

NORTH STAR CREED

I am a student at North Star Classical Christian School - a different school for a different purpose.

God is the source and purpose of all learning. His fingerprints of goodness, truth, and beauty are on all that we learn and encounter. His world is one of design, order, and purpose. All learning starts from Him, points to Him, leads to Him and reflects Him.

I have been intentionally and purposefully created to live life with intention and purpose. I have intrinsic value and worth because I have been knit together in the image of God. I am unconditionally loved not based on how I perform, but because of who God is. I have God-given potential that is a purposeful gift not to be wasted.

I am working to grow to become a true student- maturing in intellectual virtues and the habits of curiosity, carefulness in thought and action, autonomy, thoroughness, humility, obedience, tenacity, self-control, attentiveness, punctuality, and responsibility.

I approach life with a sense of wonder and discovery. I embrace the rigor, challenge, and discipline of learning as a privilege and opportunity to prepare myself for a life lived with maturity, grit, courage, perseverance, ownership, responsibility, leadership and service for Christ.

My time here is spent in preparation for future opportunities to use my talents, abilities, and interests for the good of my neighbor.

We are North Star.
