We do not sell personal information unless expressly disclosed here: Not Applicable

5. Cookies and Tracking

Our website may use cookies, pixels, analytics tools, and similar technologies to remember preferences, understand site traffic, improve performance, and support marketing efforts.

6. Email and SMS Marketing

If visitors opt in to receive emails or text messages, High Impact Homeschool and Coaching may send updates, promotions, reminders, and other business communications. Users can unsubscribe at any time using the unsubscribe link in emails or by following the instructions in text messages.

7. Data Retention

We retain personal information only as long as reasonably necessary for business, legal, accounting, tax, dispute-resolution, or compliance purposes.

8. Data Security

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect personal information. No method of transmission or storage is completely secure, so we cannot guarantee absolute security.

9. Third-Party Links and Services

Our website may link to third-party platforms, booking tools, payment processors, social media sites, course platforms, or external services. Their privacy practices are governed by their own policies.

10. Your Rights and Choices

- Request access to or correction of personal information, subject to applicable law.
- Opt out of marketing communications.
- Request deletion of certain personal information where legally permitted.
- Disable cookies in browser settings, understanding that some site features may not function properly.

11. Children's Privacy

This website is not intended for children under 13, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13 unless specifically disclosed and legally permitted.

12. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. When we do, we will revise the Effective Date above. Continued use of the website after updates means users accept the revised policy.
