Supply List

(note: you do not have to bring everything on the first few days of class)

- Four binders for Practical Life, Sensorial, Math, and Language, (at least 3” spines – higher-quality binders work best). Note – some people like 4” binders, but I find them awkward and heavy when filled. Size may also depend on the weight of page protectors (approximately $48)
- 4 – 2” binders for Geography/History, Science, Philosophy and Observation/Recordkeeping/Classroom Leadership. (approximately $12)
- page protectors for albums (about $12/200 at Costco) – optional – approx. $30
- stick-on divider tabs – approx. $10
- plain paper (e.g., printer paper) or notebook for notetaking – approx. $3
- notebook paper – approx. $3
- scissors
- stapler
- paper punch
- glue stick
- Sharpie marker, highlighter(optional)
- sticky notes – optional, but handy
- camera – optional – for photos of materials during lessons

Optional items for your comfort:

- pillow
- snacks – many groups schedule and share these as a community
- water
- sweater
- rolling luggage holder or rolling bin to transport albums
