MEDICAL SERVICES

Hello.

My name is Matt and I am the Managing Director of MedXPlus Medical Services.

I ignited my career in 2019 within the Ambulance Service, working and training as various roles towards my goal as a Paramedic. I have learned valuable skills and knowledge to deliver clinical excellence.

Prior to the Ambulance Service, I operated an events company specialising in lighting and sound which allowed me to acquire various skills including leadership, accountability and self-motivation.

I feel my experience to date puts me in a good place to provide clients with a professional, trusted partner in delivering an outstanding and professional medical service.
