

Privacy Policy for Double Dice Baseball

Effective Date: Aug. 27, 2026

1. Overview

Double Dice (“the Game”) is a locally-run mobile application designed for use on Android devices. This Privacy Policy explains how information is handled when you use the Game.

The Game is designed to function entirely offline and does not collect, transmit, or share personal data.

2. Information Collection

The Game does not collect, store, or transmit any personally identifiable information (PII) to the developer or any third parties.

However:

- Players may optionally enter names (e.g., for characters or profiles).
- These names are stored locally on the device only.
- This information is never transmitted externally.

3. Local Data Storage

The Game may store the following data locally on your device:

- Game progress and settings
- Player-entered names or identifiers
- High scores or saved states

This data:

- Remains entirely on your device
- Is not accessible to the developer
- Is deleted if the app is uninstalled (unless your device retains app data)

4. No Network Usage

The Game:

- Does not connect to the internet
- Does not use servers or cloud storage
- Does not include analytics, tracking, or advertising SDKs

5. Third-Party Services

The Game does not use any third-party services that collect or process user data.

6. Children's Privacy

The Game does not knowingly collect personal information from anyone, including children under 13. Since no data is transmitted or collected externally, the Game is safe for general audiences.

7. Data Security

Because all data is stored locally on your device and never transmitted, the security of your data depends on your device's security settings.

8. User Control

You have full control over your data:

- You may clear data via your device's app settings
- You may uninstall the Game to remove all stored data

9. Changes to This Policy

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time. Any changes will be reflected by updating the "Effective Date" above.
