

Glenn Jordan Cogan
Living Donor Support Network
1552 Clifftop Ave.
San Marcos, CA 92078

Dear Glenn Jordan Cogan:

Thank you for ordering your Non-Profit Incorporation from LegalZoom. Your corporation documents are enclosed in this package.

Your Non-Profit Articles of Incorporation have been filed with the Secretary of State, and your non profit corporation is now active. A copy of your company's filed Articles is enclosed for your reference. Please keep in mind organizing as a non-profit organization at the state level does not automatically grant the organization exemption from federal income tax. In general, an organization must file its exemption application also known as the 501c(3) application, within 27 months from the end of the month in which it was formed. If it does so, it may be recognized as exempt back to the date of formation. If an organization files its exemption application after the 27-month deadline, exempt status may only be recognized from the filing date forward. If you have not asked LegalZoom to prepare the 501c(3) application, please give us a call at (888) 381-8758 and we would be happy to assist you.

To complete the incorporation process, simply follow these final wrap-up instructions. It is very important to complete each of these steps to ensure the legality of the corporation.

1. Congratulations, your employer identification number is 87-2992511. This is also known as your tax identification number. If you have any questions regarding your tax identification number, please contact the IRS at (800) 829-4933. We require your signature on the Form SS-4 for our records. Please have the listed officer sign and date where indicated at the end of the document. Mail the signed SS-4 back to LegalZoom, 101 N. Brand Blvd., 11th Floor, Glendale, CA 91203. You can also fax it to us at (323) 962-0227 or email it to us at bzsupport@legalzoom.com.

2. The State of California requires you to complete and submit the Statement of Information within 90 days of your entity's file date. As a courtesy, we have provided a copy of the Statement of Information in your final package. The late penalty is $250, so be sure to submit this on time. Since you have opted for LegalZoom to serve as your Registered Agent, please be sure to write "LegalZoom.com, Inc." on Line 8 of the form.

Please note that the State of California is currently experiencing processing delays of up to 90 business days for Statements of Information. Based on current processing times, you should receive a copy of your filed Statement of Information within four months. To request status of your Statement of Information, please contact the State of California Business Division at (916) 653-6814.

3. You must draft Bylaws for your corporation. The book we've included, How to form a NonProfit Corporation, by Nolo Publishing, should help you in drafting your bylaws and necessary resolutions.
4. The State of California has prepared a checklist of licensing, state taxation and other issues that you should consider when starting a new business. Please visit their website for more information:
www.sos.ca.gov/business/be/resources.htm.
5. California state tax exemption requires the filing of form FTB 3500. Please contact the Franchise Tax Board for more information.
6. We are currently in process of completing your 501(c)(3) application. Please be aware that you may be required to answer several follow-up questions as they pertain to the information you provided on your application. In efforts to expedite this process, we ask that you complete them immediately as we will not be able to complete your application until we receive your answers. Any delay in responding to these questions will ultimately delay the completion of your 501(c)(3) application. As a precaution, please ensure to change your email filters to allow all correspondence from Legalzoom.com.

Storing your Documents: The incorporation documents should be kept in a secure location for your personal reference.

Corporate Minutes: In order to ensure the continued liability protection of a corporation, the directors need to hold periodic meetings, and members must meet once per year to elect directors. Meetings can take place in person or by telephone. Be sure to make a written record of the items discussed and actions approved at the meetings. Alternatively, you can just get all the directors (or a majority of the members) to sign a statement approving their actions.

Corporate Bank Account: In addition, it is extremely important to set up a separate bank account for the corporation, and to maintain books and records for the corporation which are separate from your personal records.

Change of Address: You have chosen LegalZoom to serve as your corporation's registered agent. To ensure that you receive all official state notices and service of process, please call us at (800) 773-0888 if you change your business address. Your annual registered agent fee is due on the anniversary date of your incorporation.

Thank you again for choosing LegalZoom. We look forward to serving your legal document needs in the future. If you should have any questions concerning your document, please contact us at [customer care@legalzoom.com](mailto:customer care@legalzoom.com).

Sincerely,

The LegalZoom Team

WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN 87-2992511. This EIN will identify you, your business accounts, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

When filing tax documents, payments, and related correspondence, it is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information is not correct as shown above, please make the correction using the attached tear-off stub and return it to us.

When you submitted your application for an EIN, you checked the box indicating you are a non-profit organization. Assigning an EIN does not grant tax-exempt status to non-profit organizations. Publication 557, Tax-Exempt Status for Your Organization, has details on the application process, as well as information on returns you may need to file. To apply for recognition of tax-exempt status under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3), organizations must complete a Form 1023-series application for recognition. All other entities should file Form 1024 if they want to request recognition under Section 501(a).

Nearly all organizations claiming tax-exempt status must file a Form 990-series annual information return (Form 990, 990-EZ, or 990-PF) or notice (Form 990-N) beginning with the year they legally form, even if they have not yet applied for or received recognition of tax-exempt status.

Unless a filing exception applies to you (search www.irs.gov for Annual Exempt Organization Return: Who Must File), you will lose your tax-exempt status if you fail to file a required return or notice for three consecutive years. We start calculating this three-year period from the tax year we assigned the EIN to you. If that first tax year isn't a full twelve months, you're still responsible for submitting a return for that year. If you didn't legally form in the same tax year in which you obtained your EIN, contact us at the phone number or address listed at the top of this letter.

For the most current information on your filing requirements and other important information, visit www.irs.gov/charities.
