

Policy of Confidentiality

At Finhance International, we are committed to protecting the confidentiality of the information entrusted to us by our clients, partners, and stakeholders. This Policy of Confidentiality outlines our practices regarding the collection, use, and protection of sensitive information.

1. Information Collection and Use We collect and use personal and business information only as necessary to provide our services effectively. This may include contact details, financial data, and other relevant information provided by clients during our interactions. We use this information exclusively for the purposes for which it was provided, such as offering tailored investment strategies, consulting services, or other related activities.

2. Data Protection We implement stringent security measures to protect the information we collect from unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction. These measures include secure data storage, encrypted communications, and access controls that limit information to authorized personnel only.

3. Confidentiality Agreements All employees, contractors, and partners of Finhance International are bound by confidentiality agreements that require them to maintain the confidentiality of any non-public information they handle in the course of their work. Breaches of these agreements are subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or contract.

4. Third-Party Disclosure We do not disclose confidential information to third parties without the explicit consent of the client, except as required by law or in response to legal processes. If disclosure is necessary for the provision of services, we ensure that any third parties involved are bound by similar confidentiality obligations.

5. Retention and Disposal of Information We retain confidential information only as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected or as required by law. When information is no longer needed, we dispose of it securely to prevent unauthorized access.

6. Client Rights Clients have the right to access the personal information we hold about them and to request corrections or deletions as necessary. We are committed to responding promptly to such requests and ensuring that client data is accurate and up-to-date.

7. Changes to This Policy Finhance International reserves the right to modify this Policy of Confidentiality at any time. Any changes will be communicated to clients and partners as required and will be reflected in an updated version of this policy available on our website.

8. Contact Information For questions or concerns regarding our confidentiality practices, please contact us at [email address] or [phone number]. We are committed to addressing any inquiries promptly and transparently.
