts from entering your mind. By blocking these thoughts, your mind will start to become quiet. Slow down your mantra so the gaps widen. Those gaps should have silence. Keep slowing down your mantra so the gaps keeps getting wider with silence. Continue to widen the gap and let your mantra fade slowly by repeating your mantra slower and then a little bit slower etc... Your mantra should fade and when this happens, remain as silent as long as you can. The chatter will start coming back, because we've been conditioned to having these dialogues going on and on all day, and night when we are awake. You may even become restless. Do this for 15 minutes. The longer you do it the better.

When I began meditating a few decades ago, I was eager to see results, and in the morning as soon as I open my eyes, I would start saying my mantra to block these unwanted dialogues. Then I would sit for about 40 minutes to an hour to do my meditation. At nights before going to bed, I would also meditate for a while. Most people said I was very calm and while they were becoming uptight in meetings, I would be cool and calm. After about a year, sometimes I would slack off, but because I've already done so much, I can easily mediate even when I'm sitting or walking for a few minutes. I'm not as eager as I used to be, but I still meditate. However, I plan on adapting more of this practice.

I had taken Primordial Sound meditation a few decades ago. You can do a search for Dr. Deepak Chopra to get more information on this program.

Especially in the morning, sometimes for 1 hour, any thoughts that enter your mind, let go of them. Why? You will notice that you are often dwelling, blaming and conjuring up ideas, thinking about the past, the future. It's a good practice, else when the chattering began sometimes it's hard to stop it, and it can go on and on. We want to stop some of it or most of it. Try to remain in the present moment, by letting go of all thoughts. You are rejuvenating.

Throughout the day, catch yourself when you are lost in thoughts such as dwelling, blaming etc...And let go, but starting your mantra, even if it's for 30 seconds at different times during the day.

ALLY'S SONGWRITING JOURNEY

All of Faisal (Fizal) Ally's songs are copyright protected.

F. Ally have never given anyone permission to use any of his songs or books to profit off and to use commercially. Many songs and books can be downloaded from www.allymedia.ca for listening and reading. Over the years many recordings were handed out for people to listen to and to share with others to listen to.

Fisal Ally discusses writing his song, Gia Carangi

I rarely ever plan to write a particular song or a style of song. I just write songs and what ever comes out of it that's what it is, and usually at that time, I know if it sounds rock, ballad, reggae etc... and I take it from there. Writing the song Gia Carangi was planned. Writing my song Story of My Life was also planned, as I wanted to write about a journey I had gone through. So these two songs were planned. I wanted to write a song about a model. I began looking for names. I was looking for something different in stead of an English name such as Jenifer or Smith etc... Then I came across a name that sounded different from an English name. That name was Gia Carangi. I thought the name could have been Indian as in from India, but it was Italian. I read more about Gia Carangi. I was very surprised to hear about all of the hardships and sufferings she had gone through being a famous model. From what I recall, her life story was very sad so I had to find words to describe her story, and I was pleased with what I came up with.

As I stated many times, as an independent artist, I don't spend too much time recording my independent songs; I just wanted something that I was pleased with. For Gia Carangi, I played the acoustic guitar and the keyboard. If I wanted to enter a professional studio later or spend more time on the recording then that's what I would do later. I knew there were mistakes in my playing, but it was good enough for my recording. I don't expect someone else to steal my songs and tell me they did it to make it better or they stole it because they think that I can't sing. Theft is what criminals do. In the song, I tried to bring out the pain Gia had lived with until the day she died. Like many of my original recordings and one of my song/lyric books, this song can be listened to or downloaded from on www.allymedia.ca or other websites from the past or on medias which I have handed out as an independent artist. Thus my songs are out there for people to share, and not for people to steal, rewrite and steal, or break into pieces and to go through the backdoors in the entertainment industry to profit from, as I have never given anyone permission to do so.

Happy Holidays!

PRECIOUS HOLIDAYS

The good times fly, Another year gone by, There's magic tonight,
So have a precious holiday and a happy new year

All the best and success
All the good things life brings
Follow your passion,
with a New Year resolution

The good times fly, another year gone by

I'll always remember, the good times
Those moments we share and treasure,
the things we do together

Like taking rides on Santa's sleight
To see the lights on Candy Cane Lane

Smile with me, Shout with glee
The good times fly, another year gone by

Light up my life, light up the world, lets celebrate
It's the love we share, the love that gets, so high and higher

All the best and success
All the good things life brings
Sing a song and clap along,
here we go under the mistletoe
Smile with me, shout with glee,
The good time fly, another year gone by

A KISS GOODNIGHT

Music and Lyrics by Faisal Ally, Copyright 1990s to present

Everyone wants someone to hold them tight and make things right

Everyone wants some one to kiss goodnight

Everyone needs a friend, they can count on to be around

Everyone wants someone to kiss goodnight

A kiss goodbye in the morning, to hold you tight in the evening

Everyone wants someone to kiss goodnight

With some tender love and tenderness,

a hug and a kiss goodnight

When the night gets too cold, it's good to know that someone cares

Everyone wants some one to say goodnight

With some tender love and tenderness, a hug and a kiss goodnight

Everyone needs someone to lean on, when life gets them down

Everyone wants someone to show they care

Everyone needs a friend they can count on to be a round

Everyone wants someone to be their valentines

A kiss goodbye in the morning, to hold you tight in the evening

Everyone wants someone to say goodnight

With a kiss goodnight

A kiss goodnight

(A) kiss goodnight
