our world, our home

In the vast wilderness of our imaginations, we cultivate a new consciousness. As this abundant earth provides, we seek perfect balance with the existing, everchanging ecosystem.

Preserve peace in an atmosphere of delicate mushroom taupe, lichen gray, rich earth tones, and the colors of our sky's cloud-studded canopy.

our communal well-being

If we look carefully, we find a quiet place of healing, a realm where the energy we give is returned to us tenfold, where the warmth of loving kindness reminds us what it feels like to come home.

Enkindle a sense of support and serenity with a potter’s palette of natural clays and sunbaked desert sands, grounding brown, and soft, soulful white.
